About the Lion:

Leo Season is upon us! Leo is the sign that rules fun and play, so Leo Season tends to be a time when we want to get out, have fun, enjoy ourselves, and be playful. This sign doesn't want to take too much too seriously. There's too much fun to be had!

Leo rules love, both the people we love and the things we love to do, so during Leo Season, we can focus more on that. We can spend time with the people we love most, reminding ourselves why we love them, and romance can be in the air. Though it tends to be fun, casual romance, not the super serious kind of thing. Leo likes to play the field a little, though once finding major sparks with someone, Leo can be quite loyal.

Leo rules the heart, so we may think more about matters of the heart during Leo season. Are you in tune with your heart? Have you been neglecting what your heart wants? If you're someone who is always practical (looking at your earth signs), overly emotional (looking at your water signs), or too much in their head (looking at you air signs), Leo Season is a great reminder to take care of your heart and listen to it sometimes. Being true to your heart can lead to a more fulfilling life.

Leo rules our children, both our actual children and the inner child in all of us. Leo Season is great to do things that get you in tune with that inner child. If you have children, you can spend more time with them, giving them more attention, and letting them bring out the kid in you. If you don't have children, you can still make time to be a kid yourself - grab a coloring book, rewatch your favorite movie from when you were a kid, skip along the sidewalk, laugh at ridiculous jokes. Keep your inner child alive!

Leo is a highly creative sign, so Leo Season can bring a surge in creative energy. We can use this to focus on creative projects and ventures, or creative hobbies. If anything is too boring, we can lose focus more easily. We want to enjoy ourselves more, and injecting creativity into whatever we do can help.

Leo is also a surprisingly strong sign, being of fire and energized, and being fixed and grounded. The will of the Lion can be incredible when harnessed and focused. No one wants to mess with the Lion!

So, have a happy birthday season to the Leos! And to everyone else - find your inner lion ;)

🌙 Lunar Movement During Leo Season 2019

Starts in Aries

Aries Moons are good times for starting something new, taking initiative, and going for what you want for yourself. There's extra energy and drive for whatever you work on, and you can be more optimistic about what you do.

Enters Taurus July 24th @ 5:42PM ET/2:32PM PT

Taurus Moons are good times to slow things down, take stock, and bring grounding energy to anything that needs it in your life. You can work to improve stability, security, and confidence, and you can focus on financial matters.

Enters Gemini July 27th @ 2:29AM ET/July 26th @ 11:59PM PT

Gemini Moons are good times to focus on your short-term plans, create new ones for ideas, and communicate with others. You can work to be more expressive, and try to understand yourself and others better. The ruler of Gemini, Mercury, is retrograde during this period, so we may have to be extra careful with communication and understanding during this time.

Enters Cancer July 29th @ 7:31AM ET/4:31AM PT

Cancer Moons are good times to focus on your emotional needs, and to find more emotional comfort and support for yourself. As you feel more comforted and supported, you can give comfort and support to others. Mercury is retrograde in Cancer for this period though, so there can be extra focus on the things that are making us feel emotionally insecure and how to fix it.

Enters Leo July 31st @ 9:18AM ET/6:18AM PT

Leo Moons are good times to use creative energy to make the mundane more manageable and connect to your heart. You can spend time with the people you love, and do the things you love in healthy and positive ways. This is extra strong during Leo season! A New Moon occurs in Leo on July 31st, and this brings out more of the creative energy and love focus, which we'll need coming out of the Mercury retrograde at the same time.

Enters Virgo August 2nd @ 9:21AM ET/6:21AM PT

Virgo Moons are good times to get things done that need to be done. The things that have piled up in the last week or so can become top of mind, and you can focus on getting organized, making lists, and tackling the little things so you feel less stressed (but needing to not take on too much, otherwise more stress can come!). This may be especially important coming out of the Mercury retrograde (since Mercury rules Virgo).

Enters Libra August 4th @ 9:30AM ET/6:30AM PT

Libra Moons are good times to focus the people in your life and give others more attention. You may want to spend more time with others one-on-one, and tackle your relationships so you feel more secure about them. This is a good Moon to find some balance and peace.

Enters Scorpio August 6th @ 11:31AM ET/8:31AM PT

Scorpio Moons are good times to dig deeper below the surface, do research and investigation, and focus on something you're passionate about. It's good for finding solutions to vexing problems, and taking a serious approach to issues that need it.

Enters Sagittarius August 8th @ 4:34PM ET/1:34PM PT

Sagittarius Moons are good times to let loose after the Scorpio Moon, and find some space to breathe and explore. You can feel more open to new experiences and have a more optimistic outlook. You can focus on opportunities and what they have to offer you.

Enters Capricorn August 11th @ 12:50AM ET/August 10th @ 9:50PM PT

Capricorn Moons are good times to focus on ambitions and long-term plans for your goals. These are often professional, but can also be personal. You can be more disciplined and practical, responsible and mature, and sort through what's needed.

Enters Aquarius August @ 13th 11:36AM ET/8:36AM PT

Aquarius Moons are good times to focus on change, find more independence, and push us outside of our comfort zones. A Full Moon occurs on the 15th in Aquarius, and this can bring out emotions related to changes, we can see the culmination of change, and we can fight for more independence if we don't feel we've been getting it. The Moon is opposed to the Sun here, and we can see what may be working and what isn't, and there may be some extra focus on oppositional views, positions, and people.

Enters Pisces August 15th @ 11:50PM ET/8:50PM PT

Pisces Moons are good times to get in tune with our intuition and inner guide, and to exercise more compassion and empathy. You may be more introspective, want some time alone to recharge, or work to bring something to an end.

Enters Aries August 18th @ 12:33PM ET/9:33AM PT

We come back to an Aries Moon, which is what Leo Season starts in, and there may be something that comes full circle with this period that serves to energize us, drive us, and help us feel that gut instincts are strong.

Enters Taurus August 21st @ 12:37AM ET/August 20th @ 9:37PM PT

Leo Season ends with the Moon back in Taurus, and we may close out Leo Season wanting to connect with the present moment, taking a pause, before the Sun moves into Virgo and we're off to the races. A brief break before then may be a good thing!

What to do during Void Moon periods:

When the Moon is void-of-course, it has made its last major aspect in the sign the Moon is touring, and is now just moving toward the new sign. This is sort of an aimless period for the Moon, so Void Moons are good for slowing things down, getting rest, tying up loose ends, and finishing things you've already started. They're not seen as particularly good periods for anything new, unless you want nothing to come of it. The exception is if you have any natal or progressed planets at 29 degrees (the anaretic degree). This means the Moon is moving to aspect your anaretic planet, and therefore is still giving you energy personally. You may feel invigorated while the rest of us are slumping!

Quarter Moon Phases During Leo Season 2019

4th Quarter Moon Phase

July 24th 9:18PM ET/6:18PM PT

Keyword: CLEAR

Moon Location: 1 degree 50 minutes Taurus

4th Quarter Moon phases focus on clearing out and cleaning up to make room for the new energy coming with the New Moon phase. This can be a quieter time when we're focused on preparation. This may especially be true with Mercury retrograde for this period, and the Moon in Taurus.

What can you clear out and clean up during the 4th Quarter Moon phase?

New Moon

July 31st 11:11PM ET/8:11PM PT

Keyword: BEGIN

Moon Location: 8 degrees 36 minutes Leo

The New Moon phase is a time of new beginnings, new ideas, new plans, and new energy. We can focus on what we're enthusiastic about pursuing, and feel positive about opportunities. This New Moon in Leo kicks up the Leo Season energy to get us moving forward out of the Mercury retrograde.

What new ideas, plans, and opportunities can you focus on with the New Moon in Leo?

2nd Quarter Moon Phase

August 7th 1:31PM ET/10:31AM PT

Keyword: ADJUST

Moon Location: 14 degrees 55 minutes Scorpio

2nd Quarter Moon phases tend to focus on adjustments that need to be made. We've started new with the New Moon and are charging toward the Full Moon, where we reap what we've sown. This phase is the time for us to be flexible so we can improve our chances of succeeding with the Full Moon. In Scorpio, we may work on small transformations, or do research to dig below the surface.

What adjustments can you make, or how can you be more flexible, during the 2nd Quarter Moon phase?

Full Moon

August 15th 8:29AM ET/5:29AM PT

Keyword: CULMINATION

Moon Location: 22 degrees 24 minutes Aquarius

The Full Moon phase brings the climax of the Moon, and therefore brings culminations, endings, and we reap what we've sown. We can experience success and make progress, or we can experience setbacks, delays, and failures. Emotions run high with Full Moons, though Aquarius isn't as emotional as other Moons and may repress.

How can you manage developments with the Full Moon, and have proper outlets for your emotions?

♁ Lilith During Leo Season 2019

The dark lady, Black Moon Lilith (a dark pixie!) is in Pisces for the rest of this year, and goes from 9 to 12 degrees during Leo Season. Lilith makes no aspects to the other planets during Leo Season, so the focus can predominantly be on the energy of Pisces.

Lilith in Pisces tends to be more subdued for Lilith. Lilith wants to break out, shake up the patriarchy, and be true to itself. But Pisces doesn't like doing that too much! So we may try to make changes quietly, in subtle ways that don't grab too much attention. Where we may see more of a fighting spirit come out is when we're helping the helpless, and need to stand up for the defenseless. We may want to punch the heartless in the mouth!

Your Lilith energy may come out in the areas of life ruled by the natal house transit Lilith is touring for you (find where 9-12 degrees Pisces falls). If Lilith will aspect any of your natal planets or house cusps, this may trigger your inner Lilith and set you off on a mission!

WHY BARK?
JUST BITE.

What natal house is Lilith touring for you? Will Lilith make any aspects to your natal chart during Leo season?

Planetary Movement During Leo Season 2019

Venus Enters Leo July 27th @ 9:53PM ET/6:53PM PT

Venus joins the Sun in Leo for much of Leo Season (until August 21st), and brings the pleasant energy of Venus. Venus can help with balance, fairness, getting along, compromising, and coming together. Venus in Leo loves affection, wants attention, and is super romantic. We can enjoy being in touch with our inner child, and creativity can soar.

New Moon in Leo July 31st @ 11:12PM ET/8:12PM PT

The Leo New Moon (at 8 degrees 36 minutes) can help us to focus much more on the Leo Season energy, and we can use it to try and come out of the Mercury retrograde with better energy. Optimism can be higher, and we can get back on track with the things that got thrown off at the start of the retrograde in late June-early July. Get in touch with your heart, in tune with your inner child, and make time for fun and play.

Aspects: 6 degrees 36 minutes - 10 degrees 36 minutes of Leo (conjunction), Gemini or Libra (sextile), Taurus or Scorpio (square), Aries or Sagittarius (trine), Aquarius (opposition)

Note the house location and aspects of this New Moon and potential impact:

Mercury Direct July 31st @ 11:58PM ET/8:58PM PT

Mercury retrograde ends during Leo Season, and it can be a little rocky around then as we're also trying to balance the New Moon in Leo. We'll need to make sure we're taking care of ourselves emotionally so we can stay on course. The Mercury retrograde ends at 23 degrees 56 minutes of Cancer, and is opposite transit Pluto. This can greatly increase emotional energy, and we may need to work to transform and evolve in order to avoid extreme emotions and rage.

This can be most focused on the areas of life ruled by the house in your natal chart the retrograde ends in for you, and if you have the end of this retrograde making any aspects to your natal chart (20-26 degrees Cancer for a conjunction, which amplifies energy; Capricorn for an opposition, which can bring hard energy that feels out of your control; Taurus or Virgo for a sextile, which can bring pleasant energy for opportunity; Scorpio or Pisces for a trine, which can bring positive energy with less effort; and Aries or Libra for a square, which can bring challenging energy that may be more internal).

Note the house location and aspects of this Mercury direct and potential impact:

Jupiter Direct August 11th @ 9:37AM ET/6:37AM PT

Jupiter retrograde ends this Leo Season on August 11th at 14 degrees 30 minutes Sagittarius. Jupiter will now move forward until entering the next sign, Capricorn, in December. This can help us to focus on opportunities in our lives to expand and explore, to have new experiences, and to open up to the world. We can feel more comfortable doing so, and move forward toward opportunities. We may feel like we're on the rise in some way, and can start readying ourselves to reach some height late in the year or in 2020.

Aspects to Jupiter direct: 11-17 degrees Sagittarius (conjunction), Libra or Aquarius (sextile), Aries or Leo (trine) - these are all easy, positive aspects that can help unlock opportunities for you; Virgo or Pisces (square), Gemini (opposition) are hard aspects that can bring out laziness, excess, and lack of focus (check out the Transit Jupiter page for more on transit Jupiter aspects)

Make note of the house location and aspects made by the Jupiter direct and potential impact:

Mercury Enters Leo August 11th @ 3:45PM ET/12:45PM PT

On the same day Jupiter retrograde ends, Mercury moves back into Leo, the sign it began its retrograde in. This can make us feel like we're coming back around to whatever came to pass at the start of Mercury retrograde, and we can tie things up and close the chapter. Mercury is moving forward and not as concerned with the retrograde. This can bring out creative ideas in all of us, and we can look at the bright side of situations.

Uranus Turns Retrograde August 11th @ 10:26PM ET/7:26PM PT

On the same date that Mercury enters Leo and Jupiter retrograde ends, Uranus retrograde begins! (at 6 degrees 36 minutes Taurus) So Mercury and Jupiter are moving forward again, while Uranus decides to move backward. This can slow down changes that we're working on, and we can work to get grounded and better focused. Restless and rebellious energy can surge, and we can feel stuck, so we may need to work on not giving in to impatience and impulsiveness.

Aspects to Uranus retrograde: 3-9 degrees of Cancer or Pisces (sextile), Virgo or Capricorn (trine) - these are easy aspects and can be helpful for making changes in positive, smart ways; Leo or Aquarius (square), Scorpio (opposition) - these are hard aspects that can bring out a lot of the rebelliousness and restlessness and impatience, so control is important; Taurus (conjunction) - this can greatly increase change energy in your life, and you may need to find some balance (check out the Transit Uranus page for more on transit Uranus aspects)

Make note of the house location and aspects made by this Uranus retrograde and potential impact:

Full Moon in Aquarius August 15th @ 8:29AM ET/5:29AM PT

The Aquarius Full Moon (at 22 degrees 24 minutes) can focus on changes, and we can make progress with them, or we may experience setbacks with them. We can fight for independence and feel rebellious if we're being held back. This may especially be true with the ruler of Aquarius, Uranus, turning retrograde a few days before. We'll likely need an outlet for emotional energy, otherwise we may feel emotionally stalled and restricted.

Aspects: 20 degrees 24 minutes - 24 degrees 24 minutes of Aquarius (conjunction), Aries or Sagittarius (sextile), Taurus or Scorpio (square), Gemini or Libra (trine), Leo (opposition)

Make note of the house location and aspects made by this Full Moon and potential impact:

Mars Enters Virgo August 18th @ 1:17AM ET/August 17th 10:57PM PT

With Mars moving into Virgo, this comes at the end of Leo Season, so we may be feeling like we're starting to turn our attention toward Virgo. We can work on closing things up, finishing things, and focusing on the next chapter. Energy for the little things can increase, and we can get a lot more done, and work on setting ourselves up for the future.

Venus Enters Virgo August 21st @ 5:06AM ET/2:06AM PT

Venus enters Virgo right before the Sun leaves Leo, so by the end of the Sun in Leo, we're ready for the next season. Venus in Virgo can make us pay more attention in our relationships, and we can enjoy tending to the little things and keeping busy. We've had fun with Leo Season, but we turn to the work that needs to be done with Virgo!

Leo Season 2019

HOROSCOPES

ARIES

Leo Season activates your love sector, so this is a great period to focus on love in your life. Mercury is still retrograde as the season begins though, so try to work on tending to your emotional needs first. Make sure those are met, otherwise you may feel totally off, and it can cause you to act out irrationally. With all of the Leo activity coming out of the retrograde, you can slide right into the things you love to do most in healthy and positive ways, and make more time for enjoyment. The Full Moon might force you to make some hard choices regarding a dream, a friendship, or a change, but if you have the information you need, you can make them. Just don't run off without the information - that's when you're in trouble!

How can you bring more love into your life during Leo Season?

TAURUS

Leo Season activates your home and family sector, so you may want to spend more time during Leo Season focusing on matters dealing with family or improving conditions at home. With Mercury still retrograde to start Leo Season, you may have some difficulties with focus and communication at the start, so try to do more listening. No talking over people! Really listen and absorb and then think for yourself. The Leo New Moon can help propel you forward with something that you start from the ground up, and you can work on strengthening the foundation of your life so you feel more emotionally secure. The Full Moon can show you rewards for long, hard, smart work you've done for months or years, and this can inspire you to keep going. If there are setbacks, you can reassess the direction you're going in to get on track.

How can you make improvements at home, strengthen your foundation, or focus more on family during Leo Season?

GEMINI

Leo Season activates your communication sector, so you may find you want to express yourself more openly during this season. Even more than usual! With your ruler, Mercury, still retrograde as the season begins, this may not kick in right away, and you may have to deal with something unstable first, bringing security to it. Once that is dealt with, you can start opening up about your ideas, your plans, your thoughts, your opinions, and share everything with others. You can gather more information and work on plans of action you can enact quickly, and the New Moon can act to push you. You may have a lot on your mind, so it can help to get it all out. The Full Moon can make you even more open and honest, and you may feel it's more important to be true to your mind.

How can you be more open and express yourself authentically during this Leo Season?

CANCER

Leo Season activates your money, security, and values sector, so you may want to spend some extra time during this season managing your finances, finding more beneficial ways to use your resources and making the most of what you have, and improving your sense of security in life. This may be difficult at first with the season kicking off with Mercury retrograde in your sign, but you can get started with this as soon as the retrograde ends, and get some help from the Leo New Moon. Cut yourself some slack until then, and once you get moving forward again, make sure you're being smart and thinking things through. Once you get moving, you can keep going and going to gain momentum. The Full Moon can focus on a transformation that can do a lot of good.

How can you improve your security and bring stability into your life during this Leo Season?

LEO

Leo Season is your season! So put on your birthday hats and have lots of cake :) You may have some difficulties with issues from the past or things coming back to bite you as the season begins with Mercury retrograde, so manage that first. Once the retrograde is over, you get a little blessing with a New Moon in your sign, and this can drive you to take action quickly with something new. This is the only New Moon in your sign for the year, so you don't want to miss out on it! Make the most of energy and drive as it starts to come back to you, and go for what you want, what excites you, and what you can take charge with. With the Full Moon, you may give more attention to the people in your life, getting and giving support, and a balance can be struck.

What can you get started with quickly during this Leo Season?

VIRGO

Leo Season activates your subconscious sector, so you may want some more time away from others and on your own during this season. This is the season that comes before yours, so you can spend much of it preparing for when your season kicks in. You can make plans, clean up, finish little things, and make room. Your ruler, Mercury, is retrograde as this season begins, so you're likely feeling pretty off at the start, and will be in need of some quiet time free of stress! So taking that time during this season can be good for you, and allows you to recharge so you're ready to hit the ground running as soon as your season begins. You can start to feel energy returning as this season winds down. The Full Moon can help you to streamline so you can manage stress better going forward.

How can you take it easy and make more time to recharge during this Leo Season?

LIBRA

Leo Season activates your friends, dreams, and change sector, so you can take time during this season to work on changes that you need to make, dream more about your future, and make time for friends. With Mercury retrograde to start this season, you may have blocks and delays to deal with regarding goals that you've been working hard at, and this can cause frustrations. But coming out of the retrograde and with the help of the Leo New Moon, you can start to feel hopeful about your future again, and allow yourself to dream. The Full Moon may hold creative energy for you to harness that can help you find creative ways of making progress, or at the very least, helps you to be more playful and not so serious. If responsibilities have been weighing on you, that will be a welcome break!

SCORPIO

Leo Season activates your goals and life path sector, which is the height of your astro chart. This is usually a great period for achieving, succeeding, and hitting new heights after all of the hard and smart work you've put in over the previous 6-12 months. This may be delayed though since Mercury is retrograde as the season kicks off, and you may not be feeling very optimistic about your chances, lack opportunities, or want to pull back from big ideas. You can start to refocus on goals after the retrograde with the help of the Leo New Moon, and make the most of your usual passionate energy to push ahead. The Full Moon may remind you of your emotional needs and bring attention to matters at home so you have a solid internal and external foundation.

SAGITTARIUS

Leo Season activates your expansion sector, so this can be a fun season for you to work on expanding your life, exploring new places, and opening up to new experiences - basically being a super Sagittarius! This may not feel like it though as the season kicks off with Mercury retrograde, and you may feel like you're stuck on some serious matters or issues that don't want to let you go. You can work on kicking yourself free quickly with the Leo New Moon, and find the space and freedom that you love so dearly. Your optimistic attitude can return, and you can focus on the opportunities you have, come up with big ideas and big plans, and learn. The Full Moon can help with opening you up more and connecting with the people around you and your immediate environment.

CAPRICORN

Leo Season activates your transformation sector, so this tends to be a more serious season for you where you work on deep issues and make powerful transformations that can help you grow, learn, and move. With Mercury retrograde as the season kicks off in your opposing sign, people may be getting in your way a lot at first, so extra patience may be required from you. As you come out of the retrograde, you can get focused on the serious matters that require your attention, and dig deeper into yourself and situations. Transformations big and small can keep you going and get your rolling. The Full Moon can help keep you calm and bring good energy to get grounded so you don't get sucked into too much seriousness.

AQUARIUS

Leo Season activates your relationship sector, so the people in your life can get more of your attention, and you can direct the spotlight to them. This may be difficult at first as work and duties and little things get in the way with the Mercury retrograde to kick the season off, and that can be frustrating to you. Try to mind your stress levels, and you can work to regain balance coming out of the retrograde. You may find you enjoy spending time with others, and want to get your mind off of yourself. With your ruler, Uranus, turning retrograde and a Full Moon in your sign, you may find you make progress in some ways and experience setbacks in some ways, and there are lessons to be learned as you slow down with some of it. Avoid the rush and crush, embrace some grounding.

PISCES

Leo Season activates your work sector, so there can be plenty for you to do, and you can have the energy and focus to get it all done. The more you do, the more you may want to do. But this may not be the case as the season begins with Mercury retrograde, and focus for work and getting little tasks and chores done may be lacking, or you may feel overwhelmed by it all and want a break. You can get back on track out of the retrograde, getting some help from the Leo New Moon, and get organized, tackle the list of things to do, and make practical, productive use of your time. The Full Moon might drain some of your energy though, so try to make time to rest and recharge so you're not pushing yourself over your limits. Rest is good!
