About the Archer:

Hello Sagittarius Season! Sagittarius is the most optimistic sign, a counterbalance to Scorpio as we come out of Scorpio Season. This Scorpio Season may have been especially dark and gloomy with Mercury retrograde in Scorpio almost the whole time, so we could use the optimism! Now, we can focus on the bright side of every situation, and don't want to get stuck in the dark anymore. It's time for some light!

Sagittarius rules expansion, and wants us to expand our lives and minds so we're open to new experiences and opportunities. This allows us to learn and grow and evolve, and have some fun while we're doing it. Sagittarius wants to experience the world and everything in it, and get to know lots of different people and different ways of living. Sagittarius finds this fascinating!

Sagittarius is a travel ruler, along with Gemini, and governs long-distance travel. Sagittarius wants to see everything everywhere, and is open to going to any new place it hasn't seen before. This may be traveling halfway across the world, or hopping over to a restaurant nearby it's never been to.

Sagittarius is the Archer, and so it's a lover of adventure. This sign wants to have all of the adventures it can (though sometimes it's only in its head!). Sagittarius throws itself into everything it does with enthusiasm and zeal, and gets excited by the idea of something wild happening.

Sagittarius is bold and daring. Sagittarius isn't afraid of too much, Scorpio is ruler of our fears, so it's refreshing once we're in Sagittarius and not all that concerned about them! There's too much to do and see and experience, and Sagittarius doesn't want fear holding it back. Be bold, be daring, be brave!

Sagittarius is an energized fire sign, and we can use that energy to take action for fun. It's also a mutable sign, which is scattered, wandering energy. Hence Sagittarius always wanting to be on the go. It just can't handle things being stale and stagnant!

Sagittarius is a teacher and storyteller, wanting to share all of the experiences that it's had with others so they can learn through their experience. Sagittarius can tell big, fantastical stories (and maybe exaggerate sometimes), but it's always interesting!

There can be a surprising amount of wisdom within Sagittarius when this sign has experienced, explored, and expanded its life and mind, and learned how to take some things seriously. That wisdom can then be shared with others, and can give Sagittarius some status, and help it make progress along the adventures it has.

So, have a happy birthday season to the Sagittarians! And to everyone else - be free, be bold, be bright!

What to do during Void Moon periods:

When the Moon is void-of-course, it has made its last major aspect in the sign the Moon is touring, and is now just moving toward the new sign. This is sort of an aimless period for the Moon, so Void Moons are good for slowing things down, getting rest, tying up loose ends, and finishing things you've already started. This can become real laziness during Sagittarius Season. They're not seen as particularly good periods for anything new, unless you want nothing to come of it. The exception is if you have any natal or progressed planets at 29 degrees (the anaretic degree). This means the Moon is moving to aspect your anaretic planet, and therefore is still giving you energy personally. You may feel invigorated while the rest of us are slumping!

Quarter Moon Phases During Sagittarius Season 2019

New Moon

November 26th 10:05AM ET/7:05AM PT

Keyword: BEGIN

Moon Location: 4 degrees 3 minutes Sagittarius

The New Moon phase is a time of new beginnings, new ideas, new plans, and new energy. We can focus on what we're enthusiastic about pursuing, and feel positive about opportunities. We can work to pursue ideas for expansion, exploration, and new experiences, and can feel more open and optimistic.

What new ideas, plans, and opportunities can you focus on with the New Moon in Sagittarius?

2nd Quarter Moon Phase

December 4th 1:58AM ET/December 3rd 10:58PM PT

Keyword: ADJUST

Moon Location: 11 degrees 48 minutes Pisces

2nd Quarter Moon phases tend to focus on adjustments that need to be made. We've started new with the New Moon and are charging toward the Full Moon, where we reap what we've sown. This phase is the time for us to be flexible so we can improve our chances of succeeding with the Full Moon. In Pisces, we may need to let go of something, finish something, reconcile something from the past, or connect to intuition.

What adjustments can you make, or how can you be more flexible, during the 2nd Quarter Moon phase?

Full Moon

December 12th 12:12AM ET / December 11th 9:12PM PT

Keyword: CULMINATION

Moon Location: 19 degrees 51 minutes Gemini

The Full Moon phase brings the climax of the Moon, and therefore brings culminations, endings, and we reap what we've sown. We can experience success and make progress, or we can experience setbacks, delays, and failures. Emotions run high with Full Moons, and we can focus on finding ways to express those emotions. Try to have healthy outlets for expression.

How can you manage developments with the Full Moon, and have proper outlets for your emotions?

4th Quarter Moon Phase

December 18th 11:57PM ET/8:57PM PT

Keyword: CLEAR

Moon Location: 26 degrees 58 minutes Virgo

4th Quarter Moon phases focus on clearing out and cleaning up to make room for the new energy coming with the New Moon phase. This can be a quieter time when we're focused on preparation. With Virgo, we can get to work on whatever needs to be done, and get the little things out of the way to clear our time and energy for the New Moon.

What can you clear out and clean up during the 4th Quarter Moon phase?

♁ Lilith During Sagittarius Season 2019

The dark lady, Black Moon Lilith (a dark pixie!) is in Pisces for the rest of this year, and goes from 22 to 25 degrees during Sagittarius Season. Lilith in Pisces tends to be more subdued for Lilith. Lilith wants to break out, shake up the patriarchy, and be true to itself. But Pisces doesn't like doing that too much! So we may try to make changes quietly, in subtle ways that don't grab too much attention. Where we may see more of a fighting spirit come out is when we're helping the helpless, and need to stand up for the defenseless. We may want to punch the heartless in the mouth!

Sagittarius Season comes with 3 Lilith aspects: trine (positive aspect) transit Mercury (December 5th, this helps us to speak up and speak truth), sextile (positive aspect) transit Venus (December 16th, this helps us to feel more comfortable with standing up, and we can stand up for not just ourselves but others as well), and square (hard aspect) transit Sun (December 17th, so Sagittarius Season is square Lilith, and this can force us to work on standing up and speaking out in ways that make a difference, even if it means we encounter lots of opposition in the process).

Your Lilith energy may come out in the areas of life ruled by the natal house transit Lilith is touring for you (find where 22-25 degrees Pisces falls). If Lilith will aspect any of your natal planets or house cusps, this may trigger your inner Lilith, and you may stand up and be bold!
