ENDS:

About the Scales:

Here's comes Libra Season! Libra is the sign that rules relationships, the people in our lives, others, so much of the season is spent focusing on others and connecting with other people. We can improve relationships, show how committed we are, become more committed, and take the next step. Libra Season wants us to come together. After all of the work during Virgo Season, it's time to step away from the tasks and chores and be with one another.

Libra rules compromise, wanting us to find middle ground and get everyone on the same page. Libra wants to keep the peace and avoid unnecessary drama, and this season is one where we want to come together. So compromise becomes necessary to keep us together and keep everyone civil.

Libra rules fairness, and this is the sign most likely to scream about how something isn't fair (not only as children!). Libra can see both sides to situations, and this gives this sign a unique perspective of situations. This can help with understanding other people's points of view, which can sometimes be very different from our own. Libra says, that's okay! We're all entitled to our own opinions and we don't have to fight about it.

Libra rules balance, being the sign represented by the Scales. Since Libra can see both sides and wants compromise and peace, this sign strives for balance, which is something that can be top of mind during Libra Season. Imbalance can lead to stress and all sorts of health issues for Libra, so that is something that always needs to be in mind. Whatever we've been neglecting, we can make more of an effort to give attention to, and whatever has sucked up all of our attention, we can work to detach from. Find the happy medium!

Libra is a sociable air sign, so we can be a lot more sociable during Libra Season, especially compared to Virgo Season. It's a season to be with others, enjoy company, and not do everything alone. Find a partner, and be together.

Libra is a great negotiating sign, seeing as to how it can see all sides to a situation and find the middle ground. Libra Season can be a good time to negotiate something you want a favorable outcome to, and mediation can also go well.

Libra is an all-around pleasant, charming sign. Libra wants peace and harmony, balance, and to not be alone, so having a pleasant, charming disposition helps with that! We can manage situations with charm and grace, and get along a little better with others.

So, have a happy birthday season to the Libras! And to everyone else - find that happy medium ;)

What to do during Void Moon periods:

When the Moon is void-of-course, it has made its last major aspect in the sign the Moon is touring, and is now just moving toward the new sign. This is sort of an aimless period for the Moon, so Void Moons are good for slowing things down, getting rest, tying up loose ends, and finishing things you've already started. This can help us find the balance that we need during Libra Season. They're not seen as particularly good periods for anything new, unless you want nothing to come of it. The exception is if you have any natal or progressed planets at 29 degrees (the anaretic degree). This means the Moon is moving to aspect your anaretic planet, and therefore is still giving you energy personally. You may feel invigorated while the rest of us are slumping!

LIFE: EQUAL PARTS REST & WORK.

Quarter Moon Phases During Libra Season 2019

New Moon

September 28th 2:27PM ET / 11:27AM PT

Keyword: BEGIN

Moon Location: 5 degrees 20 minutes Libra

The New Moon phase is a time of new beginnings, new ideas, new plans, and new energy. We can focus on what we're enthusiastic about pursuing, and feel positive about opportunities. This New Moon in Libra kicks up the Libra Season energy, and we can work with others, improve relationships, meet new people, make compromises, negotiate, and strike a balance.

What new ideas, plans, and opportunities can you focus on with the New Moon in Libra?

2nd Quarter Moon Phase

October 5th 12:47PM ET/9:47AM PT

Keyword: ADJUST

Moon Location: 12 degrees 9 minutes Capricorn

2nd Quarter Moon phases tend to focus on adjustments that need to be made. We've started new with the New Moon and are charging toward the Full Moon, where we reap what we've sown. This phase is the time for us to be flexible so we can improve our chances of succeeding with the Full Moon. In Capricorn, we may need to be more disciplined, mature, and work on realistic long-term plans.

What adjustments can you make, or how can you be more flexible, during the 2nd Quarter Moon phase?

Full Moon

October 13th 5:08PM ET/2:08PM PT

Keyword: CULMINATION

Moon Location: 20 degrees 13 minutes Aries

The Full Moon phase brings the climax of the Moon, and therefore brings culminations, endings, and we reap what we've sown. We can experience success and make progress, or we can experience setbacks, delays, and failures. Emotions run high with Full Moons, and anger, aggression, and frustration can pour out with Aries. Try to have an outlet for emotions.

How can you manage developments with the Full Moon, and have proper outlets for your emotions?

4th Quarter Moon Phase

October 21st 8:39AM ET/5:39AM PT

Keyword: CLEAR

Moon Location: 27 degrees 48 minutes Cancer

4th Quarter Moon phases focus on clearing out and cleaning up to make room for the new energy coming with the New Moon phase. This can be a quieter time when we're focused on preparation. This phase comes at the end of Libra Season, so we may focus on the things we've been working on that we need to finish before kicking off a new season, and finish what we've started.

What can you clear out and clean up during the 4th Quarter Moon phase?

↳ Lilith During Libra Season 2019

The dark lady, Black Moon Lilith (a dark pixie!) is in Pisces for the rest of this year, and goes from 12 to 15 degrees during Virgo Season. Lilith in Pisces tends to be more subdued for Lilith. Lilith wants to break out, shake up the patriarchy, and be true to itself. But Pisces doesn't like doing that too much! So we may try to make changes quietly, in subtle ways that don't grab too much attention. Where we may see more of a fighting spirit come out is when we're helping the helpless, and need to stand up for the defenseless. We may want to punch the heartless in the mouth!

Libra Season doesn't come with any of the oppositional energy that Virgo Season came with, but it does come with something interesting - Lilith will conjunct (align with) transit Neptune on September 30th at 16 degrees 45 minutes Pisces. This can reeeeally amplify the Pisces energy since Neptune is the natural ruler of Pisces, and we may be standing up in a big way for people who can't stand up for themselves, exercising super compassion and empathy, but perhaps in a more subtle way. We may use more charm, tact, and diplomacy during Libra Season to get our point across and make progress. But because Neptune has "dissolving" energy at its core and likes to hide things, we may also feel like we're unable to act about something we want to, and we may see something "dissolving" (good or bad!).

Your Lilith energy may come out in the areas of life ruled by the natal house transit Lilith is touring for you (find where 15-19 degrees Pisces falls). If Lilith will aspect any of your natal planets or house cusps, this may trigger your inner Lilith, and you may stand up - politely!

BE A POLITE PROTESTOR

What natal house is Lilith touring for you? Will Lilith make any aspects to your natal chart during Libra season?

Planetary Movement During Libra Season 2019

New Moon in Libra September 28th @ 2:26PM ET/11:26AM PT

The Libra New Moon (at 5 degrees 20 minutes) can help us to focus much more on the Libra Season energy, and we can give extra attention to relationships, support those in our lives who are presented with opportunities, and work on opportunities to do something with a partner. We can strike a balance, make a compromise, negotiate something, and try to keep everything calm and peaceful.

Aspects: 3 degrees 20 minutes - 7 degrees 20 minutes of Libra (conjunction), Leo or Sagittarius (sextile), Cancer or Capricorn (square), Gemini or Aquarius (trine), Aries (opposition)

Note the house location and aspects of this New Moon and potential impact:

Mercury enters Scorpio October 3rd @ 4:14AM ET/1:14AM PT + PlutoDirect October 3rd @ 2:39AM ET/October 2nd @ 11:39PM PT

Mercury moves into Scorpio (and will stay in this sign for a while since Mercury will retrograde in Scorpio Oct 31st - Nov 20th), and on the same day, the natural ruler of Scorpio, Pluto, ends its retrograde at 20 degrees 38 minutes Capricorn. This can help us focus on serious matters, do research and get to the heart of something, and we can take a more serious approach to whatever we do. We may have little patience for superficiality, and can be passionate about our thoughts, opinions, ideas, and plans. With Pluto direct, we can be more invested in our plans and goals, and can feel like we're getting back on track with what we want to do, and have a much better idea of how we can make it happen.

Aspects to Pluto direct: 17-23 degrees Capricorn (conjunct), Scorpio or Pisces (sextile), Taurus or Virgo (trine) - these are all easy aspects and make it easier for you to take control of passionate energy and go for what you want; Aries or Libra (square) and Cancer (opposition) are hard aspects that make it important for you to transform (check out the Transit Pluto page for more on transit Jupiter aspects)

Make note of the house location and aspects made by the Pluto direct and potential impact:

Mars enters Libra October 4th @ 2:39AM ET/11:39PM PT

Mars moves into Libra during Libra Season, and this can bring extra emphasis on Libra as we become energized to be with the people in our lives and connect, and we want to play fair in every way. If things aren't very fair, we may get very mad! We can have more energy and drive to do more when we have a partner, or when we're doing something for someone else. We can also feel more energized and driven when we feel balanced and are surrounded by peace and harmony. Try to get some quiet!

Venus enters Scorpio October 8th @ 1:06PM ET/10:06AM PT

Venus enters Scorpio, joining Mercury in Scorpio, and we start feeling some of the Scorpio energy early in Libra Season. Venus is the natural ruler of Libra, so having Venus in Scorpio can make us more passionate with others, working to improve intimacy, and strengthening emotional bonds with loved ones. We can dig deeper in our relationships and with our loved ones, wanting to understand as much as we can. There can be a deeper quality to this Libra Season, and we can go beyond superficiality to find something meaningful and strong.

Full Moon in Aries October 13th @ 5:08PM ET/2:08PM PT

The Aries Full Moon (at 20 degrees 13 minutes) can focus on the end of the beginning or the beginning of the end since Full Moons are associated with endings and Aries is associated with beginnings. We may have extra emotional energy that we can use in productive ways if we put in effort, and this can help us avoid getting too frustrated or aggressive. We may see the culmination of something important, and can figure out where to go next.

Aspects: 18 degrees 13 minutes - 22 degrees 13 minutes of Aries (conjunction), Gemini or Aquarius (sextile), Cancer or Capricorn (square), Leo or Sagittarius (trine), Libra (opposition)

Make note of the house location and aspects made by this Full Moon and potential impact:

Libra Season 2019

HOROSCOPES

ARIES

Libra Season activates your relationship sector, so you can spend this season focusing on the people in your life, your relationships, and working well with others. This can be strengthened when your ruler, Mars, moves into Libra October 4th, and with the Libra New Moon September 28th. It may be a good time to meet someone new, enter into a new partnership, or work on a project with someone else. Mercury and Venus moving into Scorpio helps you to strengthen intimacy in your relationships so they grow stronger. The Full Moon on October 13th in your sign might bring out what you're feeling in a big way, and you can look to others for support.

How can you focus more on others and regain balance during this Libra Season?

TAURUS

Libra Season activates your work sector, so you can spend this season focusing on the work that needs to be done. Make a list of everything you need to do and start tackling those little tasks and chores that may have piled up recently. Tweak your schedule, set a routine, and get organized. Mars moving into Libra October 4th gives you plenty of energy and drive for getting things done, and the September 28th Libra New Moon can be good for new projects and plans. Mercury and Venus moving into Scorpio help you to make sure you're not ignoring the people in your life either. The Aries Full Moon October 13th can make you pause, take a break, and get some time to yourself.

How can you get more done during Libra Season?

GEMINI

Libra Season activates your love sector, so you can spend time during this season focusing on love in your life. You can be more loving and affectionate with loved ones, and can be open to meeting new people. If single, it can be a good time for dating, while if attached, it can be a good time to rekindle the flame.
