

March 10 2024 Pisces New Moon:

On March 10th 2024, we have a Pisces New Moon, and Pisces is a sign ruling spirituality, intuition, imagination, fantasy, compassion, and empathy. The Pisces New Moon stirs up spiritual energy, and we can give more attention to spiritual matters and pursuits. Intuition can be very high, and it can be easier for us to tap into our intuitive selves. We can make the most of intuitive exercises, and pay attention to dreams and intuitive hits.

Imagination and fantasy can also be strong, and with Pisces ruling the arts, we can feel more artistic and creative. This can be utilized in our professional lives, as well as personally and with our hobbies and free time. We can connect with what we create on a soul level, and can feel inspired subconsciously, quietly, and in subtle ways. We can channel what we're thinking and feeling creatively if we're struggling with using regular communication.

Pisces is a highly compassionate, empathetic sign, and cares deeply about helping others, so we can use the Pisces New Moon to be of help, especially one-on-one and with those we care about most. We can make sacrifices for others, and don't require anything in return. Simply knowing that we helped is reward enough.

Pisces also rules what's hidden, the past, and our subconscious minds, so we may be more comfortable revealing what we've been hiding, bringing the past into the light, and diving into our subconscious minds.

This energy is extra strong thanks to a Pisces stellium at the same time as this New Moon. A stellium occurs when 3 or more planets are in the same Zodiac sign, and with the New Moon, the Sun, Saturn, and Neptune are all touring Pisces. Mercury leaves Pisces on the same day as the New Moon and moves to Aries, and we're more energized with our minds, but Venus enters Pisces the next day on the 11th, bringing pleasant energy into the mix, and helping us get along and come together. Mars will end up moving to Pisces on March 22nd, bringing energy and drive to help us take action. The stellium lasts until April 30th, when Mars leaves Pisces, so it's in effect for 1 1/2 months (not included in video but it started February 18 so in effect for 2 1/2 months total).

This increases the Pisces impact, especially with the natural ruler of Pisces, Neptune, in the mix. We're extra intuitive, spiritual, imaginative, compassionate, and revealing what's hidden. Saturn in the mix demands that we do things the right way and for the right reasons though, otherwise we may face challenges to force the issue. Saturn wants us to learn, be responsible, and work hard and smart, so we have to keep that in mind. The Saturn issues that each of us have to work through can be more dominant during this Pisces stellium and with the Pisces New Moon.

This comes off of an Aquarius stellium which also coincided with February's New Moon in Aquarius, so we're extremely focused right now. Stelliums concentrate energy and we're quite concentrated!

The Pisces New Moon is sextile, which is a beneficial aspect, transit Uranus in Taurus, and this can help us to stay focused on our dreams and future. This has been especially strong since late January, and we continue with this focus until April. Use creativity and intuition to help guide you toward your dreams.

(missing 11)

For everyone, look at any Pisces parts of your natal chart to gauge the impact of the Pisces New Moon. For those who are a little more advanced, also consider your progressed and return charts, and if in a relationship, your composite chart.

By sign, Aries may take a step back out of the spotlight and give more attention to work you can pursue on your own with the Pisces New Moon. You can work well alone, in the background, and behind the scenes, and can clear things out, finish up projects, and get more understanding. Lots of big astrology is coming for your sign in April, so this New Moon can provide an opportunity for you to get ready. Get extra rest, recharge as much as you can, and take care of yourself internally.

Taurus can work on making changes with the Pisces New Moon, and you can be more comfortable with pushing yourself outside your comfort zone and experimenting. You've likely been more traditional with your methods and pursuit of your goals lately, so trying things out that are new and different can open up new avenues for you. You can feel more connected to your dreams for the future, and can be innovative and independent to make it happen.

Gemini may feel that you succeed or hit your stride in some way with something you've been working on for some time with the Pisces New Moon. This can be a fantastic period for achievement, and you can realize a big idea and feel extra optimistic as a result of what you're able to do. Focus on your path, clear your long-term plans, and stay disciplined. You can get recognition for what you do, and make important connections.

Cancer can work to give yourself the time and space to open up your mind and life with the Pisces New Moon, and you can be enthusiastic about new experiences. You may have had to deal with more serious matters lately, so turning toward a brighter outlook can be helpful now. You can find a way to balance the two, and can think bigger in order to solve problems, and get a hold of the big picture to give yourself more power and control.

Leo may focus on transforming in beneficial ways with the Pisces New Moon, and this can help you feel more in control and empowered. You can transform from the core, and that can make it last a long time. You can be passionate about this, and this can be a productive way to utilize the passion you have. You can also strengthen emotional bonds you have with others, and this can help you strengthen commitment in your relationships.

Virgo can focus on working with others with the Pisces New Moon, and you can be a good partner. You can be more comfortable with commitment to people and projects, and you can work on bringing more balance into your life. You've likely had a lot to work on and little things to tend to lately, so being better balanced and giving attention to loved ones can help. You can prefer peace and harmony, and make compromises.

Libra may get a lot done with the Pisces New Moon, and you can focus on getting small tasks and projects done. You can focus on any work that you're passionate about, and can be creative with what you do. Things may have piled up recently if you've been more focused on play and fun, so taking time to get things done that need to be done can be good. You can revamp your schedule, and get organized.

Scorpio can focus on creative projects and ventures with the Pisces New Moon, and this can be an opportunity for you to enjoy yourself and have fun. Emotions have likely been strong lately, and you've had to tend to personal matters, so the New Moon is a chance to let loose and reconnect with joy. You can also be more in tune with your heart and love, and this can be a good time for dating and romance.

Sagittarius may tend to your emotional needs with the Pisces New Moon, and this can help you feel emotionally stable and secure. You've likely had a lot of focus on your ideas and plans, so taking time for your emotions can be a good thing. You can also work on home and family matters, and enjoy spending more time in comfortable, familiar places. You can tend to your internal foundation, and work on starting something from the ground up.

Capricorn can come up with lots of new ideas and plans with the Pisces New Moon, and opportunities can come to you to do something tangible with them. You can be enthusiastic about what you come up with, and ready to take action. You can be more engaging and open with what's on your mind. You can be much more active and keep yourself busy, which may be a contrast to how you've taken things slowly lately.

Aquarius may work on improving stability and security in your life with the Pisces New Moon, and this can help you feel more confident and secure. Lots of the astro energy lately has been focused on your sign, so slowing down a little to improve stability and give yourself a chance to ground yourself can be a good thing. You can also maximize your resources, or get an opportunity for new resources that benefits you.

Pisces can have lots of energy for new beginnings with the New Moon in your sign, and the stellium in your sign gives you plenty of energy to focus on starting anew with something exciting. You can take the initiative with what you want, and make the most of energy and enthusiasm. You have to make sure you do things the right way with Saturn, but if you can, you can make great strides and set yourself up for the next 1-2 years.

So that's it! Wishing you love, luck, and pixie dust with the Pisces New Moon!

March 25 2024 Libra Lunar Eclipse:

On March 25th 2024, we have a Libra Lunar Eclipse, and this is our first eclipse for 2024 and ushers in Eclipse Season. Lunar Eclipses occur with Full Moons, but have much stronger impact. We're way more emotional with Lunar Eclipses, and we can experience big results and major developments.

This Lunar Eclipse comes to us in Libra, and Libra is the sign of relationships and commitment, so we're extra focused on the people in our lives and our connections with others. Some may become more committed to people and projects that you're invested in and have a healthy connection to, and some may decide it's time to get distance from people and projects you're not invested in and don't have a healthy connection to. This can be emotional, but as long as you don't go about it in haste, it can end up a good thing in the long run.

Libra also rules balance, peace, and harmony, and that can be something we really need with the Libra Lunar Eclipse. We can be extra sensitive and indecisive if we have too much chaos in our lives, and we can feel out of balance. Compromise and negotiation can help with keeping the peace, and we may benefit from partnerships and alliances.

Eclipses occur in sets of opposing signs, and right now we're in the Aries and Libra eclipse set. This is the only Lunar Eclipse in Libra for this eclipse set, so it may seem like the effect of this eclipse doesn't last quite as long as usual, and we act quickly.

This eclipse does come with the Pisces stellium roaring strong, so that can help with trying to be peaceful and keeping calm. We may benefit from creativity, compassion, and understanding. Stelliums occur when 3 or more planets are touring one sign together, and are concentrated energy on whatever that sign rules, so we have extra Pisces energy to work with the Lunar Eclipse.

The challenge is just one week after this eclipse, on April 1st, Mercury retrograde begins in Aries. A body is called retrograde in astrology when it appears to be moving backward through the Zodiac, and this can throw the energy of the body off. Mercury retrograde tends to throw off communication, but can impact almost anything. In Aries, we're quick to fight and easily frustrated, and everything can get on our nerves.

That makes it super important to use the Libra Lunar Eclipse energy to find peace, balance, and harmony where you can and in a healthy way. That can help set you up for the Mercury retrograde so you're less likely to give in to the aggravation. Find that peaceful place inside of you.

This Libra Lunar Eclipse is trine, which is a beneficial aspect, transit Pluto in Aquarius, so we do get some help from Pluto with managing any passionate energy. We can work to strengthen emotional bonds, and transform for the better in some way. We can feel empowered and take control, can research and get to the heart of matters, and can solve old problems once and for all.

For everyone, look at any Libra parts of your natal chart to gauge the impact of the Libra Lunar Eclipse. For those who are a little more advanced, also consider your progressed and return charts, and if in a relationship, your composite chart.

By sign, Aries may prioritize the people in your life with the Libra Lunar Eclipse, and can work to strengthen existing relationships that you're committed to and have a good connection with. This can be a time to take the next step in a relationship and deepen commitment. The relationships that are on shaky ground can get put under the microscope, and you can be honest with yourself about the state of affairs. You can make important decisions about what to do next, and how to best navigate in ways that are healthy for you and them.

Taurus can give extra attention to work and your daily life with the Libra Lunar Eclipse, and you can focus on making big strides with projects you've been working on. You might get it done, or you might get some attention for work you've put into it, or you might go back to the drawing board and start your plans over. There can be important decisions impacting you in your daily life that might seem small but have tentacles. You can also work on improving your health, and managing stress can be of utmost importance.

Gemini may want to give more time to fun with the Libra Lunar Eclipse, and you can feel more connected to your heart. This can be great for creative pursuits as you feel more inspired, and if you enjoy what you're doing, you can give it extra focus. You may want to put aside anything too mundane for the moment. You can get a lot of attention now, and this can be professionally, personally, or romantically, and you can enjoy that attention with a more playful mood.

Cancer can get deep into your emotions with the Libra Lunar Eclipse, and you can focus on trying to take better care of yourself emotionally. You can strengthen your support system, and that might include getting some space from someone chaotic. You can be much more reflective, turning inward and thinking more about how you are personally and internally. A strong foundation is the first step to creating something that lasts a lifetime, and you can prioritize that within yourself, or with something you're working on.

Leo may have an active mind with the Libra Lunar Eclipse, and this can be a good time to gather together your ideas, sort through them, and make final decisions. Once you do, you can determine your next steps, and put together plans quickly. You can be quicker on your feet than usual, and adapt to situations more easily. You can also find that you have an easier time expressing yourself, and know what's the right thing to say at the right moment.

Virgo can make more time to improve stability and security in your life with the Libra Lunar Eclipse. This might be because you're feeling insecure about something, or at least not as confident as you'd like to be, and improving stability and security can be the fix you need. But it's also important to remember to ground no matter what, and be more present. You don't need to push every second, and this eclipse might be a reminder of that.

Libra may feel extra focus on yourself with the Lunar Eclipse in your sign, and this can be a big time for you. There can be significant developments, decisions, and choices, and your emotions can run extra high. It's easy to stress out, so try to make sure you're getting breaks as needed, getting enough rest, and utilizing healthy outlets for stress. Others get more of your attention shortly, so make use of the time with this Lunar Eclipse to take care of yourself. What passes now may tie into the Solar Eclipse in your sign from last October.

Scorpio can take time behind the scenes with the Libra Lunar Eclipse, and you may feel extra rundown and need more rest to recharge. Try to avoid pushing yourself too hard or being hard on yourself for needing extra time and rest. This might be a quiet time to reflect, release, and revitalize yourself. It's more of a prep period for greater activity to come, which likely surges fast as we head to the Solar Eclipse.

Sagittarius may push outside of your comfort zone with the Libra Lunar Eclipse, and you can embrace the unconventional and try out different methods and ideas. You don't want to be boxed in, and there can be an opportunity to get yourself unstuck from something if you can be smart and focused. This can help you get closer to one of your dreams, and you can feel more independent.

Capricorn can feel this is a big period for your goals with the Libra Lunar Eclipse, and you can hit new heights and feel you're on the right path if you've done things right and are invested in what you're doing. This can be a time for achievement and success, though there can also be more responsibility, and that has to be managed in a healthy, beneficial way. If it's not a time of success, there is something that likely needs to be revamped, redone, or maybe scrapped altogether.

Aquarius may crave more experiences with the Libra Lunar Eclipse, and you can fantasize about opening up your mind and life. You can push to get more space, but it doesn't work out too well if you're impulsive about it. Try to find space in smart ways, and see what little adventures you can have. Learn more about the world, and more can become possible. You can also become more invested in your beliefs, or you may walk away from them if they don't align with you anymore.

Pisces can focus on a major transformation with the Libra Lunar Eclipse, and this can be something that has a big impact on your life. You can get to the core of it to make sure the change lasts, and you can take control of the transformation. This can lead to more power for you, and you can use this opportunity to come back from something. This can lead to more opportunities with the stellium in your sign.

So that's it! Wishing you love, luck, and pixie dust with the Libra Lunar Eclipse!
