

CANCER NEW MOON

Workshop Transcript

The Dark Pixie
ASTROLOGY

Contents:

Cancer New Moon	3
Mars Sextile Saturn	8
Venus Sextile Uranus	12
Mercury Sextile Jupiter	16
Sun Trine Saturn	20
Venus Trine Neptune	24
Venus Opposite Pluto	28
Mars Conjunct Uranus	32
Sun Sextile Uranus	36
Mars Sextile Neptune	40

Hi everyone and welcome to the Cancer New Moon workshop!

This will cover the major astrological aspects from July 5th, the day of the New Moon, to July 20th, the day before the next Full Moon, since this is the period the Cancer New Moon is in effect. We've got 9 major aspects to cover, plus the New Moon, so let's get into it. I recommend paying attention to both your Sun and Rising signs, if you know both.

Let's start off with the Cancer New Moon, which takes place on July 5th 2024, at 6:57 PM eastern time 3:57 PM pacific time. This occurs at 14 degrees 23 minutes of Cancer. Cancer is the sign of emotions, so this can bring out our emotions, but in a more positive way with the New Moon. It motivates us to take action, and we're ready to get moving. The Moon is the natural ruler of Cancer, so we have an easier time getting in touch with what we feel, and we can use this to our advantage.

The New Moon is opposite Ceres, a dwarf planet ruling nourishment, support, and resources, who is retrograde, or appearing to move backward, in Capricorn. This does highlight issues we're experiencing with not having enough of what we need, and feeling unsupported or insecure. This does trigger us emotionally with the New Moon in Cancer, so we should try to pay attention to what gets stirred up and act accordingly to make improvements.

Now, what are some things each sign can focus on? Let's break it down for each Zodiac sign.

For Aries, the Cancer New Moon is in your fourth house, and this can bring attention to the home and family, to your internal foundation, and to what you're working on from the ground up. You can get back to basics, get to your roots, or to something from your early life. With Ceres in play, consider ways you can bring better balance to the internal and the external, and how external focuses have gotten in the way of internal stability.

For Taurus, the Cancer New Moon is in your third house, and this brings more focus to your ideas and plans. You can keep yourself busy, filling up your schedule, and can be more engaging with others. With the opposition to Ceres, there may be too much focus on the big picture and not enough on the details, so work on why that's the case and find ways to balance the two.

For Gemini, the Cancer New Moon is in your second house, and this can make you more resourceful, bring access to new resources, bring financial developments, or focus on ways you can improve stability and security. Since Ceres is involved, this might be dredging up some deeply-held issues that have impacted your confidence and support, and the New Moon can help to ground you.

For Cancer, the New Moon is in your sign and first house, and this is traditionally a great time for new beginnings and new ventures. You can be enthusiastic, excited, and ready to take the initiative. Focus on what you want to get started for yourself. With the New Moon opposite Ceres, that retrograde has likely brought more attention to others, so the New Moon wants to make sure you're taking care of yourself too.

For Leo, the Cancer New Moon is in your twelfth house, and this can put you in the background, behind the scenes, and out of the spotlight, at least for now. This is a time for preparation, especially since the next New Moon is in your sign, and a Mercury retrograde in your sign comes shortly after, so now would be the time to clear out. With the opposition to Ceres, don't just work, but also make sure to get plenty of rest.

For Virgo, the Cancer New Moon is in your eleventh house, and you can focus on changes you want to make, dreams you have for the future, being more independent, or doing something differently. You can step outside of your comfort zone, and think outside the box. With Ceres in play, you may have to deal with issues that have made you box yourself in a little too much.

For Libra, the Cancer New Moon is in your tenth house, and your goals can be top of mind. You can feel more ambitious, and want to succeed in some way. You can hit your stride, and can set new goals. With the opposition to Ceres, you may need to work on improving the foundation of something in your life, taking care of emotional needs, and allowing yourself to strive for more.

For Scorpio, the Cancer New Moon is in your ninth house, and you can think big, bright, and want to branch out. Your optimism can lead to new experiences and new opportunities, and you can pounce at the chance to have a mini adventure. With Ceres in opposition, this might try to keep you thinking small, so work on trying to find a balance between the big and little pictures.

For Sagittarius, the Cancer New Moon is in your eighth house, and this helps you feel stronger, more willful, and more in control of something. You can get working on a transformation for the better, and this can help empower you. With the opposition to Ceres, you may have felt like things were going too slowly lately, and the New Moon helps give you the passion you need to get going.

For Capricorn, the Cancer New Moon is in your seventh house, and this brings more attention to your connections with others. You can spend more time with others, meet new people, make new commitments, enter into new arrangements, and restore some balance. This can be welcome with the Ceres retrograde in your sign, and the New Moon can provide some help.

For Aquarius, the Cancer New Moon is in your sixth house, and you can focus on what needs to be done. Make a list of all the tasks and chores that have been put off, and tackle them now. You can also get a new project started, and get excited about it. With the opposition to Ceres, you've likely been drained a little more easily lately, so the New Moon helps you make up for some lost ground.

For Pisces, the Cancer New Moon is in your fifth house, and you can feel creative and want more time doing what you enjoy, being with the people you love, and connecting to your heart. You can be joyful and try to have fun with everything you do. With the opposition to Ceres, you may need to work on strengthening your heartfelt connection to your dreams and future.

Mars Sextile Saturn:

On the same day as the New Moon, Mars is sextile Saturn at 3:02 PM eastern, 12:02 PM pacific, so just a few hours before, and Mars is in Taurus while Saturn is in Pisces with both at 19 degrees 23 minutes. Sextiles are beneficial aspects, so this is excellent for getting us focused. Mars is energy and drive while Saturn is discipline, goals, and direction, so we can focus on the goals we want to make strides with, and can be enthusiastic and energized about it. This helps us take action with the New Moon energy, and we can get going quickly.

For Aries, Mars sextile Saturn occurs in your second and twelfth houses. Your energy has been a little slower, but you can focus this well on your own and make some headway with a project or plan. This might allow you to get something finished that helps you make more strides.

For Taurus, Mars sextile Saturn targets you specifically since Mars is in your sign and the first house, and Saturn is in the eleventh. Your energy can be high, and you can feel motivated to take action. This can focus on your dreams for the future, and the changes you need to make. You can strive to be realistic with what you're pursuing, so you can get further faster. If you're a Taurus Sun, this can be strongest for you if you're born May 7th - 12th.

For Gemini, Mars sextile Saturn lights up your twelfth and tenth houses, and you can work well on your own and feel extra disciplined with your goals without others getting in the way. Time to work by yourself can help you make plans, drill down on what needs to be done, and improve your position.

For Cancer, Mars sextile Saturn activates your eleventh and ninth houses, and you can use your energy to make changes, or find motivation in different ways. This can help you open up to new ideas, big plans, and you can expand on what's possible for your life right now.

For Leo, Mars sextile Saturn occurs in your tenth and eighth houses, so you're feeling extra ambitious and driven, and strive to get further along your path. You can channel passionate energy in productive ways, and feel disciplined and focused. You can solve a problem and work on a transformation.

For Virgo, Mars sextile Saturn lights up your ninth and seventh houses, and you're feeling a little adventurous and willing to get out there, and this may come with the help of others. You can be more disciplined with a partner, and may focus on big ideas that help you commit to something or find balance.

For Libra, Mars sextile Saturn activates your eighth and sixth houses, giving you incredible strength of will, and you can make things happen. This can help you in your daily life, with small projects and tasks, and with any work that you want to make strides with. You can throw yourself into it and get going.

For Scorpio, Mars sextile Saturn occurs in your seventh and fifth houses, and you may prefer to work with others. Having a partner can energize you, and you can get more accomplished with someone to help or give insights. You may opt to focus on creative projects and ventures, and can enjoy what you're doing.

For Sagittarius, Mars sextile Saturn lights up your sixth and fourth houses, and your eye for the details can be on point right now, and this can help you detect any cracks in the foundation of something you need to work on, or help you focus on the best way to get started with a new venture from the ground up.

For Capricorn, Mars sextile Saturn activates your fifth and third houses, so you're feeling extra creative and can get inspired easily, and you may want to sort through ideas and choose one to focus on. You may opt for one that gets you excited, and you can have fun with it.

For Aquarius, Mars sextile Saturn occurs in your fourth and second houses, and your emotions can come into play as they serve to drive you to take action in some way. You may focus on projects and ventures that provide new resources, help you financially, or restore stability.

For Pisces, Mars sextile Saturn targets you specifically since Saturn is in your sign and the first house, and Mars is in the third house. You've got plenty of mental energy right now, and you can focus on taking action with an idea thanks to Mars. Make sure to be disciplined, practical, and smart with Saturn. If you're a Pisces Sun, this can be strongest for you if you're born March 7th - 11th.

Venus Sextile Uranus:

On July 8th, we have two aspects, the first being Venus sextile Uranus at 7:04 AM eastern time, 4:04 AM pacific time. Venus is in Cancer while Uranus is in Taurus, and both are at 26 degrees 2 minutes. This is a beneficial aspect, and pleasant Venus helps us feel comfortable with the changes that come with Uranus. We can get excited by these changes, and can work on them on our own or with the help of others. There can be some unexpected developments in our relationships and dealings with others thanks to Uranus, but we can manage this well.

For Aries, Venus sextile Uranus lights up your fourth and second houses. This can help you make improvements at home, with those you think of as family, or emotionally. You can strengthen the foundation of something, and feel more stable and at ease as a result.

For Taurus, Venus sextile Uranus targets you directly since Uranus is in your sign and first house, and Venus in the third house. Uranus in your sign has brought a lot of changes to your life and personality, and Venus in the third house gives you lots of ideas for more. You can quickly take action with an idea, and you may do so independently. If you're a Taurus Sun, this aspect can be strongest for you if you're born May 14th - 18th.

For Gemini, Venus sextile Uranus occurs in your second and twelfth houses, so you can make changes in practical ways, on your own, and can stick with whatever you do. You can feel comfortable and confident in your abilities, and can ground yourself as you go along.

For Cancer, Venus sextile Uranus targets you directly since Venus is in your sign and first house, and Uranus is in the eleventh. Venus in your sign helps make you more attractive, pleasant, committed, and compromising, and sextile Uranus helps you make changes that you want to make, become more independent, and embrace the unconventional. If you're a Cancer Sun, this aspect is strongest for you if born July 16th - 21st.

For Leo, Venus sextile Uranus activates your twelfth and tenth houses, so you can feel comfortable working on changes on your own, and may clear something out to make room for new growth. The changes you make can focus on your goals and direction, and help you feel confident in where you're going.

For Virgo, Venus sextile Uranus lights up your eleventh and ninth houses, helping you feel more independent and willing to take a chance on something new. You can embrace changes with a sense of adventure, and can open up to big ideas that push you outside of your comfort zone.

For Libra, Venus sextile Uranus occurs in your tenth and eighth houses, making you more ambitious and driven, and open to changes that transform and empower you. You can be more passionate about your goals, and more committed to the long-term plans you have.

For Scorpio, Venus sextile Uranus activates your ninth and seventh houses, and you can be more gregarious with others and open to an adventure. You may want to shake things up in a partnership or alliance, and can find new ways to commit to someone or something that still gives you freedom of movement.

For Sagittarius, Venus sextile Uranus lights up your eighth and sixth houses, making you more passionate and intense with your work and daily tasks. Any projects you're working on now, you can throw yourself into, and you can be open to changes that help you get more done and take more control.

For Capricorn, Venus sextile Uranus occurs in your seventh and fifth houses, helping you work well with others, and giving you a surge of inspiration. You can work on creative projects and have sudden insights into what to do with them, and others can be of help when you need it.

For Aquarius, Venus sextile Uranus activates your sixth and fourth houses, and you can enjoy getting work done and tending to the little things, especially at home or in comfortable places. You can make some small changes to the foundation of something, and this helps you get more done.

For Pisces, Venus sextile Uranus lights up your fifth and third houses, and creativity can surge, and you can come up with new creative ideas, and get excited by new information and positive news. A sudden idea can come to you, and you can use it to express yourself openly and proudly.

Mercury Sextile Jupiter:

The second aspect for July 8th is Mercury sextile Jupiter at 10:26 AM eastern, 7:26 AM pacific time, with Mercury in Leo and Jupiter in Gemini, and both at 9 degrees 50 minutes. Positive Mercury to Jupiter gives us an expansive attitude and positive outlook. We can come up with big ideas, big plans, and get excited by them. We can enjoy communicating and conversing, and openly express ourselves. We're largely focused on the good, and we can benefit from optimism and new knowledge.

The Moon is in Leo for both aspects July 8th, adding a little creativity and affection to the mix, and ramping up the positive energy.

For Aries, Mercury sextile Jupiter activates your fifth and third houses. Creative ideas can flow, and you can enjoy focusing on things that make you happy and bring some joy to your life. Your outlook can be positive, optimistic even, and you can think big and focus on exciting plans.

For Taurus, Mercury sextile Jupiter lights up your fourth and second houses, and you can take your time expressing yourself and sharing what you're feeling. You may work to ground yourself emotionally, and this can help you become more positive and merge your heart and mind.

For Gemini, Mercury sextile Jupiter targets you directly as Jupiter is in your sign and first house, and Mercury in the third house. Jupiter in your sign has helped improve your outlook on life, and opened you up to big ideas. You can come up with even more ideas, especially short-term ones, and can take action with them quickly to get going. If you're a Gemini Sun, this can be strongest for you if born May 28th - June 1st.

For Cancer, Mercury sextile Jupiter occurs in your second and twelfth houses, and you can take some time to make decisions or plans, but can work best when you're on your own and not being bothered. You can stick with your choices without interference, and set yourself up well.

For Leo, Mercury sextile Jupiter targets you directly since Mercury is in your sign and first house, and Jupiter is in the eleventh house. Mercury in your sign increases your mental energy and makes you open with your ideas and thoughts. You can pursue unconventional or unexpected opportunities to make them happen, and can benefit from being independent. If you're a Leo Sun, you can feel this strongest if you're born July 29th - August 3rd.

For Virgo, Mercury sextile Jupiter activates your twelfth and tenth houses, so you can work well on your own and have an easier time with decisions and plans. You can focus on your goals, and this can be a good time to set yourself up to make strides and eventually achieve something.

For Libra, Mercury sextile Jupiter occurs in your eleventh and ninth houses, and you can think outside the box and open up to big ideas and plans. You may want to expand your life and have new experiences, and you can pursue opportunities that push you outside of your comfort zone.

For Scorpio, Mercury sextile Jupiter lights up your tenth and eighth houses, and your mind can be disciplined and your passion focused. You can work on a transformation that helps you make strides with a goal, and you can empower yourself, take control, and get to the core of it.

For Sagittarius, Mercury sextile Jupiter activates your ninth and seventh houses, so you can think big and bright, and this can help you have positive communications with others. You can enjoy humor with this aspect, and may get or give news, and someone can present you with needed information.

For Capricorn, Mercury sextile Jupiter occurs in your eighth and sixth houses, giving you a passionate mind that can focus on the details and small projects. You may want to get to the heart of something, or find a solution for something, which opens up more options for you with work or in your daily life.

For Aquarius, Mercury sextile Jupiter lights up your seventh and fifth houses, and you can communicate well with others, and may strive to express yourself. You can enjoy getting attention from others, and may want to spend some time conversing with loved ones.

For Pisces, Mercury sextile Jupiter activates your sixth and fourth houses, giving you an eye for the details that you can put to good use working on plans for something you're starting from the ground up with. You can also come up with small ways to give yourself emotional support.

Sun Trine Saturn:

On July 10th, the Sun trines Saturn at 11:05 PM eastern, 8:05 PM pacific time. The Sun is in Cancer and Saturn is in Pisces, two water signs, and both at 19 degrees 19 minutes. Trines are beneficial aspects, and the Sun and Saturn are working well together for this aspect. With Saturn ruling discipline and the Sun ruling our selves, this is another great aspect for getting things done, working toward our goals, and staying focused. We're doing more to proceed further along our path, and can feel confident in our direction.

The Moon is in Virgo for this aspect, the sign of work, so it just adds to the energy for getting things done and working hard toward what we want.

For Aries, the Sun trine Saturn occurs in your fourth and twelfth houses. This can help you focus on the foundation of something you're working on from the ground up, or you may get back to basics with it, and you can do the work on your own. This quietly helps to set you up.

For Taurus, the Sun trine Saturn lights up your third and eleventh houses, and you can focus on the ideas and plans you have for change. You can drill down on the ideas and focus on the ones that would be of most help, and get information for your plans and work to finalize them.

For Gemini, the Sun trine Saturn activates your second and tenth houses, and you can take a practical approach with any work you do. You can dedicate yourself to what you're working to achieve, and you may go slow, but can keep at it and feel confident in your potential.

For Cancer, the Sun trine Saturn targets you directly since the Sun is in your sign and first house, and Saturn is in the ninth house. With the Sun in your sign, this helps you focus on what you want to get started for yourself, something you've likely given greater focus since the New Moon in your sign. You can get focused now, and can make practical use of your view of the big picture. If you're a Cancer Sun, this aspect is strongest if you're born July 8th - 13th.

For Leo, the Sun trine Saturn occurs in your twelfth and eighth houses, and you can work well on your own and utilize the passionate energy you have in a productive way. You may work on finishing something, and can focus on being more disciplined with your power.

For Virgo, the Sun trine Saturn lights up your eleventh and seventh houses, so you can work to make changes in disciplined ways, and these might be changes that impact a commitment, arrangement, or alliance. You can be mindful of the impact, and find unconventional ways to make it positive.

For Libra, the Sun trine Saturn activates your tenth and sixth houses, focusing on your goals and the work you need to do to make strides.

You can be practical with your approach, and feel driven to succeed. Stick to your plans, and make sure you've got the details worked out.

For Scorpio, the Sun trine Saturn occurs in your ninth and fifth houses, and you can focus on expanding your life in new ways. You can be more productive with your creativity, and this can help you open up new opportunities. You can feel bolder than usual, and can take a chance on yourself.

For Sagittarius, the Sun trine Saturn lights up your eighth and fourth houses, and you can be passionate about whatever you're doing now, and this can help you build a strong foundation. You can utilize passionate energy to unlock yourself emotionally, and taking care of your emotional needs can make you more secure.

For Capricorn, the Sun trine Saturn activates your seventh and third houses, so you can work well with others and may find that you do better with your ideas and plans with someone to bounce them off of, or that getting advice or help helps you to drill down on what you should focus on.

For Aquarius, the Sun trine Saturn occurs in your sixth and second houses, and you can get little things done and out of the way, which relieves some stress and helps you feel more centered. The details can make a difference with pursuits to attain new resources and improve stability.

For Pisces, the Sun trine Saturn targets you directly since Saturn is in your sign and first house, and the Sun is in the fifth house. Saturn in your sign increases your discipline and focus, and you can channel that creatively with the Sun. You can make strides with a creative pursuit, and feel inspired. If you're a Pisces Sun, this aspect is strongest for you if you're born March 7th - 11th.

Venus Trine Neptune:

On July 11th, Venus trines Neptune at 10:32 AM eastern, 7:32 AM pacific. This comes at the anaretic degree, which is supercharged energy. There are 30 degrees in every sign, and the last degree is 29 degrees, called the anaretic degree. This aspect is at 29 degrees 54 minutes in Cancer for Venus and Pisces for Neptune. It pushes us to take action, but it might be with something creative, our imagination, or in our relationships. Our intuition can be extra strong, and we can be extra compassionate and understanding. This normally leaves us vulnerable to being taken advantage of, but with this being a beneficial aspect, we have the ability to avoid that.

Venus moves out of Cancer and into Leo less than 2 hours after this aspect occurs, so that could explain why we're not as vulnerable. It's because our focus is shifting quickly afterward, so we're not investing as much time and energy. We're helpful, but in a quick shot and then we're done. We're creative and imaginative, but we don't get lost in it because we've got our eye on the next thing.

For Aries, Venus trine Neptune lights up your fourth and twelfth houses. You can be super emotionally understanding and supportive, and want to be of help with others. You may do some work behind the scenes to do that. Your emotions can also inspire you creatively, and you may want some time alone for creative pursuits.

For Taurus, Venus trine Neptune occurs in your third and eleventh houses. This can make you more creative with your ideas, and you can dream about your future. You may want to take quick action with a short-term plan that helps you get closer to what you dream of.

For Gemini, Venus trine Neptune activates your second and tenth houses, grounding your imagination and creativity so you can be more productive with it. You can feel inspired with one of your goals, and work to make strides in a steady way that will last.

For Cancer, Venus trine Neptune targets you specifically since Venus is in your sign and first house. Venus in your sign is pleasant energy, and Neptune in the ninth house opens up your imagination. Having space to roam can give you inspiration, and you can go on an adventure. If you're a Cancer Sun, this can be strongest for you if you're born July 19th or later.

For Leo, Venus trine Neptune lights up your twelfth and eighth houses, and you can work on what you're passionate about on your own. You may find inspiration in new ways, and want to take action, but quietly. This can help you get to the heart of something or transform something.

For Virgo, Venus trine Neptune occurs in your eleventh and seventh houses, making it easier for you to spend time with friends or groups. You can be more understanding and supportive, and may get more support in return. You can focus on changes as well, and they might happen with help.

For Libra, Venus trine Neptune activates your tenth and sixth houses, focusing on your goals and what you want to achieve. You can feel ambitious and driven, and can connect with the right people, or make the right impression. You may focus on things long-term if the details have evaded you.

For Scorpio, Venus trine Neptune lights up your ninth and fifth houses, increasing your creativity and opening you up to new experiences. You can connect with others via adventures, and can tell more stories or share some wisdom. You may come up with a big idea for something creative.

For Sagittarius, Venus trine Neptune occurs in your eighth and fourth houses, so you can be more passionate about something, get to the heart of it, or find a solution. You can empower yourself emotionally, and strengthen your internal foundation.

For Capricorn, Venus trine Neptune activates your seventh and third houses, and working with others can help you with your ideas and short-term plans. You may chat about what you're working on or thinking about, and can appreciate the information you get.

For Aquarius, Venus trine Neptune lights up your sixth and second houses, and you can enjoy working on small tasks and projects, getting them out of the way. You can be more practical with your creativity, and tend to the details of creative projects. This helps to stabilize you.

For Pisces, Venus trine Neptune targets you directly since Neptune is in your sign and first house. This has greatly increased your imagination, compassion, and intuition. Venus in the fifth house brings inspiration for your creative pursuits, a big heart for understanding and connecting, and a positive approach to intuitive insights. If you're a Pisces Sun, this aspect can be strongest for you if you're born March 16th or later.

Venus Opposite Pluto:

On July 12th, Venus opposes Pluto at 10:12 AM eastern, 7:12 AM pacific. This is the only hard aspect during this period, and it comes with Venus now in Leo opposing Pluto in Aquarius, and both at 1 degree 7 minutes. Challenging Pluto likes to stir up drama and fights, and with Venus, we're short with others, frustrated over things we're stuck with, and want to lash out. This doesn't help though, so we need to try and control this energy and channel it in a positive, productive way, or at least through a healthy outlet so we're not unloading on others.

Do note that since this aspect is very early in sign, you may want to follow the sign before your Rising sign.

The Moon is in Libra for this aspect, naturally ruled by Venus, so we really do have to be mindful of our interactions with others and not blow up.

For Aries, Venus opposite Pluto activates your fifth and eleventh houses. You can feel at odds with friends and loved ones, and this can feel personal for you even if it's not. You may need to assess whether a friendship or connection should continue, and if it does, if it needs some work.

For Taurus, Venus opposite Pluto occurs in your fourth and tenth houses, and your emotional dealings with others may get in the way of the work you're trying to do. You may need to give support to others, and work on the foundation of one of your relationships if it's feeling shaky.

For Gemini, Venus opposite Pluto lights up your third and ninth houses, making communication a bit shaky. You might get stuck on plans or details, and lose sight of the big picture. Try to take a step back so you can properly assess, and work on improving the flow of communication.

For Cancer, Venus opposite Pluto activates your second and eighth houses, and stubbornness might be getting in the way, keeping you stuck in fights and misunderstandings. Try to work on opening up more, and get to the core of what is making you feel this way.

For Leo, Venus opposite Pluto targets you specifically with Venus in your sign and first house. Venus in your sign ordinarily makes you pleasant and enjoy attention, but with the opposition to Pluto in the seventh house, this can bring out fights, and you can attract people who want to fight you. Try to avoid getting dragged in the mud, and stick to the high road. If you're a Leo Sun, this aspect is strongest for you if you're born July 26th and earlier.

For Virgo, Venus opposite Pluto occurs in your twelfth and sixth houses, and you may feel you're being drained by others. You're giving a lot and being of help, but this is stressing you out and taking too much from you. Try to find some balance and healthy boundaries, and get some rest.

For Libra, Venus opposite Pluto lights up your eleventh and fifth houses, and you may want more time to make changes and be independent, yet loved ones may demand more of your attention. Try to make time to help, while also keeping time for yourself to pursue change.

For Scorpio, Venus opposite Pluto activates your tenth and fourth houses, so you may want more time to focus on your goals and feel more ambitious, but you have personal and home and family matters that take up your time. Work on balancing your schedule and focus, and strengthening yourself internally so you don't feel so shaky.

For Sagittarius, Venus opposite Pluto occurs in your ninth and third houses, and you may crave space and want to do your own thing, but little issues pop up and you may lack support from others. Work on improving communication with those in your life, and try to keep an open mind.

For Capricorn, Venus opposite Pluto lights up your eighth and second houses, and you can feel more passionate and intense, and this might mean others get under your skin more easily, and prompts you to feel stuck. Try to focus the passionate energy productively, and improve stability.

For Aquarius, Venus opposite Pluto targets you directly as Pluto is in your sign and first house. This has brought new transformations for your life, and wants to empower you. But with Venus in the seventh house, you may struggle with focus on the self versus focus on others and finding a balance between the two. Make that balance more of a priority. If you're an Aquarius Sun, this aspect is strongest for you if you're born January 24th and earlier.

For Pisces, Venus opposite Pluto activates your sixth and twelfth houses, and you may be doing too much, and feel easily drained, have a hard time with focus, and may have too many people making demands of you. Try to get a break where you can, and extra rest can be good for you.

Mars Conjunct Uranus:

On July 15th, Mars is conjunct, or aligned with, Uranus, at 10:05 AM eastern, 7:05 AM pacific time. These two come together at 26 degrees 19 minutes in Taurus, and shake things up. Mars is energy and drive, Uranus is change and the unconventional. When they come together, we're up for making big changes, we've got the energy and motivation to get it done, and we can be willing to push outside of our comfort zones and experiment. This is great for breaking out of a rut and getting unstuck. But we do have to make sure we're not impatient, impulsive, and jump at anything. We need to be smart about it so we don't end up in a bad spot later. I'd say this is the strongest aspect for this period, so take full advantage of it.

The Moon is in Scorpio for this aspect, so we're extra passionate, and this can be used to energize the changes we're making and what we're breaking out of, but again, we need to make sure we have control over this.

For Aries, Mars conjunct Uranus occurs in your second house. This is the house of money, resources, security, stability, and values, so you can work on changes and take the initiative with financial opportunities, getting access to new resources or utilizing existing resources in new ways, and improve stability and security in your life. You can feel more confident and focused.

For Taurus, Mars conjunct Uranus is in your sign, so you get a direct hit. This is amazing for taking the initiative with a new beginning, a new venture, a new project, or a new journey, and this can be a focus for years to come. You can be willing to take a chance on your dreams, and push yourself outside of your comfort zone to make things happen. If you're a Taurus Sun, this aspect is strongest for you if you're born May 14th - 19th.

For Gemini, Mars conjunct Uranus lights up your twelfth house, which is the house of the hidden. You may prefer to take action alone, behind the scenes, or in the background, and can have more energy and drive alone, without others interfering. This can be a great time for pursuing creative and artistic projects, and you can be more spiritual and intuitive.

For Cancer, Mars conjunct Uranus activates your eleventh house, the house of friends, dreams, and change. You can meet new people and expand your social circle, pursue opportunities to make strides with or achieve a dream for the future, and take the initiative with changes. You can be more independent, embrace the unconventional, and try to be true to your unique self.

For Leo, Mars conjunct Uranus occurs in your tenth house, the house of goals and direction. You can experience sudden, unexpected success with something you've worked on for at least the last six months, and can hit your stride, get recognition, and connect with powerful people. Or you may set new goals and get started in a whole new direction in your life.

For Virgo, Mars conjunct Uranus lights up your ninth house, which can open you up to new possibilities. You can be optimistic and expansive, and this can lead to new experiences that teach you something. You may want to pursue writing projects, spend time teaching, work on your speaking, or travel to new places. Your mind can be wide open, and you can feel bold.

For Libra, Mars conjunct Uranus activates your eighth house, which can help you to strengthen yourself, take more control, and feel empowered. You may get to the heart of something, solve something, or transform something for the better. This can also be a good time for mutually-beneficial projects and ventures.

For Scorpio, Mars conjunct Uranus occurs in your seventh house, the house of relationships. You may have the opportunity to work with a partner, and you can enter into new commitments, arrangements, alliances, and compromises. You can also focus on trying to improve balance in your life, and you can create more peace and harmony.

For Sagittarius, Mars conjunct Uranus lights up your sixth house, the house of work, daily life, and health. There can be unexpected strides made with a work project, and you may get unexpected work opportunities. You can be more productive and organized in unconventional ways, and you can make changes to improve your daily life and health.

For Capricorn, Mars conjunct Uranus activates your fifth house, the house of love. You may feel suddenly inspired and want to pursue new creative projects and ventures. You can pick up new hobbies that are a little out there, and you may decide on a whim to go on a vacation or have a quick getaway. You can find new ways to connect to your heart, be joyful, and be with loved ones.

For Aquarius, Mars conjunct Uranus occurs in your fourth house, the house of home and family. You can make changes at home, with your living situation, and experience changes in your family. You can pursue unexpected opportunities to work on a project from the ground up, and can find unconventional ways to strengthen the foundation of something.

For Pisces, Mars conjunct Uranus lights up your third house, and your mental energy surges, giving you lots of new, unconventional ideas as you think way outside of the box. You may take advantage of unexpected opportunities to make an idea something real and to put plans into action. You can work quickly and keep yourself busy.

Sun Sextile Uranus:

On July 18th, the Sun sextiles Uranus at 10 AM eastern, 7 AM pacific time, with the Sun in Cancer and Uranus in Taurus, both at 26 degrees 25 minutes. This is more helpful energy for changes, for doing things differently, for experimenting, and for pushing ourselves to step out. We can be true to ourselves as we do this, and we can be both independent as well as work well with groups. We can also give more attention to the future, our hopes and dreams, and some of the changes we're making might be to help us get closer to what we dream of.

The Moon is in Sagittarius for this aspect, so we're super positive, open to big ideas, and can see the big picture, which helps as we're working on changes and trying to make dreams come true.

For Aries, the Sun sextile Uranus lights up your fourth and second houses. You may work on making changes to something at the core of it, at the foundation of it, and you can be practical with them and take your time, wanting to make sure you get it right.

For Taurus, the Sun sextile Uranus targets you specifically since Uranus is in your sign and first house, which has brought lots of changes to your life in recent years. With the Sun in the third house, this can bring new ideas, and they may be unconventional, and help you with change. If you're a Taurus Sun, this aspect is strongest for you if you're born May 14th - 19th.

For Gemini, the Sun sextile Uranus occurs in your second and twelfth houses, which can make you take a steady approach to any changes you make. You're likely focused on changes on your own, in the background, that set you up for future opportunities.

For Cancer, the Sun sextile Uranus targets you directly with the Sun in your sign and first house, which usually helps you to focus on new beginnings and get something started. With Uranus in the eleventh house, you're open to changes, and want to work on changes that help you get closer to your dream future. If you're a Cancer Sun, this aspect is strongest for you if you're born July 16th - 20th.

For Leo, the Sun sextile Uranus activates your twelfth and tenth houses, and you can work on your own to make changes with your goals, long-term plans, and ambitions. You want to make sure you're on the right track, and can be open to changes that ensure that you are.

For Virgo, the Sun sextile Uranus lights up your eleventh and ninth houses, and you can feel extra open to changes, and may focus on changes in big ways. You want to open up your options and make more possible for you, and you can expand on changes you've already started.

For Libra, the Sun sextile Uranus occurs in your tenth and eighth houses, making you more focused on your goals and path. You can work on positive transformations that help you stay focused and make more strides, and you can be passionate about the goals you have.

For Scorpio, the Sun sextile Uranus activates your ninth and seventh houses, and you can feel open to taking big steps for changes that help you with your connections or with having more balance in your life. You may work on changes with the help of others, but you lead the way.

For Sagittarius, the Sun sextile Uranus lights up your eighth and sixth houses, making you more passionate about the changes you're making in small ways, with work, or in your daily life. You can focus on the changes that require you to have more focus and intensity.

For Capricorn, the Sun sextile Uranus occurs in your seventh and fifth houses, which might make you focus on changes in your relationships and with loved ones. You may get help with change, or help someone else with a change they're embarking on, and can be positive about this.

For Aquarius, the Sun sextile Uranus activates your sixth and fourth houses, and you can pay attention to the details of changes you're making, and may focus on changes that help strengthen the foundation of something, or allow you to start something from the ground up.

For Pisces, the Sun sextile Uranus lights up your fifth and third houses, so you can be creative with ideas and plans for changes, and want to enjoy yourself as you're working on them. You may want the changes to bring more fun, joy, and love into your life.

Mars Sextile Neptune:

Lastly, on July 20th, we have Mars sextile Neptune at 11:17 AM eastern, 8:17 AM pacific time. Mars is in Taurus and Neptune in Pisces, and with Neptune ruling imagination, intuition, and compassion, Mars helps fuel these, and we're extra imaginative and creative, have strong gut instincts we can rely on, and exercise more empathy and understanding. This is supercharged with Mars and Neptune anaretic in their signs, both at 29 degrees 50 minutes, and we can feel motivated to take action with creative projects, spiritual pursuits, and intuitive insights.

Mars enters Gemini, exiting Taurus, about 5 ½ hours after this aspect occurs, so we can act quickly, while we feel we still have the chance. We can take the initiative, and trust that we're taking the right action.

For Aries, Mars sextile Neptune activates your second and twelfth houses, and you may want to work on something on your own that improves your confidence and security, or gives you better access to a resource. You can benefit from grounding yourself spiritually and intuitively.

For Taurus, Mars sextile Neptune targets you directly since Mars is in your sign and first house, increasing your energy and drive. With Neptune in the eleventh house, you can take action with a change you're working on or with a dream you have, and you work quickly. If you're a Taurus Sun, this aspect is strongest for you if you're born May 18th and later.

For Gemini, Mars sextile Neptune occurs in your twelfth and tenth houses, so your energy can be strong when you're working alone, and you can focus this on your goals. This allows you to make strides while you have the chance, and you can feel good about your path.

For Cancer, Mars sextile Neptune lights up your eleventh and ninth houses, and you can work on small changes that help open up your life in new ways. New experiences can expand your ideas for the future, and you can get sudden intuitive insights to work on.

For Leo, Mars sextile Neptune activates your tenth and eighth houses, making you more ambitious and driven, and your passionate energy can be intensely focused. You can sense what you need to know more about in order to make more strides, and do so quickly.

For Virgo, Mars sextile Neptune occurs in your ninth and seventh houses, which makes you want more opportunities to have new experiences, and you may get that with the help of others. You can focus on improving your connections with others as well, and can be gregarious.

For Libra, Mars sextile Neptune lights up your eighth and sixth houses, so your energy is quite passionate and you can focus this on your work, projects, daily life, and the details. You can bring some imagination to the mundane, and this can inspire more passion.

For Scorpio, Mars sextile Neptune activates your seventh and fifth houses, and you can be more creative and inspired, especially by your dealings with others. Loved ones may provide helpful insights, and you may find you make strides with the help of others.

For Sagittarius, Mars sextile Neptune occurs in your sixth and fourth houses, making you more detailed and hard-working, and this can focus on home and family matters, or you may channel this to pay close attention to the foundation of a new venture or project.

For Capricorn, Mars sextile Neptune lights up your fifth and third houses, and your creativity can be high, and you can focus on creative ideas and plans for creative projects. You can get inspired by words, and information or news can help you make quick work.

For Aquarius, Mars sextile Neptune activates your fourth and second houses, and you can feel motivated to work on something from the ground up, and you can be practical about it. You can work to maintain stability as you get started, and emotional intuition can be a guide.

For Pisces, Mars sextile Neptune targets you specifically with Neptune in your sign and first house, increasing your imagination and intuition. Mars in the third house brings an active mind and lots of ideas, so you can focus on the ideas and plans you feel guided to pursue and take action. If you're a Pisces Sun, this aspect is strongest for you if you're born March 17th and later.

Alright, so there we have it! Good luck with these aspects during this Cancer New Moon period!