About the Fish:

Hello Pisces Season! Pisces is the last sign of the Zodiac, and this gives it great compassion and empathy. Pisces understands the way everything feels because it carries with it the soul memory of all experience.

Pisces is highly intuitive, in tune with the subtle energies all around us. It can struggle to have a good connection to those instincts, but once it does, it's unstoppable.

Pisces is imaginative and artistic, and this sign can be inspired by what it feels and what it senses intuitively. There is always something in life to be inspired by when you're a Pisces! This sign can create great works of art and move the rest of us to tears.

Pisces rules the subconscious mind, and can focus on trying to merge the conscious with the subconscious. It doesn't always succeed, but it can gain greater understanding.

Pisces also rules the past, and this is a sign that can work on learning from the past as much as possible, which aids in its understanding of others and increases empathy and compassion.

Pisces is an emotional water sign and flowy mutable sign, always coming and going. It's a sign that needs boundaries, otherwise it's easily taken advantage of. Boundaries are good for the fish!

Pisces needs a gentle touch as it's very sensitive to everyone and everything, spiritually, mentally, emotionally, and physically. Be kind to Pisces, and Pisces will be kind to you.

Pisces is the mystic, guided by an unseen hand, and it may not have a conscious answer for decisions and answers, but its inner mystic sure knows the answer!

So, have a happy birthday season to the Pisceans! And to everyone else - be a mystic!

What to do during Void Moon periods:

When the Moon is void-of-course, it has made its last major aspect in the sign the Moon is touring, and is now just moving toward the new sign. This is sort of an aimless period for the Moon, so Void Moons are good for slowing things down, getting rest, tying up loose ends, and finishing things you've already started. Extra rest is super important with void Moons during Pisces Season! They're not seen as particularly good periods for anything new, unless you want nothing to come of it. The exception is if you have any natal or progressed planets at 29 degrees (the anaretic degree). This means the Moon is moving to aspect your anaretic planet, and therefore is still giving you energy personally. You may feel invigorated while the rest of us are slumping!

I FEEL YA

Quarter Moon Phases During Pisces Season 2020

New Moon

February 23rd 10:32AM ET/7:32PM PT

Keyword: BEGIN

Moon Location: 4 degrees 29 minutes Pisces

The New Moon phase is a time of new beginnings, new ideas, new plans, and new energy. In Pisces, we can connect to our intuition, focus on spiritual ventures, do things quietly, and work on our own, without interference,

What new ideas, plans, and opportunities can you focus on with the New Moon in Pisces?

2nd Quarter Moon Phase

March 2nd 3:58PM ET/12:58PM PT

Keyword: ADJUST

Moon Location: 12 degrees 42 minutes Gemini

2nd Quarter Moon phases tend to focus on adjustments that need to be made. We've started new with the New Moon and are charging toward the Full Moon, where we reap what we've sown. This phase is the time for us to be flexible so we can improve our chances of succeeding with the Full Moon. In Gemini, we may need to focus on our ideas and plans, or find new information.

What adjustments can you make, or how can you be more flexible, during the 2nd Quarter Moon phase?

Full Moon

March 9th 1:48PM ET/10:48AM PT

Keyword: CULMINATION

Moon Location: 19 degrees 37 minutes Virgo

The Full Moon phase brings the climax of the Moon, and therefore brings culminations, endings, and we reap what we've sown. We can experience success and make progress, or we can experience setbacks, delays, and failures. In Virgo, we can finish lots of little things that need to be done, get results from work or attention for work we've done, and work to manage daily life, though stress can be higher without breaks and an outlet.

How can you manage developments with the Full Moon, and have proper outlets for your emotions?

4th Quarter Moon Phase

March 16th 5:35AM ET / 2:35AM PT

Keyword: CLEAR

Moon Location: 26 degrees 16 minutes Sagittarius

4th Quarter Moon phases focus on clearing out and cleaning up to make room for the new energy coming with the New Moon phase. This can be a quieter time when we're focused on preparation. With Sagittarius, we may need to think bigger with what we clear out and have a more optimistic attitude about it. This position in Sagittarius is also conjunct something called the Galactic Center, and we may experience a lot of noise that needs to be cut through.

What can you clear out and clean up during the 4th Quarter Moon phase?

♁ Lilith During Pisces Season 2020

The dark lady, Black Moon Lilith (a dark pixie!) is in Aries, and goes from 2 and 5 degrees Aries during Pisces Season. Lilith in Aries is big energy for taking a stand! Push back, fight for yourself. Rage against the machine and break down the walls! Lilith in Aries is loud and has demands that it expects to be met. Lilith in Aries won't let things slide. Lilith in Aries is a force, and knows what it wants!

Pisces Season comes with only 1 Lilith aspect, square (hard aspect) Mars in Capricorn on February 20th. Mars is the natural ruler of Aries, the sign Lilith is in, so this can really pump up the energy. There can be extra aggression and rage, and people may seem to be going a little bonkers! There may be something we feel we absolutely must stand up about, but we can do so in ways that cause a lot of fighting and a lot of anger. Try to stay under control!

Your Lilith energy may come out in the areas of life ruled by the natal house transit Lilith is touring for you (find where 2 - 5 degrees Aries falls). If Lilith will aspect any of your natal planets or house cusps, this may trigger your inner Lilith, and you may stand up and be bold!

Planetary Movement During Pisces Season 2020

New Moon in Pisces February 23rd @ 10:32AM ET/7:32AM PT

The Pisces New Moon (at 4 degrees 29 minutes) can help us feel more compassionate, intuitive, and connected to the subtle energies around us. This New Moon occurs with Mercury retrograde in Pisces and is widely conjunct Mercury, so the best use of this New Moon may be a second chance with something, revisiting something from the past for another shot.

Aspects: 2 degrees 29 minutes - 6 degrees 29 minutes of Pisces (conjunction), Taurus or Capricorn (sextile), Gemini or Sagittarius (square), Cancer or Scorpio (trine), Virgo (opposition)

Note the house location and aspects of this New Moon and potential impact:

Mercury retrogrades into Aquarius March 4th @ 6:37AM ET/3:37AM PT ends retrograde March 9th @ 11:48PM ET/8:48PM PT

Mercury retrogrades back to Aquarius on March 4th, where it ends its retrograde on March 9th. We can be extra rebellious, impulsive, impatient, and restless in Aquarius, and need to keep control over those feelings, though that may be very difficult. Keep an eye on the future and don't give up on something just yet.

The retrograde ends at 28 degrees Aquarius, so aspects are 25 - 29 degrees of: Aquarius (conjunction), Aries or Sagittarius (sextile), Taurus or Scorpio (square), Gemini or Libra (trine), Leo (opposition)

Where does the retrograde end for you, and does it make any aspects?

Venus enters Taurus March 4th @ 11:07PM ET/8:07PM PT

On the same day Mercury retrogrades into Aquarius, Venus enters Taurus, and we can work on trying to bring some stable energy to our relationships. We may want to take things slow in relationships and with love, and try to feel secure first.

Full Moon in Virgo March 9th @ 1:48PM ET/10:48AM PT

The Virgo Full Moon (at 19 degrees 37 minutes) helps with the work that needs to be done, something which may have been totally thrown off with the Mercury retrograde! This Virgo Full Moon gives us a chance to get things out of the way and tackle all of the little things that got messed up. It may be tempting to get it all done and take on a lot, but that likely only causes stress, so avoid doing that.

Aspects: 17 degrees 37 minutes - 21 degrees 37 minutes of Virgo (conjunction), Cancer or Scorpio (sextile), Gemini or Sagittarius (square), Taurus or Capricorn (trine), Pisces (opposition)

Make note of the house location and aspects made by this Full Moon and potential impact:

Mercury enters Pisces March 16th @ 3:42AM ET/12:42AM PT

Mercury re-enters Pisces, the sign it began its retrograde in, and we can start to see things come full circle and around again. What may have been paused in February can start to get energy later in March. Imagination can soar, and we can be more intuitive and less scattered.
