ABOUT SEPTEMBER 2024:

Pluto moves back into Capricorn on the 1st, and only has about 2 ½ months in this sign before officially entering Aquarius. This is the end of a cycle, and we can get things finished, clear out, and make room.

A Virgo New Moon comes early in September on the 2nd, and this helps with increasing productivity, getting things done, and starting new projects that we're excited about. Mercury enters Virgo on the 9th, and we can focus on the details and drill down on ideas.

Mars enters Cancer on September 4th, helping to drive us emotionally, and we can make sure the foundation is secure with anything we do. This helps us be in tune emotionally with the Pisces Lunar Eclipse on the 17th, and we can get deep in our feelings. Our subconscious minds, spiritual selves, and karma can all be strong with this eclipse.

The Sun moves into Libra on September 22nd, with Libra's ruler, Venus, moving to Scorpio on the same day. We're extra focused on our connections, the way we come together, intimacy, and passion. Mercury joins the Sun in Libra on the 26th, and we can be more tactful, diplomatic, and charming.

Planetary Events:

Monday: Virgo New Moon

Tuesday: Mars square Neptune

Wednesday: Mars Enters Cancer,

Venus square Ceres

Saturday: Mercury square Uranus

Sunday: Sun opposite Saturn

The Virgo New Moon kicks the week off with great productive energy, and we can focus on what we want to get started and finish fast. Energetic focus might be a little off though, and we can be easily drained if we don't have healthy boundaries. We can work on emotional needs with Mars in Cancer, and we may need to work on tackling issues around getting enough support from others or supporting our relationships. We can be a little impulsive over the weekend, wanting to avoid anything that feels like work, and discipline can be lacking, so it might be a good idea to get a break.

Make a plan for the week! What quick projects can you start and finish, how can you improve support in your life, and how can you get a break over the weekend:

Planetary Events:

Monday: Mercury Enters Virgo

Wednesday: 2nd Quarter Moon
in Sagittarius, Mercury sextile Mars

Thursday: Sun square Jupiter

Saturday: Mercury trine Ceres

Sunday: Venus trine Jupiter

We can focus on the little things thanks to Mercury in Virgo, and try to put together practical plans. We can make adjustments with the 2nd Quarter Moon in Sagittarius on Wednesday, and these adjustments can be big and bold, or they can lead to more expansion in your lives. We can take initiative with ideas midweek, though we do have to be mindful of not pushing our luck. We can get support for our ideas over the week, and come up with new ideas for utilizing resources. We can end the week feeling good around others, a bit lucky, and focused on the positives.

Make a plan for the week! What plans can you work on, which big adjustments can you make, which ideas can you take action with, and which resources can be most beneficial:

Week of: September 16th – 22nd 2024

Saturn

Thursday: Sun trine Uranus

Friday: Sun opposite Neptune,
Mars opposite Ceres

Saturday: Mercury square Jupiter

Sunday: Sun Enters Libra, Venus
Enters Scorpio, Sun trine Pluto,
Venus square Pluto

The Pisces Lunar Eclipse might drain some of our energy, so we can go into this week wanting to tap into our subconscious mind and spiritual selves. Mental discipline can be lacking anyway, so we can work on better intuitive connections. We can work on changes and dream about the future, and imaginations can soar, but we may lack a resource we need or have to work on making time to self-nurture. We can end the week wanting to come together, feeling empowered and passionate, and working on transforming for the better, but we may also come to blows over something and need to keep an open mind.

Make a plan for the week! How can you get time away from demands to connect to your subconscious and intuition, use imagination, self-nurture, and keep an open mind:

Week of: September 23rd – 29th 2024

Planetary Events:

Tuesday: 4th Quarter Moon in Cancer, Mercury trine Uranus

Wednesday: Mercury opposite Neptune

Thursday: Mercury Enters Libra, Mercury trine Pluto

The 4th Quarter Moon in Cancer on Tuesday helps us clear out emotionally this week, and we can think outside the box and come up with unconventional ideas. Our imaginations can be strong, and we can get lost in fantasies, so we may need to work on controlling that. It can get better later in the week, and we can become passionate about an idea that we dive into.

Make a plan for the week! What can you clear out, how can you use imagination productively, and which ideas can you dive into:

Week of: September 30th – October 6th 2024

Planetary Events:

Monday: Mars trine Saturn, Sun
conjunct Mercury

Wednesday: Libra Solar Eclipse,
Mercury square Ceres, Venus
sextile Ceres

Friday: Venus trine Saturn, Sun
square Ceres

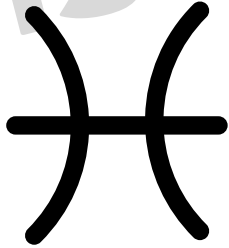

Sunday: Mercury square Mars

Disciplined energy can help us take action with ideas and plans to start the week, and we can be extra focused on new beginnings thanks to the Solar Eclipse. We can work together to support each other, though we may have a hard time with ideas and plans for resources and may need to get more creative. We can enjoy pursuing our goals and being disciplined, and can be responsible with others. We may end the week easily irritated and prone to fights, and need to have healthy outlets for frustration to avoid blowing up.

Make a plan for the week! What can you focus discipline on, how can you be creative with your resources, which goals can you focus on, and how can you manage frustration in healthy ways:

ABOUT:

The Pisces Lunar Eclipse greatly amplifies emotional energy. Lunar Eclipses occur with Full Moons can tend to be deeply emotional, and Pisces is an emotional water sign, so everything we feel can be stronger. We're extra sensitive as a result, and need to be gentle with ourselves and others. We should be more compassionate, and not give in to cruelty.

Pisces is also the sign ruling the subconscious, and Lunar Eclipses tend to have strong subconscious energy, so that's extra strong. We can get in tune with our subconscious selves, and this can help us gain more understanding.

Lunar Eclipses can also be karmic, and Pisces is the karmic sign, so this is also heightened. You can become aware of karmic baggage that is holding us back, along with that subconscious baggage. Everything that has been hidden from us can become seen, and we become aware of what has been blocking our way.

Lunar Eclipses are also tied to endings, and Pisces is the last Zodiac sign, so there can be significant endings with this eclipse. Pretty much everything Lunar Eclipse-y is amplified with this one!
