About the Scorpio:

Here's comes Scorpio Season! Scorpio is the sign that is most passionate and intense, and doesn't go into anything without being fully committed. We can take everything we do seriously, and take our relationships seriously. This is a big step up from Libra Season, which wants to keep things a little lighter. Scorpio doesn't mind the heavy! In fact, Scorpio demands it.

Scorpio rules transformations thanks to its ruler, Pluto, and wants us to transform anything that is outdated and in need of new life, or that is no longer positive for us (or never was). We can transform the bad into something good, better for us, and for all. Scorpio is the phoenix rising from the ashes, and we can come back and come back even better and stronger.

Scorpio also wants power and control, not wanting anyone else to take over. Scorpio believes it can do things best, and others can just mess things up. Some trust of others may need to be worked on, otherwise we can take on too much and not have any room left for anything else. Healthy power and control is key.

Scorpio is a highly researching sign, always wanting to dig deeper below the surface and see what lurks beneath. This allows Scorpio to gain understanding of complicated subjects and situations and people. Scorpio loves a mystery to solve, and Scorpio may be the only one to solve it! Scorpio will keep digging and digging until everything is revealed.

Scorpio rules the darkness, and can be very comfortable in the shadows. This is a sign that is very in tune with the dark side of itself and of life. It doesn't need to be scared of this. It just sees another opportunity to transform and dig deeper.

Scorpio is an emotional water sign, so and we don't care very much for superficial connections. We want deep emotional connections and strong intimacy with the people we love most, and we won't settle for anything less.

Scorpio is a very serious sign, not taking anything too lightly. Sometimes this means it needs to lighten up, but this serious attitude can be helpful in a serious situation. When something really bad is happening, you want Scorpio there!

The strong will of Scorpio cannot be matched, and this is a sign that can get through almost anything life throws at it. Scorpio has an understanding of reality, can find solutions to problems, and knows what to do. It stays with whatever it focuses on to the end, and no one can beat Scorpio down.

So, have a happy birthday season to the Scorpios! And to everyone else - transform, research, and be strong!

She makes her home a beautiful place to be.	#8: Three of Cups You achieve what you set out to do, and now you're happy about it. You feel good about yourself and your life.	#9: Two of Pentacles You're trying to maintain a balance in your life, but only for the moment. You're waiting for things to improve, and feel you just have to bide your time.

🌙 Lunar Movement During Scorpio Season 2019

Starts in Leo

Leo Moons are good times to use creative energy to make the mundane more manageable and connect to your heart. You can spend time with the people you love, and do the things you love in healthy and positive ways. BUT the Moon is only in Leo for the first hour of Scorpio Season, so we may not feel it very much!

Enters Virgo October 23rd @ 3:29PM ET/12:29PM PT

Virgo Moons are good times to get things done that need to be done. The things that have piled up in the last week or so can become top of mind, and you can focus on getting organized, making lists, and tackling the little things so you feel less stressed (but needing to not take on too much, otherwise more stress can come!).

Enters Libra October 25th @ 4:20PM ET/1:20PM PT

Libra Moons are good times to focus the people in your life and give others more attention. You may want to spend more time with others one-on-one, and tackle your relationships so you feel more secure about them. This is a good Moon to find some balance and peace.

Enters Scorpio October 27th @ 4:29PM ET/1:29PM PT

Scorpio Moons are good times to dig deeper below the surface, do research and investigation, and focus on something you're passionate about. It's good for finding solutions to vexing problems, and taking a serious approach to issues that need it. This is amplified during Scorpio Season, and a New Moon occurs in Scorpio on the 27th.

Enters Sagittarius October 29th @ 5:59PM ET/2:59PM PT

Sagittarius Moons are good times to let loose after the Scorpio Moon, and find some space to breathe and explore. You can feel more open to new experiences and have a more optimistic outlook. You can focus on opportunities and what they have to offer you.

Enters Capricorn October 31st @ 10:37PM ET/7:37PM PT

Capricorn Moons are good times to focus on ambitions and long-term plans for your goals. These are often professional, but can also be personal. You can be more disciplined and practical, responsible and mature, and sort through what's needed.

Enters Aquarius November 3rd @ 6:20AM ET/3:20AM PT

Aquarius Moons are good times to focus on change, find more independence, and push us outside of our comfort zones. We can be open to doing things in new ways, meeting new people, and coming up with innovations. We may think outside of the box.

Enters Pisces November 5th @ 6:08PM ET/3:08PM PT

Pisces Moons are good times to get in tune with our intuition and inner guide, and to exercise more compassion and empathy. You may be more introspective, want some time alone to recharge, or work to bring something to an end.

Enters Aries November 8th @ 6:49AM ET/3:49AM PT

Aries Moons are good times to start something new, to take the initiative with something we want, and to make use of a pioneering spirit. You may have more energy and drive to take action with something, and feel positive about your chances.

Enters Taurus November 10th @ 6:18PM ET/3:18PM PT

Taurus Moons are good times to slow things down, take stock, and bring grounding energy to anything that needs it in your life. You can work to improve stability, security, and confidence, and you can focus on financial matters. A Full Moon in Taurus occurs on the 12th, and this can bring extra stubborn energy, and emotion can be heightened, which can lead to feeling stuck. Positive, healthy outlets may be needed for emotions, and extra effort focused on moving forward.

Enters Gemini November 13th @ 3:46AM ET/12:46AM PT

Gemini Moons are good times to focus on your short-term plans, create new ones for ideas, and communicate with others. You can work to be more expressive, and try to understand yourself and others better.

Enters Cancer November 15th @ 11:15AM ET/8:15AM PT

Cancer Moons are good times to focus on your emotional needs, and to find more emotional comfort and support for yourself. As you feel more comforted and supported, you can give comfort and support to others. We can be more nurturing and focused on emotional connection with others.

Enters Leo November 17th @ 4:57PM ET/1:57PM PT

Leo Moons are good times to use creative energy to make the mundane more manageable and connect to your heart. You can spend time with the people you love, and do the things you love in healthy and positive ways.

Enters Virgo November 19th @ 8:54PM ET/5:54PM PT

The season ends with a Virgo Moon, and you can spend time making lists of the things you didn't get to over the season, and get organized for the next season.

Make the most of the Moon: List one thing you can do with each Moon sign period during Scorpio Season:

November 21st 10:31PM - 11:19PM ET (7:31PM - 8:19PM PT)

What to do during Void Moon periods:

When the Moon is void-of-course, it has made its last major aspect in the sign the Moon is touring, and is now just moving toward the new sign. This is sort of an aimless period for the Moon, so Void Moons are good for slowing things down, getting rest, tying up loose ends, and finishing things you've already started. This can give us a break from passionate energy during Scorpio Season. They're not seen as particularly good periods for anything new, unless you want nothing to come of it. The exception is if you have any natal or progressed planets at 29 degrees (the anaretic degree). This means the Moon is moving to aspect your anaretic planet, and therefore is still giving you energy personally. You may feel invigorated while the rest of us are slumping!

BE QUIET

Quarter Moon Phases During Scorpio Season 2019

New Moon

October 27th 11:38PM ET/8:38PM PT

Keyword: BEGIN

Moon Location: 4 degrees 25 minutes Scorpio

The New Moon phase is a time of new beginnings, new ideas, new plans, and new energy. We can focus on what we're enthusiastic about pursuing, and feel positive about opportunities. This New Moon in Scorpio comes early in Scorpio Season, and we can work to channel passion productively, do research into something, find a solution, share, or transform.

What new ideas, plans, and opportunities can you focus on with the New Moon in Scorpio?

2nd Quarter Moon Phase

November 4th 5:23AM ET/2:23AM PT

Keyword: ADJUST

Moon Location: 11 degrees 41 minutes Aquarius

2nd Quarter Moon phases tend to focus on adjustments that need to be made. We've started new with the New Moon and are charging toward the Full Moon, where we reap what we've sown. This phase is the time for us to be flexible so we can improve our chances of succeeding with the Full Moon. In Aquarius, we may need to be more mindful of change, open to the unconventional, and remain objective.

What adjustments can you make, or how can you be more flexible, during the 2nd Quarter Moon phase?

Full Moon

November 12th 8:35AM ET / 5:35AM PT

Keyword: CULMINATION

Moon Location: 19 degrees 51 minutes Taurus

The Full Moon phase brings the climax of the Moon, and therefore brings culminations, endings, and we reap what we've sown. We can experience success and make progress, or we can experience setbacks, delays, and failures. Emotions run high with Full Moons, and we can be stubborn, frustrated, and feel stuck. Try to keep calm and force yourself to get moving.

How can you manage developments with the Full Moon, and have proper outlets for your emotions?

4th Quarter Moon Phase

November 19th 4:11PM ET/1:11PM PT

Keyword: CLEAR

Moon Location: 27 degrees 13 minutes Leo

4th Quarter Moon phases focus on clearing out and cleaning up to make room for the new energy coming with the New Moon phase. This can be a quieter time when we're focused on preparation. This phase comes at the end of Scorpio Season, so we may focus on the things we've been working on that we need to finish before kicking off a new season, and finish what we've started. We can feel lighter with Leo.

What can you clear out and clean up during the 4th Quarter Moon phase?

♁ Lilith During Scorpio Season 2019

The dark lady, Black Moon Lilith (a dark pixie!) is in Pisces for the rest of this year, and goes from 19 to 22 degrees during Scorpio Season. Lilith in Pisces tends to be more subdued for Lilith. Lilith wants to break out, shake up the patriarchy, and be true to itself. But Pisces doesn't like doing that too much! So we may try to make changes quietly, in subtle ways that don't grab too much attention. Where we may see more of a fighting spirit come out is when we're helping the helpless, and need to stand up for the defenseless. We may want to punch the heartless in the mouth!

Scorpio Season actually comes with 3 beneficial aspects for Lilith: sextile transit Pluto November 7th (so we can be more comfortable fighting for what we believe in and take some control), trine transit Venus October 24th (early in the season, helping us push but diplomatically), and trine transit Sun November 14th (helping us shine a light on what we're passionate about). We can make good use of the passionate energy of Scorpio Season and use it to take a stand.

Your Lilith energy may come out in the areas of life ruled by the natal house transit Lilith is touring for you (find where 19-22 degrees Pisces falls). If Lilith will aspect any of your natal planets or house cusps, this may trigger your inner Lilith, and you may stand up and take your power!

YOU CAN'T CONTROL ME

Planetary Movement During Scorpio Season 2019

New Moon in Scorpio October 27th @ 11:38PM ET/8:38PM PT

The Scorpio New Moon (at 4 degrees 25 minutes) can help us to focus much more on the Scorpio Season energy, and gives a nice little boost of Scorpio energy at the start so we can do research, find solutions, make transformations, share, and connect intimately. We'll want to make the most of this because we'll quickly have the Mercury retrograde to deal with!

Aspects: 2 degrees 25 minutes - 6 degrees 25 minutes of Scorpio (conjunction), Virgo or Capricorn (sextile), Leo or Aquarius (square), Cancer or Pisces (trine), Taurus (opposition)

Note the house location and aspects of this New Moon and potential impact:

Mercury retrograde begins in Scorpio October 31st @ 11:41AM ET/8:41AM PT

Mercury will retrograde in Scorpio Oct 31th - Nov 20th, and this can bring out intense emotions, make us a lot more serious, and we can become obsessive or controlling, fight over power, and rage can be a problem. Anything that's been bottled up can come roaring out! We have to be more considerate, work to find some space, and let the light in. It can be a great time for positive transformations for the better.

Aspects to Mercury retrograde: 25-29 degrees Virgo or Capricorn (sextile), Cancer or Pisces (trine) - these are all easy aspects and you can focus on redos and second chances; Scorpio (conjunct), Leo or Aquarius (square) and Taurus (opposition) are hard aspects that make it important for you to have patience, pay careful attention, and not get too caught up in the serious stuff

Make note of the house location and aspects made by the Mercury retrograde and potential impact:

Venus enters Sagittarius November 1st @ 3:24PM ET/12:24PM PT

Venus moves into Sagittarius during Scorpio Season, and this can make us more adventurous in love, and we can enjoy expanding, exploring, and having new experiences. This can help bring a little light into the darker energy that'll be everywhere with the Mercury retrograde, and we can find the space we need and try to focus on the bright side of situations instead of being all doom and gloom.

Full Moon in Taurus November 12th @ 8:35AM ET/5:35AM PT

The Taurus Full Moon (at 19 degrees 51 minutes) can make us feel quite stubborn and stuck in some way since Taurus doesn't like to move, and this can make us frustrated with extra emotional energy from the Full Moon. Work to eliminate blocks to stability and security as these will likely become more prominent.

Aspects: 17 degrees 51 minutes - 21 degrees 51 minutes of Taurus (conjunction), Cancer or Pisces (sextile), Leo or Aquarius (square), Virgo or Capricorn (trine), Scorpio (opposition)

Make note of the house location and aspects made by this Full Moon and potential impact:

Mars enters Scorpio November 19th @ 2:39AM ET/November 18th @ 11:39PM PT

Mars enters Scorpio at the end of both the Sun and Mercury retrograde in Scorpio, so this can bring energy and drive to work on the things that got thrown off during the retrograde, and end the season on the right track. Wills can be stronger, and we can make anything happen that we want. We can be passionate and persevere as long as we don't let ourselves get consumed by the darkness.

Mercury direct in Scorpio November 20th @ 2:11M ET/10:11AM PT

Mercury will retrograde ends in Scorpio November 20th, and this can bring out intense emotions, make us a lot more serious, and we can become obsessive or controlling, fight over power, and rage can be a problem. Anything that's been bottled up can come roaring out! We have to be more considerate, work to find some space, and let the light in. It can be a great time for positive transformations for the better.

Aspects to Mercury direct: 9-13 degrees Virgo or Capricorn (sextile), Cancer or Pisces (trine) - these are all easy aspects and you can come out of the retrograde on the right track; Scorpio (conjunct), Leo or Aquarius (square) and Taurus (opposition) are hard aspects and you may feel challenged in some way

Make note of the house location and aspects made by the Mercury direct and potential impact:

Scorpio Season 2019

HOROSCOPES

ARIES

Scorpio Season activates your transformation sector, and this is a serious sector so you can focus on more serious matters. With the Mercury retrograde in this sector as well, things may seem a little more dark and depressing than usual, but it may just be your mood is down because you need to transform something for the better, or address something deeply-held and bring it out into the light. Take second chances with mutually-beneficial projects and ventures, and share more with others. The November 12th Taurus Full Moon might make you crave some better stability and security, and you can try to calm and ground passionate energy that may be creating issues.

How can you transform during this Scorpio Season?

TAURUS

Scorpio Season activates your relationship sector, and you can focus on the people in your life and your relationships and partnerships. With the Mercury retrograde in this sector, some people may aggravate you, some may need more attention, and some may fall out of your life (maybe just temporarily). It can be good energy for reconnecting with people from the past, and trying to restore balance in your life. The Full Moon on November 12th in your sign can bring out your emotions and make you more open, and you can see the culmination of something important. You may need to be less rigid and more flexible with the Full Moon, and keep calm.

How can you focus more on others and regain balance during this Scorpio Season?

GEMINI

Scorpio Season activates work sector, and you can focus on what needs to be done. With Mercury retrograde in this sector, you may struggle with sticking to deadlines, getting focused, paying attention to the details, have issues with the people you work with or for, may avoid doing work that needs to be done, or may take on too much and cause overwhelm and stress. It's a good time for routine maintenance and taking better care of yourself. The Full Moon on November 12th in Taurus might drain your energy a little bit, so if you're feeling tired and rundown, try to give yourself a break, get some peace and quiet, and turn inward.

How can you get more done during Scorpio Season?

CANCER

Scorpio Season activates your love sector, so you can focus on who and what you love. With Mercury retrograde in this sector, you can experience some issues in love relationships and have to deal with more demanding people, or you may not have the time for the things you love most, or make too much time for it and don't get any of the work done that needs to be done. It's good energy for reconnecting with old loves, with your heart, with your inner child, or with old hobbies. The November 12th Taurus Full Moon might bring out some rebellious as you crave more independence, and you can take time to work on changes or make progress with dreams

How can you bring more love into your life during Scorpio Season?

LEO

Scorpio Season activates your home and family sector, so you can focus on matters at home or with family. With the Mercury retrograde in this sector, you may have to tackle little issues at home, have to manage your family, and you may be more emotional, more in need of support, or need to strengthen your internal foundation. It's good energy for reconnecting with family and getting in tune with your emotional self. The November 12th Full Moon in Taurus can bring progress with goals you've worked long and hard at and been smart with, or setbacks with ones you need to make changes with, and you can focus on the direction that you're going in.

How can you be more supportive, build stronger foundations, or make time for the home/family during this Scorpio Season?

VIRGO

Scorpio Season activates your communication sector, so you can focus on communicating and expression. With Mercury retrograde in this sector, you may have trouble with that though, and may feel misunderstood, unheard, or have trouble listening to others. It's good energy for trying to say something over again, focusing on old ideas and plans, and if you can give your mind a positive outlet, you can manage the energy.
