AQUARIUS SEASON 2020

STARTS:
JAN 20TH
9:54AM ET
6:54AM PT

ENDS:
FEB 18TH
11:56PM ET
8:56PM PT

About the Water Bearer:

Hello Aquarius Season! Aquarius is a sign that rules independence, originality, and individuality. This sign wants to do things its own way, and doesn't care what everyone else thinks about that. It doesn't care to stick to the way things have always been. It wants to see what's possible and could be!

Aquarius is unconventional, always looking to do things in brand new ways that may seem out there and unusual, weird and eccentric, but this sign doesn't mind. It goes against tradition so it can explore what's possible, and see just what we're capable of.

Aquarius is the sign of change, ruled by change-maker Uranus. Aquarius wants things to change so we can see what new things can be explored, and how we can grow, evolve, and learn. Aquarius sees changes as a necessary part of life, not something to be ignored, but to be embraced with enthusiasm.

Aquarius governs the future, and can look way far ahead to see how everything comes together. This helps it think outside of the box, and it can be open to trying things that are totally different if it means having the future it wants.

Aquarius rules hopes and dreams, and is a little bit of a dreamer at heart. It has hope that what it wants will happen, and can make changes and try the unconventional to make it happen. There must be a way!

Aquarius rules groups and friends, and we can come together as friends or in groups, united for a common cause to champion, or by a common bond. Aquarius understands that we're all connected in some way, and that that connection bonds us, no matter how different we are or our lives are.

Aquarius is an intellectual air sign, and wants to think things through. It's always focused on ideas, but unconventional ideas and ones focused on dreams and the future. It's also a fixed sign, so once it gets focused on something, it can stick with it.

Aquarius demands the freedom to be itself, and wants everyone else to be themselves too. It celebrates our differences, and sees the beauty in them.

Aquarius is also the sign of the rebel - this sign doesn't follow the rules, it breaks them! Rules only serve to stifle creativity and invention, at least according to Aquarius. Blow those rules away!

So, have a happy birthday season to the Aquarians! And to everyone else - break some rules!

☾ Lunar Movement During Aquarius Season 2020

Starts in Sagittarius

Sagittarius Moons are good times to let loose, and find some space to breathe and explore. You can feel more open to new experiences and have a more optimistic outlook. You can focus on opportunities and what they have to offer you.

Enters Capricorn January 21st @ 11:59PM ET/8:59PM PT

Capricorn Moons are good times to focus on ambitions and long-term plans for your goals. These are often professional, but can also be personal. You can be more disciplined and practical, responsible and mature, and sort through what's needed.

Enters Aquarius January 24th @ 8:21AM ET/5:21AM PT

Aquarius Moons are good times to focus on change, find more independence, and push us outside of our comfort zones. We can be open to doing things in new ways, meeting new people, and coming up with innovations. We may think outside of the box. This is amplified with the Aquarius New Moon on January 4th.

Enters Pisces January 26th @ 6:43PM ET/3:43PM PT

Pisces Moons are good times to get in tune with our intuition and inner guide, and to exercise more compassion and empathy. You may be more introspective, want some time alone to recharge, or work to bring something to an end.

Enters Aries January 29th @ 6:51AM ET/3:51AM PT

Aries Moons are good times to start something new, to take the initiative with something we want, and to make use of a pioneering spirit. You may have more energy and drive to take action with something, and feel positive about your chances.

Enters Taurus January 31st @ 7:28PM ET/4:28PM PT

Taurus Moons are good times to slow things down, take stock, and bring grounding energy to anything that needs it in your life. You can work to improve stability, security, and confidence, and you can focus on financial matters.

Enters Gemini February 3rd @ 6:29AM ET/3:29AM PT

Gemini Moons are good times to focus on your short-term plans, create new ones for ideas, and communicate with others. You can work to be more expressive, and try to understand yourself and others better.

Enters Cancer February 5th @ 2:02PM ET/11:21AM PT

Cancer Moons are good times to focus on your emotional needs, and to find more emotional comfort and support for yourself. As you feel more comforted and supported, you can give comfort and support to others. We can be more nurturing and focused on emotional connection with others.

Enters Leo February 7th @ 5:45PM ET/2:45PM PT

Leo Moons are good times to use creative energy to make the mundane more manageable and connect to your heart. You can spend time with the people you love, and do the things you love in healthy and positive ways. We can crave this even more with the Full Moon in Leo on February 9th.

Enters Virgo February 9th @ 6:38PM ET/3:38PM PT

Virgo Moons are good times to get things done that need to be done. The things that have piled up in the last week or so can become top of mind, and you can focus on getting organized, making lists, and tackling the little things so you feel less stressed (but needing to not take on too much, otherwise more stress can come!).

Enters Libra February 11th @ 6:38PM ET/3:38PM PT

Libra Moons are good times to focus on your relationships and the people in your life. You can also work to restore balance in areas that have been out of balance, or find some peace with areas that have been chaotic.

Enters Scorpio February 13th @ 7:37PM ET/4:37PM PT

Scorpio Moons are good times to channel passionate energy into something productive, or to do intense research into anything you need to know more about.

Enters Sagittarius February 15th @ 11:07PM ET/8:07PM PT

We come back to a Sagittarius Moon, and we can wrap up big ideas and big plans or finish with big opportunities that we started at the beginning of the season.

Enters Capricorn February 18th @ 5:37AM ET/2:37AM PT

Aquarius Season ends with the Moon in Capricorn, and we can close the season out with disciplined focus and try to finalize long-term plans for goals before we lose focus.

February 18th 4:03AM - 5:37AM ET (1:03AM - 2:37AM PT)

What to do during Void Moon periods:

When the Moon is void-of-course, it has made its last major aspect in the sign the Moon is touring, and is now just moving toward the new sign. This is sort of an aimless period for the Moon, so Void Moons are good for slowing things down, getting rest, tying up loose ends, and finishing things you've already started. This can be a time to give your mind a break or slow down on changes during Aquarius Season. They're not seen as particularly good periods for anything new, unless you want nothing to come of it. The exception is if you have any natal or progressed planets at 29 degrees (the anaretic degree). This means the Moon is moving to aspect your anaretic planet, and therefore is still giving you energy personally. You may feel invigorated while the rest of us are slumping!

SLOW RIDING

Quarter Moon Phases During Aquarius Season 2020

New Moon

January 24th 4:42PM ET / 1:42PM PT

Keyword: BEGIN

Moon Location: 4 degrees 21 minutes Aquarius

The New Moon phase is a time of new beginnings, new ideas, new plans, and new energy. In Aquarius, we can work on changes for the better, focus on opportunities for our dreams, meet new people, take up new causes, and act independently.

What new ideas, plans, and opportunities can you focus on with the New Moon in Aquarius?

2nd Quarter Moon Phase

February 1st 8:42PM ET/5:42PM PT

Keyword: ADJUST

Moon Location: 12 degrees 40 minutes Taurus

2nd Quarter Moon phases tend to focus on adjustments that need to be made. We've started new with the New Moon and are charging toward the Full Moon, where we reap what we've sown. This phase is the time for us to be flexible so we can improve our chances of succeeding with the Full Moon. In Taurus, we may need more stability and security, to ground ourselves, or to take things slow.

What adjustments can you make, or how can you be more flexible, during the 2nd Quarter Moon phase?

Full Moon

February 9th 2:33AM ET/February 8th 11:33PM PT

Keyword: CULMINATION

Moon Location: 20 degrees 0 minutes Leo

The Full Moon phase brings the climax of the Moon, and therefore brings culminations, endings, and we reap what we've sown. We can experience success and make progress, or we can experience setbacks, delays, and failures. In Leo, we can be inspired, crave more love and affection, and finish up creative projects and ventures.

How can you manage developments with the Full Moon, and have proper outlets for your emotions?

4th Quarter Moon Phase

February 15th 5:18PM ET / 2:18PM PT

Keyword: CLEAR

Moon Location: 26 degrees 41 minutes Scorpio

4th Quarter Moon phases focus on clearing out and cleaning up to make room for the new energy coming with the New Moon phase. This can be a quieter time when we're focused on preparation. With Scorpio, we may need to dig deeper to find what needs to be released, and make a transformation in order to let go.

What can you clear out and clean up during the 4th Quarter Moon phase?

☾ Lilith During Aquarius Season 2020

The dark lady, Black Moon Lilith (a dark pixie!) goes from 29 degrees Pisces to 2 degrees Aries during Aquarius Season. Lilith in Pisces tends to be more subdued for Lilith. Lilith wants to break out, shake up the patriarchy, and be true to itself. But Pisces doesn't like doing that too much! So we may try to make changes quietly, in subtle ways that don't grab too much attention. Where we may see more of a fighting spirit come out is when we're helping the helpless, and need to stand up for the defenseless. We may want to punch the heartless in the mouth!

But Lilith is anaretic in Pisces (the last degree of any sign and a point of crisis energy), and this can make it more important for us to stand up and speak out about something.

This becomes even more important when Lilith enters Aries (January 27th). Lilith in Aries is big energy for taking a stand! Push back, fight for yourself. Rage against the machine and break down the walls! Lilith in Aries is loud and has demands that it expects to be met. Lilith in Aries won't let things slide. Lilith in Aries is a force, and knows what it wants!

Aquarius Season comes with only 1 Lilith aspect, but it's a conjunction (aligned with) Venus in Aries on February 9th. This is likely going to create some friction in relationships and our dealings with one another. Probably great for sexual energy, but likely also a lot of aggression and frustration and fighting! Venus is one of the rulers of women, so it feels like a prime time for women to make some big noise in a big way.

Your Lilith energy may come out in the areas of life ruled by the natal house transit Lilith is touring for you (find where 29 degrees Pisces - 2 degrees Aries falls). If Lilith will aspect any of your natal planets or house cusps, this may trigger your inner Lilith, and you may stand up and be bold!

I AM LOUD

What natal house is Lilith touring for you? Will Lilith make any aspects to your natal chart during Aquarius season?

Planetary Movement During Aquarius Season 2020

New Moon in Aquarius January 24th @ 4:42PM ET/1:42PM PT

The Aquarius New Moon (at 4 degrees 21 minutes) can help us get super focused on our dreams for the future, and we can work on plans for changes we need to make. We can work independently, think outside of the box, and make use of opportunities to open up to new people and make progress with our dreams.

Aspects: 2 degrees 21 minutes - 6 degrees 21 minutes of Aquarius (conjunction), Aries or Sagittarius (sextile), Taurus or Scorpio (square), Gemini or Libra (trine), Leo (opposition)

Note the house location and aspects of this New Moon and potential impact:

Mercury enters Pisces February 3rd @ 6:37AM ET/3:37AM PT & turns retrograde in Pisces February 16th @ 7:54PM ET/4:54PM PT

Mercury enters Pisces and adds to imagination. We may have trouble with some focus, and get lost in daydreams and fantasies, and this can become much worse when Mercury turns retrograde! We can also be more easily drained and need more time alone to recharge, yet feel more isolated at times and lost in our heads. There is likely baggage that needs to be released, let go, and old issues that need to be understood. Dive into your subconscious, and work it out.

The retrograde begins at 12 degrees Pisces, so aspects are 9 - 15 degrees of: Pisces (conjunction), Taurus or Capricorn (sextile), Gemini or Sagittarius (square), Cancer or Scorpio (trine), Virgo (opposition)

Where does the retrograde start for you, and does it make any aspects?

Venus enters Aries February 7th @ 3:02PM ET/12:02PM PT

Venus enters Aries, and this can give us more energy to focus on our connections and the people in our lives. We can take the initiative in love, and want to focus on the positives. We may want more attention at times, but we can be sweet in return. Not the best time for patience with others!

Full Moon in Leo February 9th @ 2:33AM ET/February 8th @ 11:33PM PT

The Leo Full Moon (at 20 degrees 0 minutes) brings focus to matters of the heart, and we can work to get more in tune with our hearts. We can spend more time with the people we love or doing the things we love, and we can feel inspired. If we lack a heartfelt connection, we may not give it much focus at all. It's all about love!

Aspects: 18 degrees 0 minutes - 22 degrees 0 minutes of Leo (conjunction), Gemini or Libra (sextile), Taurus or Scorpio (square), Aries or Sagittarius (trine), Aquarius (opposition)

Make note of the house location and aspects made by this Full Moon and potential impact:

Mars enters Capricorn February 16th @ 6:32AM ET/3:32AM PT

Mars moves into Capricorn, joining Jupiter, Saturn, and Pluto, and this can amplify the Capricorn stellium energy. We can be extra focused on goals and feel super ambitious, and want to pursue opportunities to make progress and achieve success. We may not feel this right away though with Mercury turning retrograde the same day, though it can be excellent energy for revising, taking second chances, and doing things over.

The Aquarius New Moon on January 24th can bring financial opportunities, and you can feel more grounded. Venus enters Aries on February 7th, and you can be more supportive of loved ones, and enjoy getting back to your roots. The Leo Full Moon on February 9th can bring intense focus on something that you need to get to the heart of. The Mercury retrograde starting February 16th can throw off your focus and requires you to give your mind an outlet, but it can be good for picking up old ideas again.

How can you improve your security and bring stability into your life during this Aquarius Season?

AQUARIUS

Aquarius Season is your season! This is a great time for you to focus on what you want for yourself, to start new projects and ventures that you can work on for the next year, and to take advantage of energy you may have. This can feel strong around the New Moon in your sign on January 24th. Venus enters Aries on February 7th, and you can enjoy using your mind and coming up with new ideas. The Leo Full Moon on February 9th can bring support from others, and you can grow closer with loved ones. The Mercury retrograde starting February 16th might make you feel a little stuck in some ways, but you can improve stability and security.

What can you get started with during this Aquarius Season?

PISCES

Aquarius Season activates your subconscious and spirituality, and you may want more time alone so you can deal with things on your own, make plans, and set things up for when it's your season next. The Aquarius New Moon on January 24th can bring opportunities for you to do something behind the scenes or in the background. Venus enters Aries on February 7th, and you can enjoy physical connections and splurging. The Leo Full Moon on February 9th can help you finish things that need to be out of the way, but try to avoid taking on too much and stressing yourself out. The Mercury retrograde starts February 16th in your sign, and stress can be extra high as you try to manage lots of little things. Take it easy on yourself and focus on second chances.

How can you take it easy and make more time to recharge during this Aquarius Season?
