NOTES

ABOUT JULY 2024:

Mercury moving into Leo on July 2nd can help with creative ideas and projects, and this grows with Venus entering Leo on the 11th. They also help with expressing love and joy, and being more affectionate. The Sun enters Leo on the 22nd, helping us to feel fun and free, though Mercury isn't in Leo long and enters Virgo on the 25th, making us more attentive.

Neptune retrograde starts on the 2nd as well, and is in home sign Pisces, though it's nearing the end of its time in Pisces. Neptune retrograde is notorious for the foggy energy it brings, and we may need to work on being more realistic and grounding ourselves.

The July 5th Cancer New Moon can be great for home and family matters, starting something from the ground up, and feeling emotionally optimistic.

Mars enters Gemini on the 20th, joining Jupiter in Gemini, and these two help bring energy and luck together. We can make incredible strides with our ideas and plans, communication can flow, we can keep busy and are engaged, and we can use our minds to the greatest advantage.

The July 21st Capricorn Full Moon is the second Full Moon in Capricorn in a row and comes at a sensitive position. Developments may link to the June Capricorn Full Moon, and we may feel extra driven to take action with the July Full Moon.
