Lesson 1: Jupiter in Aquarius: December 2020 - May 2021, July - December 2021

Entrance: Jupiter enters Aquarius on December 19th 2020 at 8:07AM ET/5:07AM PT. Jupiter stays in Aquarius until May 13th 2021 (6:35PM ET/3:35PM PT), and comes back to Aquarius July 28th 2021 (8:42AM ET/5:42AM PT), where it stays until December 28th 2021 (11:09PM ET/8:09PM PT).

Jupiter has been touring the sign of Capricorn for 2020, and this isn't a sign it's very happy with. Capricorn is disciplined, focused, mature, and restrictive, while Jupiter is the planet of expansion, opportunity, adventure, and freedom. Aquarius is a sign that goes much better with Jupiter's natural energy since Aquarius is also independent and embraces change. This can be a huge relief, especially since the Capricorn stellium with Jupiter, Saturn, and Pluto in Capricorn comes to an end!

Jupiter in Aquarius wants to break out and try to do things differently. We've felt stifled with Capricorn, and Aquarius pushes us to step outside of our comfort zones and try something unconventional. This can create new opportunities for us, and we can go down new roads.

Aquarius is an original and big on individuality, so we may want to express our true selves. Even if our true selves are really weird! Maybe even more if that's the case, actually. We've had to be boxed in with the Capricorn stellium, and there have been hints of rebellion simmering underneath. Jupiter in Aquarius gives opportunity to let that rise to the surface and take over. Now, we do have to be careful we don't rebel just for the sake of rebelling like dumb teenagers; as long as we're doing it from an authentic place and have some direction, this can go well.

Capricorn is the sign of long-term goals and long-term plans, while Aquarius is the sign of the future. We step from those big goals and plans we put together during the Capricorn stellium of 2020 and move toward what they mean for the future, and what we hope they will lead to. The future is on the brain, and this can motivate us to make changes and try new things.

Aquarius also rules causes that we're passionate about, and Jupiter rules our beliefs, so we may be even more active and engaged in causes. The focus on the future may be part of what fuels this, and we're a lot more aware of how what happens now can have ramifications later.

Aquarius rules groups and friendships and the masses - this has been a little challenging thanks to COVID! We haven't really been able to come together for a while (that's thanks to Saturn in Aquarius). Jupiter in Aquarius would like some interaction and engagement, expanding social circles and joining in, but it might be some time before we can do that again like we used to. So, with Aquarius ruling change and doing things differently we may find we embrace more fully the idea of coming together and engaging and meeting new people in different ways. No doubt technology plays a factor (which it already was beforehand, but this can accelerate it).

Speaking of technology, Aquarius is the ruler of the internet, so naturally, we may find even more of life is moved online! That just makes logical sense with what's been happening, and hopefully Jupiter makes the transition a little easier.

You'll find all of this impacts you most with the areas of life ruled by the house(s) Jupiter in Aquarius tours in your natal chart.

The main keywords to focus on are:

- Change
- Dreams
- Independence
- Individuality
- The unconventional

Lesson 2: Important Times During Jupiter in Aquarius

Jupiter Retrograde:

Jupiter retrograde can be a time where we feel lazier than usual, lack motivation to get much done, but can also sort through some karma and connect more to our spiritual selves if we turn inward and work on understanding the past.

In Aquarius, this may mean we put changes on hold as we deal with past or subconscious issues that have kept us from being true to ourselves, have the independence we want and need, pursue our dreams, and find where we belong.

Jupiter retrograde in 2021 actually starts in Pisces on June 20th 2021 (11:05AM ET/7:05AM PT) @ 2 degrees 11 minutes Pisces. Jupiter retrogrades back to Aquarius on July 28th 2021 (8:42AM ET/5:42AM PT), and ends on October 18th 2021 (1:30AM ET/October 17th @ 10:30PM PT) at 22 degrees 20 minutes Aquarius.

Jupiter in Aquarius Aspects to Transit Planets:

Jupiter in Aquarius only makes two major aspects to the other major planets (Saturn, Uranus, Neptune, Pluto). The first is a conjunction (alignment) with transit Saturn early in this tour on Aquarius, on December 21st 2020 (1:21PM ET/10:21AM PT) at 0 degrees 29 minutes Aquarius. They move into Aquarius around the same time, with Saturn entering December 17th 2020 and Jupiter entering December 19th 2020, and come together quickly.

This is pretty big! They were both in Capricorn together but didn't actually align, so we're coming out of the Capricorn stellium and immediately get hit with this aspect in a new sign. Focus is likely on the future, our hopes and dreams, our individuality and originality, the unconventional, change, and nonconformity. This is likely going to be felt in the areas of life ruled by the house 0 degrees Aquarius falls for you in your natal chart. It'll be stronger for you if it aspects any of your planets or angles. The aspects are:

Conjunction: 0 - 2 degrees Aquarius (super for you! Extra crazy focus on whatever if being conjuncted, definitely focus on trying to do something with whatever it rules)

Semisextile: 0 - 1 degree Capricorn or Pisces (semisextiles are positive aspects but not as strong as the others; you can make use of positive energy with a lot of effort)

Sextile: 0 - 2 degrees Aries or Sagittarius (beneficial aspect; opportunities can be presented to you that you can pursue with greater ease)

Square: 0 - 2 degrees Taurus or Scorpio (challenging aspect; you may feel difficulties arise that you need to conquer first before you can make anything positive happen)

Trine: 0 - 2 degrees Gemini or Libra (beneficial aspect; opportunities and success comes more easily, though there can be some laziness that has to be managed)

Quincunx: 0 - 1 degree Cancer or Virgo (quincunxes are challenging aspects of erratic energy, and you may have to adjust to developments)

Opposition: 0 - 2 degrees Leo (challenging aspect; something outside of yourself may be pushing against you and flexibility may be required)

The other aspect Jupiter in Aquarius makes is a square to transit Uranus in Taurus. Uranus is the natural ruler of Aquarius! So this kicks up a lot more rebellious energy, impulsive energy, and the desire to push back against the status quo. We want change, and we want it now! But we may feel a little lazy about it, or lack motivation in some way, or aren't sure about how to do it. Jupiter likes to make us lazy and just kick back, but then we lose out on the energy. So, try to focus on what you can change and make use of the energy you have. You'll feel this hardest if you have planets or points at 4 - 8 degrees Taurus, Leo, Scorpio, or Aquarius.

This aspect is exact only once, on January 17th 2021 (5:50PM ET/2:50PM PT) at 6 degrees 43 minutes, BUT Uranus ends its retrograde on January 14th 2021, and is square Jupiter (this is in orb January 5th - 26th 2021).

We may feel it VERY strong at the end of Uranus retrograde! We're excited about doing something new, and need to stay focused and on track.

Mercury Retrograde in Aquarius:

When Mercury retrogrades in the same sign as Jupiter, this can make us push for more freedom and independence. We may become aware of areas of life where we've been stifled and held back and boxed in, and we want space to roam as we please. We have to learn to find space within the existing framework, and work within the rules.

In Aquarius, this may be focused on our individuality and being true to ourselves; how we hold ourselves back and box ourselves in; how we view the world as a whole and look toward the future; how we find hope and what we dream of; how we come together as one and see connections with others; and how we exercise independence responsibly.

Mercury retrogrades in Aquarius once while Jupiter is in Aquarius, from January 30th (10:52AM ET/7:52AM PT - February 20th (7:52PM ET/4:52PM PT) 2021. It starts at 26 degrees Aquarius and ends 11 degrees Aquarius , and it is conjunct Jupiter at the end (exact on February 14th at 13 degrees Aquarius). This can go either way. Since Jupiter is the planet of expansion, this aspect can expand on whatever energy is present at the time, good or bad. No matter which, we have an opportunity to turn things around in our favor, and this is excellent energy for a second chance, a do-over, or to try again.

New and Full Moons in Aquarius:

When a new moon occurs in Jupiter's sign, this can bring great opportunity for opportunity, expansion, and to pursue what you want and are passionate about. Conjunction Jupiter, and this can be a time of great opportunity. When a full moon occurs in Jupiter's sign, we can focus on the brighter side of challenging situations, and find ways out of them that are beneficial to us. Conjunction Jupiter, and this can be a time where we believe in ourselves and what we've done, connect with our passions, and share our wisdom.

While Jupiter is in Aquarius, there is one new moon and one full moon in Aquarius:

New Moon: February 11th 2021 2:06PM ET/11:06AM PT @ 23 degrees 17 minutes Aquarius

- No aspect to Jupiter (or any planets), but it does come around the same time Mercury retrograde conjuncts Jupiter (February 14th) and may amplify that and try to make it positive (so great for those second chances at dreams, shaping the future, and being independent)

Full Moon: August 22nd 2021 8:02AM ET/5:02AM PT @ 29 degrees 37 minutes Aquarius

- Widely conjunct Jupiter (amplifying and expanding); this is also the anaretic degree, the last degree of a sign and a point of crisis energy in transit, and it's the second full moon in a row in Aquarius (another is on July 23rd when Jupiter is in Pisces), so energy is strong for this full moon

Transit Planets in Aquarius:

When the transit Sun is in Jupiter's sign, this shines a light on Jupiter energy: expansion, opportunity, exploration, experiences. When transit Mercury is in Jupiter's sign (and not retrograde), this gives ideas and plans for those expansions, opportunities, explorations, and experiences. When transit Venus is in Jupiter's sign, this brings pleasant energy and makes everything even smoother and easier; when transit Mars is in Jupiter's sign, this gives super energy and drive to pursue opportunities, to expand and explore, and to have new experiences.

The transit Sun in Aquarius:

January 19th 2021 (3:39PM ET/12:39PM PT) - February 18th 2021 (5:43AM ET/2:43AM PT)

Mercury in Aquarius (not retrograde):

January 8th 2021 (6:59AM ET/3:59AM PT) - 30th 2021 (10:52AM ET/7:52AM PT)

February 20th 2021 (7:52PM ET/4:52PM PT) - March 15th 2021 (6:26PM ET/3:26PM PT)

Venus in Aquarius:

February 1st 2021 (9:05AM ET/6:05AM PT) - 26th 2021 (8:11AM ET/5:11AM PT)

Mars is not in Aquarius while Jupiter is in Aquarius.

The biggest thing to focus on in terms of other planets in Aquarius is Saturn, who enters Aquarius just before Jupiter on December 17th 2020 (12:03AM ET/ December 16th 9:03PM PT). Remember they conjunct early in Aquarius on December 21st 2020. They hung around each other in Capricorn and now they continue to in Aquarius. This is such huge energy for change, the future, independence and individuality, our hopes and dreams. Jupiter presents opportunities to make things happen, but Saturn demands that we do things the right way and for the right reasons. We need to do our homework and be smart about it. If it was just Jupiter, we wouldn't have to worry about that so much, but Saturn requires it.

Saturn is restrictive, so some of the expansive energy of Jupiter may be muted in Aquarius. We can still make the most of the energy, we're just going to have to work with Saturn to make it work in our favor. If we do, we can set ourselves up for many years to come.

Saturn is in Aquarius the entire time Jupiter is in Aquarius.

And to note, Saturn is actually in Aquarius until March 2023, and just after that, Pluto moves into Aquarius in March 2023! So we're at the start of some major Aquarius energy that can literally last for 20+ years. What you start now can be a focus for the next two decades of your life - choose wisely!

Lesson 3: Jupiter in Aquarius in the Houses

1st House: You can focus on opportunities to do things in new ways, act more independently, and enjoy creating changes in your life and with yourself. You may encounter new and different people, and can be more hopeful about your future. You can pursue opportunities to get closer to the future you want to have.

2nd House: You may want to make some changes with your values, and focus on what you value that is different and unconventional. You can do well when you're living according to your values, and you can improve confidence and security in new ways. You can focus on improving your financial situation as well, and can take a different approach.

3rd House: You may find you're thinking outside of the box more, and have lots of new, different ideas. You can come up with ideas quickly, and can take advantage of opportunities to do something with them. You might make some changes in your immediate environment, and can work to expand and bring in new connections.

4th House: You can find different ways of connecting to your emotions expressing yourself emotionally, and of feeling at home and supported. You can pursue opportunities to expand your home or living situation in some way, and can work on starting from the bottom with a dream for your future.

5th House: You can work on connecting more to your heart, and can focus on pursuing creative ventures in new ways. You can make the most of opportunities to do something with your creative abilities and interests. You might make some changes in your love relationships, but it can be for the best.

6th House: You may try to find some extra space and independence in your daily life or work, and this may come as a result of some changes or unconventional thinking. You can pursue work opportunities, and can unlock more opportunities when you focus on work that you're passionate about and believe in.

7th House: You can make changes in your relationships, make new connections, and while you may take more time with commitment, you can fully commit once you do. You can be more supportive of the people in your life and their opportunities, and can find more opportunities for yourself through others.

8th House: You may focus on making some changes that lead to major transformations for the better in your life. You can find it easier to deal with serious matters and think outside of the box to find solutions. You can breathe new life into something old or stale, and can feel more hopeful.

9th House: This is the house Jupiter naturally rules, and you can feel more comfortable with expanding your life in new ways, exploring new places, and having new experiences. You can be more independent and open to the new and different, and more optimistic and hopeful about the future.

10th House: You may focus on your goals and long-term plans, and how they connect to the dreams you have for your future. You can pursue opportunities to achieve your goals in unconventional ways, and can be open to making changes that create more opportunities for you to pursue.

11th House: This is the house that naturally connects to Aquarius, and you can be extra optimistic about your future, your dreams, and being true to yourself. You can be open to meeting new people, expanding your social circle, and taking up causes. You can work on making changes and be more independent.

12th House: The 12th house is the very last house and so connects to endings, so you may work on letting go and pursuing opportunities to release or move on. You may spend more time in the background or on your own, and you can use that time to work independently, make changes, or be more true to yourself.

Lesson 4: Jupiter in Aquarius Aspects

The aspects that Jupiter makes to your natal chart in Aquarius will be more focused on the link to independence, individuality, change, the unconventional, and your dreams. Conjunctions by transit Jupiter can make it so whatever Jupiter is touching gets expansive, and you can focus on the hopes and dreams with whatever it rules, try things in new ways, and pursue opportunities. You can get excited and feel more willing to take a chance (just remember to be smart if Saturn is also in the mix).

Squares and oppositions by transit Jupiter in Aquarius to your natal chart bring out laziness, lack of motivation, or frustration with restrictions with whatever being squared/opposed rules. You may feel like a whole new tactic is needed, but you may not do anything about it, or you may feel that the way to do something isn't an option for you at the moment. Force yourself to get moving. Jupiter is different from the other major planets, and the hard aspects don't have to be such a challenge if you just put in some effort.

Sextiles and trines by transit Jupiter in Aquarius to your natal chart can help you take advantage of opportunities and find even more of them or make new ones for yourself. You can work independently pretty well, but you can also work with groups well. You can make changes more easily, and enjoy them. There tends to be a nice opportunity right around when these aspects are exact with whatever being sextiled/trined rules.

Note: The major aspects to Saturn in Aquarius are:

Conjunction: Aquarius

Sextile: Aries and Sagittarius

Square: Taurus and Scorpio

Trine: Gemini or Libra

Opposition: Leo

Lesson 5: Jupiter Returns With Jupiter in Aquarius

A return occurs when the transit planet comes back to the exact same position it was at when you were born. Jupiter returns every 12 years or so, and this tends to be a pleasant return. Each time, we can focus on expanding our lives, exploring new ways, having new experiences, and pursuing opportunities.

Jupiter isn't Saturn, and doesn't want to punish you for not doing things the right way, so you don't have to worry about that so much with a Jupiter return. Instead, you can focus on the good and positive, and think bigger and brighter.

Those of you with Jupiter in Aquarius will experience a Jupiter Return during this transit. Jupiter in Aquarius natives appreciate what's different and unconventional, embrace change as a way of opening up more opportunities, and have a wide variety of connections in life. You may work on going further outside of your comfort zone, making new connections in new ways, or make exciting changes in your life. This can be focused on the house in your natal chart your natal Jupiter in Aquarius is located, as well as the house Jupiter rules (the one with Sagittarius on the cusp).

Extra: Transit Jupiter Interpretations

These are the general interpretations for transit Jupiter in the houses and aspects from the site for reference:

Transit Jupiter in the Houses

Transit Jupiter in the 1st House

When transit Jupiter is in your 1st house, you feel optimistic about your life. You become more confident and feel good about the way things are going. This can lead to you making improvements in your life because you feel so good or want to feel better. You could be presented with new opportunities that will expand your life in some way. You may want to expand your life and experience more, seeing what the world has to offer you. You're more friendly and gregarious, outspoken and blunt, and have a more happy attitude. You can do what you want and be who you are, and you don't feel chained down. You do need to watch for being overly indulgent or lazy. This aspect can also lead to weight gain, though if you actually put in effort to lose weight, this aspect will make it easier. It's just getting up and actually doing it that could be difficult.

Transit Jupiter in the 2nd House

When transit Jupiter is in your 2nd house, you can experience an increase in self-esteem and self-worth. You may focus on your value system and make adjustments to them, or make adjustments to your life that are more in line with your values. You're not up for trying anything different or drastic with this transit, and stick to the traditional and to things you've tried before. Nevertheless, this aspect can be good for your finances, and you can be presented with or make opportunities for yourself that will increase your financial status. You can also purchase more items of value, and be more materialistic, which can make you spend more than you should, so while you can make a lot of money, you're just as inclined to spend a lot as well. You should have a productive year no matter what, and get a lot done that needs to be done. You may also be sensual and indulgent.

Transit Jupiter in the 3rd House

When transit Jupiter is in your 3rd house, you want to learn, and this aspect gives you the chance to learn as much as you can. You could take a class, go to school, or start learning something on your own to expand your knowledge. You're more open with people, and can express yourself honestly. You may find yourself having many more communications than in the past, and you can articulate your thoughts and ideas well. Technology could be prominent during this transit, and you could buy new equipment or a new car. You may do more with your community, with your neighbors, or with a sibling, and could have opportunities presented to you through them. You could find yourself on the road a lot, but not going very far. You should be more sociable and enjoy spending time with people, and they like being around you with your positive attitude.

Transit Jupiter in the 4th House

When transit Jupiter is in your 4th house, you could have the opportunity to expand your home in some way. Perhaps you put on an addition or knock down walls to make it feel more expansive. You want to have more freedom of movement at home, which is why you feel the need for a bigger place. You could buy a new place, or begin investing in real estate. You enjoy being at home now more than in the past, and enjoy spending time with your family, or at least try to improve your familial relations. A new member of the family could appear during this transit. You can also focus on strengthening your inner foundation, the very basic part of you that you build yourself on, and try to bring more stability into your life through that. You want to ensure that you have security that will last for a long time, and that you don't have to worry about things falling apart anytime soon. You can also be more encouraging and supportive of your loved ones during this transit.

Transit Jupiter in the 5th House

When transit Jupiter is in your 5th house, you just want to have a good time, and good times should be had. You can enjoy yourself and do the things that you love most. You can spend more time on your hobbies, and take up new ones. If you're creative, you can see your creativity soar, and this is an excellent aspect for artistic types. You can be inspired to create your best work yet. You may be prone to gambling, and some risks may go well, but don't push your luck. You want to express yourself in some way, and let the world see you. You can be more sociable and if single, meet new romantic partners. You could fall in love during this transit, but if there aren't any other grounding influences (like Saturn making some aspects), it's most likely you'll just date a lot. If attached, you could bring some romance back into the relationship. This can also be a good period to have a child/get pregnant, and if you have children, it can be a good period for them.

Transit Jupiter in the 6th House

When transit Jupiter is in your 6th house, you enjoy working and are much more productive and efficient than in the past. You know exactly what work needs to get done and in what order, and you do everything quickly and to the best of your abilities. You expect a lot from yourself, and may need to watch for perfectionist tendencies. You should get along better with coworkers, though you may want more freedom at work to do things your own way. You could move into a bigger office or workspace. This can be a good period to get a new job, or be offered several new job opportunities. You can handle your day-to-day affairs much more easily, and not find small tasks boring. This is also a great period for dealing with your health, and you can make great strides with health issues. Just make sure you're eating well and exercising, otherwise you may gain some weight.

Transit Jupiter in the 7th House

When transit Jupiter is in your 7th house, you could do well with a partner. Personally, you may commit to someone, move in with them, become engaged, or get married, and you prefer being in a relationship over being alone. Professionally, you could take on a business partner and do very well together. Some sort of important partnership is likely during this transit. You're happier in relationships of all kinds, and the people that you meet tend to be good for you. On the flipside, you could end a relationship during this transit, but it's one that hasn't been good for you and you're glad to be rid of them. You're better at making compromises, finding middle ground, and negotiating. You're also more charming and good in social situations. If you have to appear in front of people, you can make a good impression on them.

Transit Jupiter in the 8th House

When transit Jupiter is in your 8th house, you're more comfortable with the amount of power and control that you have in your life. You may want more and gain more, but you're less likely to go about getting it in the wrong way, or manipulate people once you have it. You can do some digging into yourself and your deeply-held issues, and come to terms with issues from your past. This can be a great period of healing and growth, and you learn how to be more vulnerable and open to intimacy. This can also be a good period for your wealth, and you could gain more wealth if you make good decisions with investments, or through a partnership. You could settle a debt, loan, tax issue, inheritance, or problem with joint finances. Your sexual appetite expands, and you could have more partners, or spend more time with the one you have.

Transit Jupiter in the 9th House

When transit Jupiter is in your 9th house, he's in the house that he naturally rules, so he's quite at home here, and that's good for you. This is a time where you can expand your life in some way, and have plenty of opportunities presented to you to do so. You're usually much more optimistic and light-hearted, and don't want to focus on anything too serious. Life is good, and you want to experience all of the goodness out there. You can learn something new, go back to school, get a degree, try teaching others, or get into writing. Dealings with the law go smoother. In business, you could deal with people from other places who help you, and promoting your work can be beneficial. You can see the big picture now, and because of this, you're a lot less stressed over the smaller things that come up on a daily basis. You know things will work out just fine, and there's no need to worry.

Transit Jupiter in the 10th House

When transit Jupiter is in your 10th house, you usually experience a good period for your career. You can be recognized for the work that you've done and make strides. If you're in the public eye, you make a good impression. You could travel through your work, see an increase in your status because of your success, and be presented with opportunities through your elders (parents, bosses, mentors, etc.). You can do what you want in your career with greater ease, and you should try to put yourself out there as much as you can, because the more that you do, the more that you'll get. You could finally achieve a goal that you've been working hard towards now, and it doesn't seem as difficult as it has been. You can also create new goals for yourself that are bigger and more daring than you would've previously thought possible.

Transit Jupiter in the 11th House

When transit Jupiter is in your 11th house, you usually make new friends, and lots of them. Your social calendar is more filled than it has been for some time, and your new acquaintances can come with new opportunities for you. You could join a new group, or work hard towards a new cause that you pick up. The humanitarian in you comes out, and you want to help the world in some way. You could join a charitable group. Whatever you do, you want to be around people who share the same interest that you do. When you think of the future, you have a more optimistic attitude, and you're hopeful that everything will go well. You could get an opportunity to make one of your dreams come true, or at least get closer to making one come true. You're more open to things that are original, inventive, eccentric, and unique, and are willing to embrace your individuality.

Transit Jupiter in the 12th House

When transit Jupiter is in your 12th house, you can focus on the habits that you've taken on over the years and finally let go of them. You can be less self-destructive during this transit, and eliminate some of the baggage that you've been carrying around. You're less afraid to get in touch with your hidden issues and bring them to the surface to deal with them. This can be a great time to start therapy of some sort. You may explore your spirituality and become interested in metaphysical subjects. You could take up meditation or some sort of spiritual practice. Your compassion expands and you try to help others through volunteer work or charity. You're okay with doing things in the background that may not be noticed right now, and find that you prefer being out of the spotlight because you do your best in private. When you need help, it's there, and this transit usually protects you during difficult times.

Transit Jupiter to Natal Planets

Transit Jupiter to Natal Sun

With transit Jupiter conjunct your natal Sun, you can experience a time of opportunities being presented to you. It's up to you whether or not you're going to take those opportunities and do something with them or let them pass you by. You're confident and it's a good time to begin something new. You feel good physically and are positive, though your judgment can be off in some cases.

With transit Jupiter sextile or trine your natal Sun, you can make plans for your future easily. This can be an especially good time for you financially, so take advantage of that. Your confidence is higher than usual, and you can deal with people more easily. You feel good, and you want to make your life better. Think about the ways you can improve your life and get them started.

With transit Jupiter square or opposite your natal Sun, you may squander opportunities that are presented to you, and make poor decisions. You can be too confident and overly positive about situations. If you can overcome the intense good feelings that make you want to be lazy and do nothing, you can use this energy positively and make things happen for you, but it takes effort and you have to force yourself to take action.

Transit Jupiter to Natal Moon

With transit Jupiter conjunct your natal Moon, expansion is the name of the game. Your moods raise and you feel optimistic about everything in life. Just be careful not to overdo it. You want to make happy changes to your home, and you may redecorate to make it reflect your upbeat mood or renovate to expand and make it larger. You can knock down walls and go for that open-concept feel, or move into a larger home. Strengthening your inner foundation is favorable, and you may want to make your relationships with loved ones, especially family, better.

With transit Jupiter sextile or trine your natal Moon, you can usually be optimistic without being delusional about it. You find life to be more pleasurable, and try to have more fun. People see you as open and sociable, making them drawn to you. You may feel a lot better about yourself, even if you don't quite realize it consciously, but it can permeate in everything you do.

With transit Jupiter square or opposite your natal Moon, you're prone to overindulgence, and this is a time when many gain weight (this is also possible with the conjunction, though you may have a better chance of controlling it, and you can turn it around and instead use the energy to lose weight). You may feel like your life isn't good enough or isn't what you want it to be, and overdo it with things to compensate. Difficult Jupiter aspects are usually not too hard to turn around and make positive if you're willing, which is usually the rub since the square/opposition likes to make you lazy, and unlikely to try.

Transit Jupiter to Natal Mercury

With transit Jupiter conjunct your natal Mercury, you can step back and see things from a wider perspective, but can miss the details as a result. You feel positive about things, but you can become too positive. You can expand your mind during this period, learn something new, go back to school, or start a writing project. You can share your thoughts and ideas with people, and they usually respond well. This is also a good period for dealing with contracts and documents, writing, and speaking.

With transit Jupiter sextile or trine your natal Mercury, you can take in new knowledge and information more easily. You focus on subjects that aren't too serious, and feel good about life. You're more curious about the world, and everything you see inspires you.

With transit Jupiter square or opposite your natal Mercury, you have a hard time seeing things clearly or hearing what people tell you. You have to work harder to see the details, otherwise overlooking them will lead to major problems. Too much is going on, and it overwhelms your brain. You may feel pulled into too many directions, and it exhausts you mentally.

Transit Jupiter to Natal Venus

With transit Jupiter conjunct your natal Venus, your creativity is heightened, and this is a good time to pursue creative ventures. If you're happy at work, you'll be even happier and do more work. If not, you can take some time off and enjoy yourself away from it all. Watch your spending habits. You want to indulge in your senses, feeling more sensual, and you feel good, really good. This can be a time where you start a new love relationship.

With transit Jupiter sextile or trine your natal Venus, you can feel good, sociable, and generous, but you may not feel the impact of this transit too much if you don't see it coming. It just ends up being a time where you feel a little better than usual. This is a good time to begin something new, meet new people, and pursue a money-making venture.

With transit Jupiter square or opposite natal Venus, you're indulgent, too indulgent. This can be a time of an expanding waistline. You feel lazy and have a hard time getting real work done. You could have a problem that prevents you from being able to work, have a financial loss, or see someone leave your life, even if only temporarily.

Transit Jupiter to Natal Mars

With transit Jupiter conjunct your natal Mars, you should see a surge in energy and drive. You believe in yourself and your abilities which allows you to do more, but you can also attempt or promise more than you can actually accomplish. Be physically active and keep your body moving. Your confidence is higher, as well as your competitive nature.

With transit Jupiter sextile or trine your natal Mars, you feel good, positive, and can get right to it. You want to be a little more bold and daring than usual, and can take some risks. You're more assertive and can stand up for yourself. If opportunities are presented to you, you can go for it, and with your increased confidence, you can do well.

With transit Jupiter square or opposite your natal Mars, you can be boastful, proud, and restless. You're more reckless and need to make sure you're not taking unnecessary risks. You want to expand your life in some way, so try to be more constructive about it. Get a handle on your energy and direct it towards something productive.

A Jupiter return occurs every twelve years or so, and is usually a good period. You feel buoyant, and an opportunity could be presented to you. You can expand your life in some way and experience something new.

With transit Jupiter sextile or trine your natal Jupiter, you feel optimistic and positive about your life, and can make good things happen for you, but you may feel too good to do anything. Try to make yourself so you can take advantage of the energy, otherwise it'll pass without much happening.

With transit Jupiter square or opposite your natal Jupiter, you can be overly optimistic and feel too confident, making you lazy and indulgent. You might shoot for something big but not put in any work to get it. Get yourself moving.

Transit Jupiter to Natal Saturn

With transit Jupiter conjunct your natal Saturn, your optimism is tempered, and you take a more realistic approach. You may seem pessimistic and serious about life. Try not to get too down, and work hard during this period. That hard work can turn into good things if you don't let yourself become too pessimistic.

With transit Jupiter sextile or trine your natal Saturn, you can work hard and be practical but still have a positive outlook on life, and the work you put in can expand your life in positive ways. Your optimism isn't unrealistic, but you're not too serious either. There's a good balance here.

With transit Jupiter square or opposite your natal Saturn, you may be doing things differently than you thought you would be, and you have to adjust to that. You may not be able to do what you want to do right now for some reason. You can become overly pessimistic when things don't work out the way that you want, so you need to try to control that. Try to move forward with your goals but in a cautious manner.

Transit Jupiter to Natal Uranus

With transit Jupiter conjunct your natal Uranus, you need to break free and expand your life in some way that leads you to have more independence. You should embrace your individuality, and try new things that allow you to have new experiences. You're more open to other people and other ways of living. You may experiment, but don't go too far.

With transit Jupiter sextile or trine your natal Uranus, you can come up with great, new ideas quickly, and you have mental clarity. This is a good time to start learning something new and opening up your mind. You could be presented with an opportunity to make advancements in your career, personal life, or with your finances, and it comes unexpectedly.

With transit Jupiter square or opposite your natal Uranus, you may be attracted to things that are unusual just because they're unusual, and you have a harder time figuring out what's good and what's not. You might want to make big changes, but that's probably not a good idea right now because you're not seeing the cons. Pull yourself back.

Transit Jupiter to Natal Neptune

With transit Jupiter conjunct your natal Neptune, you're more generous, empathic, and helpful. Whenever you see anyone down, you'll help them up. Your creativity heightens, and you need to express yourself in a creative way. This is a great time if you're an artist of any kind. Your sense of reality isn't great, so don't make any long-term decisions now.

With transit Jupiter sextile or trine your natal Neptune, you can do some volunteer work, join a charitable group, or help out a loved one with a problem. You want to give of your time and energy to help others, but you're not as unrealistic about their flaws. You see them, but you don't think they're so bad. Your imagination is active, and you're drawn to fantasy.

With transit Jupiter square or opposite your natal Neptune, you have a hard time seeing the reality of any situation, who a person really is, or what's really going on. You may think that you do, but you don't. Put off important projects for when your mind is more clear.
