

SEPTEMBER 2024

Aspects Guide

The Dark Pixie
ASTROLOGY

Contents:

How to Use	3
Mars Square Neptune	4
Mercury Square Uranus	8
Sun Opposite Saturn	12
Mercury Sextile Mars	16
Sun Square Jupiter	20
Venus Trine Jupiter	24
Mercury Opposite Saturn	28
Sun Trine Uranus	32
Sun Opposite Neptune	36
Mercury Square Jupiter	40
Sun Trine Pluto	44
Venus Square Pluto	48
Mercury Trine Uranus	52
Mercury Opposite Neptune	56
Mercury Trine Pluto	60
Mars Trine Saturn	64
Mercury Conjunct the Sun	68

How to Use:

This guide covers all of the major astrological aspects for the month of September, and there are seventeen of them. Each aspect has some general information about impact, and then the impact for each Zodiac sign. I recommend paying attention to both your Sun and Rising signs, if you know both.

Your Rising sign info aligns best with your own houses; if you have a Rising that is late in sign, so say over twenty degrees, then you may want to read the sign AFTER your Rising sign.

Even if you know your Rising sign, you should still read your Sun sign as well if any aspects occur in your Sun sign. If they impact your Sun directly, that is noted by birthday.

If you don't know your Rising sign, you can follow your Sun sign, in which case it uses Solar Houses, which make your Sun sign the Rising sign and let the remaining houses fall in order from there.

Each aspect is in effect usually for the day before, of, and after.

Mars Square Neptune:

On September 3rd, Mars is square Neptune at 12:10AM ET, so it's September 2nd at 9:10PM PT, with Mars in Gemini and Neptune in Pisces, and both at 28 degrees 59 minutes, so almost anaretic. There are 30 degrees in every Zodiac sign, and 29 degrees is the last degree. This is called the anaretic degree, and this is supercharged energy, and with the transit planets, we feel pushed to take action while we can.

Mars to Gemini usually means we're focused on our spirituality, intuitive, and creativity, but in a hard aspect like the square, we may not have any focus and have a hard time taking action with anything. We can feel drained and need more rest.

Mars is moving out of Gemini to Cancer the next day on the 4th, so if we do take action, it has to be within a day, otherwise Mars has moved on, and so have we.

For Aries, Mars square Neptune occurs in your third and twelfth houses, and you may have a hard time with mental focus, and feel the next for a lot more time alone to reflect and to recharge. Try to give yourself enough space to get that when you can, and if you're up for anything, try working on strengthening your intuition.

For Taurus, Mars square Neptune lights up your eleventh and second houses, and you can feel motivated to focus on your dreams or any changes you need to make, but are uncertain about how to go about that and don't want to create any instability. You may want to get some time to ground yourself before taking any action.

For Gemini, Mars square Neptune targets you specifically since Mars is in your sign and the first house, and Neptune is in the tenth house. Mars in your sign has brought you a lot of energy and enthusiasm, but Neptune might be making it challenging to focus this, and you're uncertain of your path. Try to connect with your intuition, and work on blocks on your path. If you're a Gemini Sun, this can be strongest for you if you're born June 17th or later.

For Cancer, Mars square Neptune activates your twelfth and ninth houses, and you may need more time to rest and recharge than usual. You might feel optimistic about where you're going, but unsure of how to make it happen, and you likely need the time alone to reflect, to release, or to work on finalizing something on your own.

For Leo, Mars square Neptune occurs in your eleventh and eighth houses, and you may want to take action to change something, and this can help you with a transformation you've been uncertain about. Make sure to be smart though, and not impulsive, as this might create other issues you don't have the time for.

For Virgo, Mars square Neptune lights up your tenth and seventh houses, and you may have more energy and drive for your goals, but feel focus is taken away by issues with others. Your relationships may need tending to, but you can be uncertain of how exactly, or let yourself be taken advantage of. Try to maintain boundaries, and work on long-term plans.

For Libra, Mars square Neptune activates your ninth and sixth houses, and you may want to take action with a big idea, but get bogged down by the details. You may feel you should ignore the details, but this ends up creating issues that keep you from going big. Try to get some time to drill down, and don't rush into anything.

For Scorpio, Mars square Neptune occurs in your eighth and fifth houses, and you can work hard on something serious and strive to find solutions, but you may need to be creative in order to do this, and that can escape you. It might be difficult to be productive with your creativity, so try to let it flow, and work on deep blocks.

For Sagittarius, Mars square Neptune lights up your seventh and fourth houses, and you may give more attention to the people in your life, and can be extra supportive, but might have issues with feeling emotionally secure as you're giving too much. Try to make sure you're striking a balance in focus on yourself with focus on others.

For Capricorn, Mars square Neptune activates your sixth and third houses, and you may feel a bit anxious, restless about something, and try to get a lot done, but your mind might be elsewhere, constantly wandering, and hard to pin down, which can be frustrating. Give yourself lots of time to get things done, and focus on what doesn't require great focus.

For Aquarius, Mars square Neptune occurs in your fifth and second houses, and you may want to get away from anything mundane or that requires a lot of attention. This would be good energy to relax, to enjoy yourself, and to not push with anything. Just try to avoid being too stubborn about it.

For Pisces, Mars square Neptune targets you directly since Neptune is in your sign and first house, and Mars is in the fourth house. Neptune in your sign amplifies your imagination, spirituality, and intuition, and you may want to focus on your emotional needs and improving emotional security. It can be difficult to drill down, so you end up feeling a bit unsettled. Try to give yourself time alone to work on this, and be gentle with yourself. If you're a Pisces Sun, this can be strongest for you if you're born March 16th or later.

Mercury Square Uranus:

On September 7th, Mercury in Leo in square Uranus in Taurus at 12:21AM ET, so September 6th at 9:21PM PT, with both at 27 degrees 14 minutes. This is the third time this aspect has occurred since Mercury also squared Uranus while Mercury was retrograde, or appearing to move backward, on August 18th at 27 degrees 10 minutes. This has been a period of change, and this has challenged the status quo. We've likely felt impulsive, impatient, and wanted to jump at change, but have needed to control this and be smarter about it. If we have, this has been a great period for getting unstuck with something that has been intractable for a long time.

For Aries, Mercury square Uranus lights up your fifth and second houses, and you've likely had to work on giving more attention to pushing yourself to take action with something that has been stalled out, and you've had to do so in order to connect with your heart and bring more joy into your life. Being creative has helped, and you can continue the work.

For Taurus, Mercury square Uranus targets you specifically with Uranus in your sign and first house, which has led to lots of changes in your life. Mercury is in the fourth house, and your heart and mind have been connecting. This means it's been a great period for you to work on moving forward with something emotionally, and from the bottom. If you're a Taurus Sun, this aspect is strongest for you if you're born May 15th or later.

For Gemini, Mercury square Uranus occurs in your third and twelfth houses, and this has likely brought challenges for you with staying focused, and changes have been draining. You likely need to work on them on your own, and get some time and space to work on your plans and gather information.

For Cancer, Mercury square Uranus activates your second and eleventh houses, and you've likely been focusing a lot on areas where you're stuck and need to make big changes. Hopefully you've avoided being rash about it, and can continue to be smart with your actions, and make changes that keep you going toward your future.

For Leo, Mercury square Uranus targets you directly since Mercury is in your sign and the first house, and Uranus is in your tenth house. Mercury in your sign surges mental energy, but this has been a challenge after the Mercury retrograde in your sign brought too much worry and too many little things to deal with. Now, you can take control of your ideas and plans, and work on changes with your long-term plans with Uranus, and set new goals for yourself that finally get you moving in the right direction. If you're a Leo Sun, this aspect can be strongest for you if you're born August 17th or later.

For Virgo, Mercury square Uranus lights up your twelfth and ninth houses, leading you to continue to feel drained and need more time alone. You can focus on your big ideas on your own, and work on finalizing big plans and removing blocks to see the big picture, which helps you get moving when energy returns for you.

For Libra, Mercury square Uranus occurs in your eleventh and eighth houses, and you've likely been trying to use your passionate energy to create new changes in your life. This might've gotten frustrating during the retrograde, but if you've kept at it and been smart, you can eventually make big strides.

For Scorpio, Mercury square Uranus activates your tenth and seventh houses, and this has brought some strife between your external goals and your relationships. You've hopefully been working on balancing this out, and trying to remove blocks that have kept these two parts of your life at odds so you can move forward with both.

For Sagittarius, Mercury square Uranus lights up your ninth and sixth houses, and this has likely made you want to get away from the mundane, but have felt a bit stuck. Try to think big with your ideas and plans, and use this to make small changes in your daily life. This can give you the space you want.

For Capricorn, Mercury square Uranus occurs in your eighth and fifth houses, and you've likely had some seriousness to deal with lately that was quite challenging and zapped the fun from your life. Continue to think creatively with solutions and transformations, and this can help you move forward.

For Aquarius, Mercury square Uranus activates your seventh and fourth houses, and your relationships have likely required more attention lately, and you've felt out of balance in some ways, which impacted you emotionally. Try to focus on making changes with how you get and give support, and this can help both your connections with others and yourself.

For Pisces, Mercury square Uranus lights up your sixth and third houses, and you've likely had a lot to deal with lately, and this has scattered your mind and made you feel more anxious than usual. Try to focus on the details of your ideas and plans for changes, and work methodically with them so it doesn't seem so daunting and you can accomplish what you want.

Sun Opposite Saturn:

The Sun opposes Saturn on September 8th at 12:35AM ET, September 7th at 9:35PM PT, with the Sun in Virgo and Saturn in Pisces, and both at 16 degrees 1 minute. Saturn is discipline and restriction, so the opposition can either double down on that and make us feel extra limited, or it can take it away and make us reckless and irresponsible. We need to work on finding middle ground, and may need to be creative to find new options and to stay focused.

For Aries, the Sun opposite Saturn activates your sixth and twelfth houses, and you can struggle with getting done the tasks, chores, and projects that you need to focus on. You may need to work on finding new ways of approaching, and cutting yourself some slack if things are going slowly. Stay the course, and you can get there eventually.

For Taurus, the Sun opposite Saturn lights up your fifth and eleventh houses, and you may want to take things easy, but have to manage the changes that need your attention. You need to do the work required for that, but may lack the desire to do so and prefer to avoid it. Try to make it fun so you can stick with it.

For Gemini, the Sun opposite Saturn occurs in your fourth and tenth houses, and personal matters may be at odds with professional duties or responsibilities. You need to balance these two, and try to make sure the foundation for yourself and your life is solid and strong. This can help you find the balance you need and feel more secure.

For Cancer, the Sun opposite Saturn activates your third and ninth houses, and you may feel the big and little pictures are fighting each other, and you want to lean on the details but end up ignoring the grand scheme. Try to bring the details to your long-term plans and bigger outlook and big ideas, while keeping an open mind with the small things.

For Leo, the Sun opposite Saturn lights up your second and eighth houses, and you may want to bring stability and security to an area that has been a bit chaotic lately, but there might be something you need to dig deeper into first. This can stir up some challenging emotions, but it can lead to the stability you want eventually.

For Virgo, the Sun opposite Saturn targets you directly as the Sun is in your sign and the first house, and Saturn is in the seventh house. The Sun in your sign helps you focus on what you want for yourself, but Saturn in the seventh house brings attention to your connections, and you may feel challenged giving both yourself and other attention. But balancing this is important, otherwise you may feel you've grown too distant in some way. If you're a Virgo Sun, this can be strongest for you if born September 5th - 11th.

For Libra, the Sun opposite Saturn occurs in your twelfth and sixth houses, and you may want to get some time alone to rest and recharge, but there can be smaller projects, tasks, and chores calling you, and you need to get them done. Make sure you leave room in your schedule for breaks as you need them so you don't burn out.

For Scorpio, the Sun opposite Saturn activates your eleventh and fifth houses, and you may want to work on doing something differently, but end up getting stuck having to do it the same way you always have. Your creativity may feel zapped, and you have to think further outside of the box to find what you're looking for and need.

For Sagittarius, the Sun opposite Saturn lights up your tenth and fourth houses, and you may prefer to focus on one of your goals and get things set up right, but there might be something you need to focus on with the foundation of the goal first. This might feel like a block, but it ends up putting you on the right path later.

For Capricorn, the Sun opposite Saturn occurs in your ninth and third houses, and you may want to focus on your big ideas and the big picture, but there can be something in the details that requires more attention. Getting a solid handle on both can be the best option for you, and you can benefit from what you discover.

For Aquarius, the Sun opposite Saturn activates your eighth and second houses, and you may want to make use of your passionate energy and focus on a transformation, but can feel stuck. Try to use the passion and intensity you have to dig deeper and find the source of the block so you can get going quickly.

For Pisces, the Sun opposite Saturn targets you directly since Saturn is in your sign and first house, and the Sun is in the seventh house. Saturn in your sign has brought more responsibilities as you've been setting up the next journey for your life, and you've had to get more disciplined and practical, while the Sun brings more attention to others. You likely still need to work on something for yourself, and can get help in small ways. If you're a Pisces Sun, this can be strongest for you if born March 4th - 8th.

Mercury Sextile Mars:

On September 11th, Mercury in Virgo is sextile Mars in Cancer at 11:42PM ET/8:42PM PT, with both at 4 degrees 21 minutes. This is the third time they sextile each other, as Mercury sextiled Mars during Mercury retrograde in August, but with Mercury in Leo and Mars in Gemini. This has brought lots of mental energy, and helped us take action with our ideas. While Mercury was retrograde, we may have had to pick back up old ideas and plans, or take a different approach. We can now see progress with what we've done. The previous sextile between these two was on August 24th at 22 degrees 48 minutes with Mercury in Leo and Mars in Gemini.

For Aries, Mercury sextile Mars occurs in your sixth and fourth houses, and working on the foundation of your ideas and work can help you make progress, and you can channel your emotions to inspire you to take the initiative. You can also get more done when you feel supported, and this gives you a strong eye for the details.

For Taurus, Mercury sextile Mars occurs in your fifth and third houses, and your creativity can be super high. You can focus on creative projects and ideas, and can take a creative approach to whatever you do. You can keep busy and entertain multiple ideas and projects, and work through them quickly.

For Gemini, Mercury sextile Mars lights up your fourth and second houses, and you can focus on the ideas that you're most emotionally invested in, and slowly take action. You want to be confident in your choices first before moving, but you can stick with it once you get started and reach a steady pace.

For Cancer, Mercury sextile Mars targets you specifically since Mars is in your sign and the first house, and Mercury is in the third house. Mars in your sign gives you lots of energy, enthusiasm, and excitement, and Mercury in the third house increases your mental energy and gives lots of ideas. You can take action with them and are willing to take the initiative. This helps you work quickly. If you're a Cancer Sun, this can be strongest for you if you're born June 22nd - 28th.

For Leo, Mercury sextile Mars activates your second and twelfth houses, and you can take your time making decisions, coming up with new ideas, and working on your plans. You may do your best when you're on your own and not being bothered by anyone, and you can be more decisive and finalize your plans.

For Virgo, Mercury sextiles Mars targets you specifically since Mercury is in your sign and the first house, and Mars is in the eleventh house. Mercury is back in your sign after starting its retrograde in Virgo, and you're back to being more like yourself again, and can move quickly and focus on what ideas you want to get started with. You can take a different approach thanks to Mars in the eleventh house, and can be willing to push outside of your comfort zone and pursue your dreams. If you're a Virgo Sun, this can be strongest for you if you're born August 24th - 29th.

For Libra, Mercury sextile Mars occurs in your twelfth and tenth houses, and you may feel you do your best thinking on your own, and you can make great strides when you're alone to focus on projects and plans. You can hit your stride quickly, and you can reach new heights with something you've been puttering away at for some time.

For Scorpio, Mercury sextile Mars lights up your eleventh and ninth houses, and you can think outside of the box and come up with unconventional ideas and plans for change or for your future. Your energy can be strong as you feel bolder and more adventurous, and willing to take a chance on yourself.

For Sagittarius, Mercury sextile Mars activates your tenth and eighth houses, and your mind can be disciplined and focused on your long-term goals and plans. You can make use of your passionate energy to help you make progress, and you can take control of something that gives you more power and helps you transform something for the better.

For Capricorn, Mercury sextile Mars occurs in your ninth and seventh houses, and you can think big and bright and bold, and want to focus on the positives in life. This helps you seem more gregarious with others, and you can enjoy the time you get to spend sharing stories and imparting wisdom.

For Aquarius, Mercury sextile Mars lights up your eighth and sixth houses, and you can do research into something you need to know more about, become passionate about an idea, find solutions, and create plans for transformations. You can pay attention to the details, and put in the work to get it done.

For Pisces, Mercury sextile Mars activates your seventh and fifth houses, and you can enjoy bouncing ideas off of others, one-on-one conversation, and can be more romantic and want to be with those you love. You can open up lines of communication, and this can help you feel more connected.

Sun Square Jupiter:

On September 12th, the Sun in Virgo squares Jupiter in Gemini at 6:53AM ET/3:53AM PT, with both at 20 degrees 10 minutes. This is an aspect of laziness, and we may struggle with having the motivation and energy needed to take action with something. That makes it great for a break, a vacation, and getting away, but not so good if work has to be done and the mundane requires attention. We have to give ourselves extra time to get things done, and try to make it fun, otherwise focus is lacking.

For Aries, the Sun square Jupiter occurs in your sixth and third houses, and you may struggle with the details, and feel your mind wanders. You might be scattered and need to get a mental break, even if just for a little bit. Try to leave room in your schedule for rest and to let your mind wander.

For Taurus, the Sun square Jupiter lights up your fifth and second houses, and you may feel extra lazy and indulgent, and don't want to deal with anything demanding. You'd rather get time to goof off and chill out. If you have to get something done, try to make it fun and don't fixate on what's boring about it.

For Gemini, the Sun square Jupiter targets you directly since Jupiter is in your sign and first house, and the Sun is in the fourth house. Jupiter in your sign has made you more optimistic, open to possibilities, and focused on the big picture. The Sun in the fourth house wants more attention to emotions and the home and family. Try to open up possibilities at home, give yourself more space, and focus more on improving connections emotionally. If you're a Gemini Sun, this aspect is strongest if you're born June 8th - 13th.

For Cancer, the Sun square Jupiter activates your third and twelfth houses, and you may have a hard time with focus on any kind, and your mind needs a break. Your imagination might be strong though, so maybe spend time on creative projects and ventures that would benefit from it.

For Leo, the Sun square Jupiter occurs in your second and eleventh houses, and you may have changes you'd like to work on, but feel resistant to taking action with that. You'd rather leave things alone, but this can grow stale. Try to find some motivation, and once you get going, you can make progress.

For Virgo, the Sun square Jupiter targets you specifically since the Sun is in your sign and first house, and Jupiter is in the tenth house. The Sun in your sign has brought attention to you, your wants and needs, and what you want to get started. Jupiter in the tenth house focuses on your goals and responsibilities, which might weigh on you a little bit now. Try to give yourself some space, and focus on your long-term plans. If you're a Virgo Sun, this aspect is strongest if you're born September 10th - 15th.

For Libra, the Sun square Jupiter activates your twelfth and ninth houses, and you can struggle with having the energy you need, and may prefer to get some space to get some rest. If you can't do that, you may lash out and push people too much, so try to keep that under control, and find space in small ways.

For Scorpio, the Sun square Jupiter occurs in your eleventh and eighth houses, and there can be changes you want to make, but something serious might be getting in the way that requires you to go beyond the superficial. You need to get to the heart of it first and work on transforming, and that opens up positive changes.

For Sagittarius, the Sun square Jupiter lights up your tenth and seventh houses, and your goals and your relationships might be at odds, and you may want to give more attention to one over the other, but this creates problems. Try to find some balance between them, and assert that both are important to you.

For Capricorn, the Sun square Jupiter activates your ninth and sixth houses, and there can be work that needs to be done, yet you may crave more space and distance from it, and struggle with focus. Try to find space within the limitations you have, and work with the details to get things done quickly.

For Aquarius, the Sun square Jupiter occurs in your eighth and fifth houses, and something serious may require more attention from you, yet you may struggle with taking it seriously. You may not need to, so try to be creative about it instead. If you have to be serious, try channeling your heart to get to the core.

For Pisces, the Sun square Jupiter lights up your seventh and fourth houses, and the people in your life may crave more emotional support from you, and you can give it to them, but it might drain you. Try to make sure you're not giving too much and leaving nothing for yourself. Strengthen your support system so it goes both ways.

Venus Trine Jupiter:

On September 15th, Venus in Libra trines Jupiter in Gemini at 1:34AM ET/September 14th at 10:34PM PT, with both at 20 degrees 23 minutes. This is lucky energy, so it comes off of the lazy energy with the Sun square Jupiter, and the trine is a beneficial aspect with positive planets Venus and Jupiter playing nice with one another. We can feel good, we can make things happen without too much effort, and we can work well together.

For Aries, Venus trine Jupiter lights up your seventh and third houses, and this can help you with communication in your relationships, and improve your mental connections with others. You can be expressive, open, and honest, and you can make the most of your ideas and plans, and bounce them off of others for valuable input.

For Taurus, Venus trine Jupiter activates your sixth and second houses, and this can be great for getting work done that needs to be done, being productive and efficient, and making steady progress. This can lead to more opportunities for abundance, to access to new resources, and to improve stability and security in your life.

For Gemini, Venus trine Jupiter targets you directly since Jupiter is in your sign and the first house, opening you up to new possibilities, opportunities, and expansion. Venus is in the fifth house, increasing creativity, romance, and affection. You can feel great, you can get inspired, and you may get attention from others too, and enjoy it. If you're a Gemini Sun, this aspect is strongest if you're born June 8th - 13th.

For Cancer, Venus trine Jupiter occurs in your fourth and twelfth houses, and you can do good work on your own, behind the scenes, and when you're feeling good emotionally. You may want to work on something from the ground up, and can focus on making sure the foundation is secure. This can lead to bi heights in about six months.

For Leo, Venus trine Jupiter lights up your third and eleventh houses, and you can make the most of the ideas and plans you have right now to make progress with important changes or to pursue your dreams for the future. You can be willing to step outside of your comfort zone to find opportunities, and embrace the unconventional.

For Virgo, Venus trine Jupiter activates your second and tenth houses, and you can take a steady approach with your goals and plans, and this helps you make progress quickly. You don't need to rush, and just keep at it, and this can help you get further. You might see some rewards, or simply feel more secure and stable.

For Libra, Venus trine Jupiter targets you specifically since Venus is in your sign and first house, and this can make you more charming, pleasant, and agreeable, and you can focus on yourself. Jupiter in the ninth house brings lots of opportunities for expansion and new opportunities, and you can pursue what you want with a sense of adventure and optimism. If you're a Libra Sun, this aspect is strongest if you're born October 10th - 15th.

For Scorpio, Venus trine Jupiter occurs in your twelfth and eighth houses, and working on your own can help you find the solutions you need, empower yourself, and take control. You may want to dig deeper into something, and you can trust your intuition to guide you to what you need to find, and make any transformations required.

For Sagittarius, Venus trine Jupiter lights up your eleventh and seventh houses, and you can work with friends or a group to help you make progress with your dreams, and a partnership might prove to be a surprising benefit. You can get help with any changes you're working on, and can welcome new people into your life.

For Capricorn, Venus trine Jupiter activates your tenth and sixth houses, and you can stay disciplined and focused on your work, tasks, and projects, and this helps you get extra productive and tackle a lot of small stuff. You can take some control in your daily life as well, and get a good view of your direction.

For Aquarius, Venus trine Jupiter occurs in your ninth and fifth houses, and you can make use of big ideas to make progress with creative projects and ventures. You can get excited and feel inspired when you're being bold and daring, so open up your options and try to have fun with it to see where it takes you.

For Pisces, Venus trine Jupiter lights up your eighth and fourth houses, and using your passionate energy can help you work on starting something from the ground up, strengthening the foundation of something, or tackling matters at home or with family. You can feel empowered and emotionally optimistic.

Mercury Opposite Saturn:

On September 18th, Mercury in Virgo opposes Saturn in Pisces at 4:50AM ET/1:50AM PT, with both at 15 degrees 15 minutes.

Challenging aspects with Saturn can make us unproductive, so like with the Sun opposite Mercury, we may lack discipline and feel restricted. With Mercury, this can be mentally, and we may have a hard time focusing on what we need, feel our options are limited, have a hard time coming up with ideas, or struggle with gathering information we need. We need to go easy on ourselves, and try to work with what we've got for now.

For Aries, Mercury opposite Saturn lights up your sixth and twelfth houses, and you might be wanting to pay attention to the little things and get them out of the way, but something in the background needs your attention too and wants to steal your focus. Try to work on finishing something that will free you up to take care of the little things.

For Taurus, Mercury opposite Saturn occurs in your fifth and eleventh houses, and creativity can be high for you now, but you may need to work on focusing this on something you're trying to change for the better. You may not care to get much of anything mundane done, so bring that creative approach to it.

For Gemini, Mercury opposite Saturn activates your fourth and tenth houses, and you may want to give personal matters more attention, but goals and responsibilities might get in the way. Try working on improving the foundation of yourself, and make sure you've balancing focusing on internal and external needs.

For Cancer, Mercury opposite Saturn lights up your third and ninth houses, and you may have difficulty balancing the big and little pictures, and want to give more attention to the smaller projects and ideas you have, but making sure you have a solid view of the big picture is important too, so work on that.

For Leo, Mercury opposite Saturn occurs in your second and eighth houses, and you may not feel like budging much, but there is something requiring you to dig deeper or transform. Try to find a way to motivate yourself to take some steps and get focused, and as you go along, your focus can improve.

For Virgo, Mercury opposite Saturn targets you directly since Mercury is in your sign and first house, increasing your mental energy and wanting you to take action with your ideas. Saturn in the seventh house brings more attention to the people in your life, and this may take away your focus on what you want for yourself. Some degree of balance has to be struck so neither get neglected. If you're a Virgo Sun, this can be strongest for you if you're born September 4th - 10th.

For Libra, Mercury opposite Saturn activates your twelfth and sixth houses, and you may want to give your mind a break, but there can be too much for you to do to get that break. Try tweaking your plans and schedule to give yourself the time to rest and let your mind recharge, especially after the trying month of August.

For Scorpio, Mercury opposite Saturn lights up your eleventh and fifth houses, and you might be thinking way outside of the box right now, but there can be something you need to drill down on creatively. Try to take the wild ideas and put them to practical use with a creative project or venture.

For Sagittarius, Mercury opposite Saturn occurs in your tenth and fourth houses, and there can be a goal or project you're focused on, but matters at home, with family, or personally may require more attention. Try to avoid putting your goals on the back burner to tend to the issues though, and take small steps to accommodate both.

For Capricorn, Mercury opposite Saturn activates your ninth and third houses, and you can think big and bright, but you may need to wind this down and get more focused on the specifics. Try to break down your big ideas and big plans into smaller, bite-sized chunks. This can help keep you from getting lost in the clouds.

For Aquarius, Mercury opposite Saturn lights up your eighth and second houses, and you can be passionate and intense about your ideas and plans, but you may need to work on grounding yourself and taking a practical, steady approach. You can still research, solve, and transform, but you may need to do so in a more methodical way.

For Pisces, Mercury opposite Saturn targets you specifically since Saturn is in your sign and first house, and has brought more attention to what you need to work on for yourself and your life. Mercury in the seventh house has made the people in your life more important, and you may need to find a way to give attention to both yourself and others without sacrificing one for the other. If you're a Pisces Sun, this aspect can be strongest for you if you're born March 3rd - 7th.

Sun Trine Uranus:

On September 19th, the Sun in Virgo trines Uranus in Taurus at 10:04AM ET/7:04AM PT, with both at 27 degrees 7 minutes. This is lovely energy for independence, individuality, and embracing the unconventional. We can feel comfortable with pushing outside of our comfort zones, with focusing on the future, and with making changes. This can come easily as trines are the easiest of aspects, and we can move forward toward the future we hope for.

For Aries, the Sun trine Uranus activates your sixth and second houses, and you can focus on making changes in small ways, in your daily life, with your routine or schedule, and that improve productivity and organization. You can feel comfortable with small changes, and see how they can give you more control in your daily life.

For Taurus, the Sun trines Uranus targets you specifically with Uranus in your sign and first house, and this has been the case for some time, triggering many changes with yourself and your life. The Sun is in the fifth house, and you can bring creativity to changes you make, have sudden inspiration, and want to pursue the dreams you love. If you're a Taurus Sun, this aspect is strongest for you if you're born May 15th or later.

For Gemini, the Sun trine Uranus occurs in your fourth and twelfth houses, and you can feel comfortable making changes on your own that help strengthen you internally, or that make you feel more emotionally optimistic. You can focus on home and family matters that you can improve, and you can quietly work on beneficial changes.

For Cancer, the Sun trine Uranus lights up your third and eleventh houses, and you can focus on the ideas and plans you have that will help you make big changes in your life, and can take action with opportunities quickly. You can feel connected to your dreams, and this helps you come up with more ideas.

For Leo, the Sun trine Uranus activates your second and tenth houses, and you can take your time with taking action, but can stick with it once you do, and this can help you make unexpected progress with one of your goals. You may hit your stride in some way, and you can feel confident in your abilities.

For Virgo, the Sun trine Uranus targets you directly with the Sun in your sign and first house, shining a light on what you want to get started now. Uranus in the ninth house helps you think big with your future, your hopes and dreams, and you can pursue unexpected opportunities. You can feel anything is possible for you now. If you're a Virgo Sun, this aspect is strongest for you if you're born September 17th or later.

For Libra, the Sun trine Uranus, occurs in your twelfth and eighth houses, and you can feel comfortable on your own or getting things finished, and this can help you get rid of something holding you back, find a solution to a problem, or transform something for the better. This can be sudden or unexpected, but welcome.

For Scorpio, the Sun trine Uranus lights up your eleventh and seventh houses, and you can be open to the unconventional and willing to experiment, and this can open you up to new people, to entering into new alliances, or to making new commitments. You can commit to your dreams and future.

For Sagittarius, the Sun trine Uranus activates your tenth and sixth houses, and you can work in a disciplined way to get projects done or make progress with work, and this might lead to sudden progress or attention from others. You can make changes in your work or daily life that lead to more responsibilities, but you can handle it.

For Capricorn, the Sun trine Uranus occurs in your ninth and fifth houses, and you can be open to adventure and willing to go big and bold, and this can help you work on creative projects, get attention for something you've done, or connect with your heart. Bring more joy to your world and try to have a good time.

For Aquarius, the Sun trine Uranus lights up your eighth and fourth houses, and you can be more passionate about whatever you're working on, and this can help you connect with it emotionally. You might make a change to the foundation of a project or plan, and this can lead to more control and empowerment.

For Pisces, the Sun trine Uranus activates your seventh and third houses, and you can work well with others, enjoy alliances and having company, and can be more engaging with others. You can connect mentally, and the more you're with others, the more you come up with ideas and plans, and think outside of the box.

Sun Opposite Neptune:

On September 20th, the Sun in Virgo opposes Neptune in Pisces at 8:17PM ET/5:17PM PT, with both at 28 degrees 30 minutes. This aspect can bring challenges with being realistic, seeing things clearly, and we can be easily drained and lack the energy we need for action. This is a good time for getting lost in imagination, getting extra rest, and taking it easy. This can be a difficult time for maintaining boundaries, and we may need to work on strengthening that.

For Aries, the Sun opposite Neptune occurs in your sixth and twelfth houses, and you may have little things you need to tend to and get done, but you may struggle with having the focus you need, or with keeping at it. Try working in spurts instead of one long session, and make sure to give yourself time to recharge afterward.

For Taurus, the Sun opposite Neptune lights up your fifth and eleventh houses, and you may want to focus on personal matters of the heart and get creative, but there can be something external that requires you to step outside of your comfort zone, yet you may be uncertain how to best do that. Think creatively and the right way can come to you.

For Gemini, the Sun opposite Neptune activates your fourth and tenth houses, and you may need to tend to home and family matters or take care of emotional needs, but this might mean ignoring your goals and letting progress fall by the wayside. Try to work on your schedule and plans so you don't get thrown off track.

For Cancer, the Sun opposite Neptune occurs in your third and ninth houses, and you can focus on your ideas and short-term plans, but you may feel you need to ignore the big picture or keep yourself from thinking too big. Try to maintain a hold on the big picture to stay objective, and channel mental energy into big plans.

For Leo, the Sun opposite Neptune lights up your second and eighth houses, and you may want to work on something slowly, in a steady way, or that improves stability and security, but there might be something serious that requires your attention and stirs up passionate energy subconsciously. Try to channel the passionate energy in a productive way.

For Virgo, the Sun opposite Neptune targets you specifically since the Sun is in your sign and first house, and this brings attention to you and what you want to focus on starting right now. Neptune is in the seventh house, and this can mean you need to give more help to others, so balance is required here. If you're a Virgo Sun, this is strongest for you if you're born September 18th or later.

For Libra, the Sun opposite Neptune activates your twelfth and sixth houses, and you may want to get some time alone to rest and replenish your energy levels, but there might be small tasks, chores, and projects that require you to get moving. Try to prioritize only what absolutely must get done, and then give yourself a break.

For Scorpio, the Sun opposite Neptune occurs in your eleventh and fifth houses, and you may want to focus on changes you're working on and push yourself to do things differently, but there can be something personal that you need to tend to and take care of first. Try to make sure your heart is supported, and then work on big changes.

For Sagittarius, the Sun opposite Neptune lights up your tenth and fourth houses, and you may want to dedicate more time to your goals and work on making progress with something important to you, but there can be issues at home or with family or emotionally that need to be worked on. Tend to that, and you can be more focused when you're back to your goals.

For Capricorn, the Sun opposite Neptune activates your ninth and third houses, and you may want to open up your life to big ideas, big plans, new experiences, and grand adventures, but there can be issues with the little picture that need your attention. Try to work on ideas and act on short-term plans quickly to help you make progress.

For Aquarius, the Sun opposite Neptune occurs in your eighth and second houses, and you may be extra passionate and want to channel this into something that requires a serious approach, but there can also be the strong need for stability and security. Work on blocks to stability and security, and this can increase your passion.

For Pisces, the Sun opposite Neptune targets you directly since Neptune is in your sign and first house, increasing your natural Pisces energy and making you more intuitive, imaginative, charismatic, and compassionate. The Sun is in the seventh house, bringing more attention to others, so you may have to work on balancing focus on yourself with focus on others who need your help. If you're a Pisces Sun, this is strongest for you if you're born March 16th or later.

Mercury Square Jupiter:

On September 21st, Mercury in Virgo squares Jupiter in Gemini at 4:50AM ET/1:50AM PT, with both at 20 degrees 48 minutes. Mercury rules the mind while Jupiter is the feel-good planet, so this hard aspect can keep our focus gone and we'd rather goof off, have a good time, or focus on something fun. This can be great for creative projects, or anything that requires us to think big, but we may struggle with details and anything mundane.

For Aries, Mercury square Jupiter activates your sixth and third houses, and you may try to get work done, but lack the patience and focus to get anywhere for long. Try to work in brief stints, and go quickly so you don't stay on anything for long. Your mind might be coming up with too many ideas, so try keeping track of them.

For Taurus, Mercury square Jupiter occurs in your fifth and second houses, and you can feel extra creative, but may lack the motivation to get much of anything done. Give yourself extra time to do anything as you may need more time to get going and work up momentum. Once you do get going, you can land where you want.

For Gemini, Mercury square Jupiter, targets you directly since Jupiter is in your sign and first house, helping you focus on new beginnings, expand your life, and have new experiences. Mercury is in your fourth house, and this can help you merge your heart and mind, and putting the two together, this energy can be helpful for working on the foundation of something or starting from the bottom. Have patience as it might go slowly at first. If you're a Gemini Sun, this aspect is strongest for you if you're born June 8th - 13th.

For Cancer, Mercury square Jupiter lights up your third and twelfth houses, and you can have an active mind but may need to give yourself enough rest in order to have the energy you need for action. You may prefer working on your ideas alone right now, and you can benefit from gathering what you need and making preparations.

For Leo, Mercury square Jupiter activates your second and eleventh houses, and you may want to give your mind time to make decisions or finalize plans, but there can be a change that you need to give more attention to and requires you to act with haste. Try to stay in control, and don't let yourself get pushed too far too fast if you're not comfortable.

For Virgo, Mercury square Jupiter targets you specifically with Mercury in your sign and first house, increasing your mental energy and giving you lots of ideas to take action with. Jupiter is in the tenth house, and you're in a period where you can make progress with goals you work on correctly. Try to focus the mental energy you have on your goals, and work on your long-term plans. If you're a Virgo Sun, this aspect is strongest for you if you're born September 10th - 15th.

For Libra, Mercury square Jupiter occurs in your twelfth and ninth houses, and you may do your best thinking alone, but big ideas may demand you take some action. You may need more time to do that, to finish something, release something, or clear something out. Once free, you can have more courage for action.

For Scorpio, Mercury square Jupiter lights up your eleventh and eighth houses, and you can think outside the box, but may struggle with anything requiring intense focus. Try using your unconventional ideas and approaches to work on a transformation or to do research into something you need to know more about.

For Sagittarius, Mercury square Jupiter activates your tenth and seventh houses, and you may have focus for your long-term plans and goals, but need to give attention to someone in your life, a partnership or arrangement, or commitment. Try to give time to both, and have patience if you can't make as much progress now as you'd like.

For Capricorn, Mercury square Jupiter occurs in your ninth and sixth houses, and you can think big but may need to bring this down a little into the real world. Something mundane may require more attention, and you can do well with it, but may need to work on expanding your options in some way.

For Aquarius, Mercury square Jupiter lights up your eighth and fifth houses, and your focus can be intense and passionate, and this can be channeled into a creative project or venture. This helps you keep your mind occupied, while also giving you time to have fun and connect with your heart.

For Pisces, Mercury square Jupiter activates your seventh and fourth houses, and you can focus on your connections with others. You may need to give more emotional support, and need to make sure you're not going overboard with it. Conversely, you may need to lean on your own support system, and get some advice.

Sun Trine Pluto:

September 22nd has two aspects, the first being the Sun in Virgo trine Pluto in Capricorn at 2:12AM ET/September 21st at 11:12PM PT, with both anaretic at 29 degrees 44 minutes. This is a beneficial aspect, so the two are working well together, and this helps us to do research and investigation, to find solutions to problems, to take things seriously, to transform, to empower, and to take control. We may feel super motivated with this since the Sun is exiting Virgo about 6 ½ hours later, so we can push to do whatever we need to quickly.

For Aries, the Sun trine Pluto occurs in your sixth and tenth houses, and you can focus on any work you need to get done to make progress with one of your goals. You can pay close attention to what needs to be done, and can be quite detailed with your plans. This helps you feel more in control of what you're trying to achieve.

For Taurus, the Sun trine Pluto lights up your fifth and ninth houses, and you can feel extra creative and inspired, and this can push you to go after a big idea, a big opportunity, and something that requires taking a chance on yourself. You can be willing to go forward, and can be optimistic and hopeful about it.

For Gemini, the Sun trine Pluto activates your fourth and eighth houses, and you can feel your inner foundation is strong, and this helps to empower you. You can take control of something that helps you start from the bottom with a goal or project, and you can feel more emotionally connected and invested.

For Cancer, the Sun trine Pluto occurs in your third and seventh houses, and you can focus on communication, conversation, and this can be a great time to have a chat, get or give advice, and to share opinions with others. You can be a good listener too, and information can come your way, or you may get some good news.

For Leo, the Sun trine Pluto lights up your second and sixth houses, and you can take some time to get started with anything you need to get done, but stick with it once you do. This can help you tackle a lot of small projects, tasks, and chores, and you can pay close attention to anything you work on.

For Virgo, the Sun trine Pluto targets you specifically since the Sun is in your sign and first house, bringing more attention to you and what you want. Pluto is in the fifth house, making you more passionate about who and what you love. This is a great aspect for creative projects and ventures, for spending time with loved ones, and for connecting to your heart. If you're a Virgo Sun, this can be strongest for you if you're born September 20th or later.

For Libra, the Sun trine Pluto activates your twelfth and fourth houses, and you can work well on your own and feel more comfortable when you're not getting much attention for the moment, and this can be an opportunity for you to strengthen yourself internally, to improve home and family matters, and to work on the foundation of something.

For Scorpio, the Sun trine Pluto occurs in your eleventh and third houses, and you can be open to doing things differently, and this approach can be applied to your ideas and plans. You can take control of an idea and the actions you take with it, especially if it relates to your dreams or to changes and you may do so in an unconventional way.

For Sagittarius, the Sun trine Pluto lights up your tenth and second houses, and you can be disciplined and focused with anything you do now, and you can dedicate yourself to any work and projects. This helps you get some control over areas that may have been out of control over the last decade, and you can empower yourself.

For Capricorn, the Sun trine Pluto targets you directly as Pluto is in your sign and first house, a transit that lasted many years and brought many transformations in your life. The Sun is in the ninth house, helping open you up to new experiences and expansion. This is a great aspect for pursuing big ideas, and you can be bold and brave. If you're a Capricorn Sun, this can be strongest for you if you're born January 17th or later.

For Aquarius, the Sun trine Pluto activates your eighth and twelfth houses, and you can focus on transformations for the better that empower you and solve problems, and you may work on this on your own. This helps you to prepare for Pluto moving back to your sign soon, and you can be more confident.

For Pisces, the Sun trine Pluto occurs in your seventh and eleventh houses, and you can work well with others, and may reach out to friends or your social circle for guidance. You can be open to new people as well, and may welcome a new partner or friend to your life. You can also be committed to your dreams for the future.

Venus Square Pluto:

The second aspect for September 22nd is Venus in Libra square Pluto in Capricorn at 5:15PM ET/2:15PM PT, with both anaretic at 29 degrees 43 minutes. The Sun trine Pluto is beneficial while Venus square Pluto brings some challenges. Both are supercharged though as they are anaretic. With Venus square Pluto, there might be struggles over power and control with others, and it can be difficult to compromise or to see other sides to situations, even though this is very important to navigate the issues that come up. Try to keep an open mind with others, and channel passionate energy productively.

For Aries, Venus square Pluto lights up your seventh and tenth houses, and Venus wants attention drawn to others while Pluto wants you to focus on your goals, and this might not align. Try to find some balance, and give attention to the connections that need it right now, and to the goals that need it right now.

For Taurus, Venus square Pluto occurs in your sixth and ninth houses, and you can enjoy focusing on the work you need to get done and actually being productive, but there can be something that needs to be transformed for the better to help open up options for you first. This might get in the way of getting things done, so try working on that.

For Gemini, Venus square Pluto activates your fifth and eighth houses, and you may feel extra creative and want to enjoy yourself, yet there can be something that is serious and requires your intense focus. This can be frustrating, but getting to the heart of it quickly can provide a solution. You may want to approach this creatively.

For Cancer, Venus square Pluto lights up your fourth and seventh houses, and you may need more emotional support and to strengthen your support system right now. You can become aware of the emotional vampires in your life, and there can be an opportunity for you to get more distance or find a way of managing that doesn't drain you so much.

For Leo, Venus square Pluto occurs in your third and sixth houses, and your mind can be super active, and this might lead to some overthinking and stressing yourself out. Try to focus on getting organized with your thoughts and ideas, and this can give you some power and control over the little things.

For Virgo, Venus square Pluto activates your second and fifth houses, and you may not want to rush into anything now, and can feel quite lazy and indulgent. If you can get a break, this is a good time for it, and you can relax. But if you can't get a break, focus may be super challenging. Try to make it fun, and give yourself time to get going.

For Libra, Venus square Pluto targets you directly as Venus is in your sign and first house, bringing more attention to yourself and what you want. Pluto in the fourth house might make your emotional needs stronger, and you may need to be more supportive of both others and yourself. Emotions can run high, so try to take care of yourself. If you're a Libra Sun, this aspect can be strongest for you if you're born October 19th or later.

For Scorpio, Venus square Pluto lights up your twelfth and third houses, and you can work well on your own, and you may need more time for rest. Your active mind might have other ideas though, and you need to keep your mind occupied, otherwise you can get anxious. Try using your imagination, or focusing on spiritual matters.

For Sagittarius, Venus square Pluto occurs in your eleventh and second houses, and you can focus on something you need to change in your life, and can be willing to push through to make it happen, but there is likely a block that has to be moved. Take the motivation you feel to make the change and use that to inspire you to find a way forward or around.

For Capricorn, Venus square Pluto targets you specifically with Pluto in your sign and first house, and this has brought lots of transformation, power, and control for you over the years. Venus in the tenth house focuses on your goals and makes you more ambitious. You may have extra responsibilities to deal with, and this can be overwhelming at times if you don't give yourself a break. Options can also feel limited if you don't explore creatively. If you're a Capricorn Sun, this aspect can be strongest for you if you're born January 17th or later.

For Aquarius, Venus square Pluto activates your ninth and twelfth houses, and there can be something you want to explore, new experiences you want to have, and you can be more optimistic and adventurous, but you may also need to work on releasing or finishing something first to make room for the new possibilities.

For Pisces, Venus square Pluto lights up your eighth and eleventh houses, and you can dig deep into something right now that helps you get more power and control, and this may require intense focus. Yet you may want to jump from one thing to the next at times, and need to get this under control so you can truly make the change you seek.

Mercury Trine Uranus:

On September 24th, Mercury in Virgo is trine Uranus in Taurus at 1:27PM ET/10:27AM PT, with both at 27 degrees 2 minutes. This aspect is great for thinking outside of the box as Mercury is the mind and Uranus is the unconventional, and trines are beneficial aspects. We can focus on plans and ideas for change or for the future, and we can be open to approaches that are different, experimental, or that we've never tried before. This can help us make progress in unexpected ways.

For Aries, Mercury trine Uranus occurs in your sixth and second houses, and you can drill down on the details of what you want to get done, and this can help you improve stability and security in your life in unexpected ways. You can make progress with your list of things to do, and can feel more confident as you get them done.

For Taurus, Mercury trine Uranus targets you specifically with Uranus in your sign and first house, and this has brought lots of changes to your life in recent years. Mercury in the fifth house increases creativity, so you may focus this energy on taking a new approach with creative ideas, or using creativity for your plans for change or for the future. If you're a Taurus Sun, this can be strongest for you if you're born May 15th or later.

For Gemini, Mercury trine Uranus lights up your fourth and twelfth houses, and you can express what you're feeling more easily, but may want to keep to yourself for now. This helps you focus on your own emotional needs, and you can make any changes you need to without interference.

For Cancer, Mercury trine Uranus activates your third and eleventh houses, and you can have an active mind right now, and come up with plenty of ideas, and you can focus those ideas on changes you want to make, on your future, or they can be unconventional ideas. You can be enthusiastic about them and willing to experiment.

For Leo, Mercury trine Uranus occurs in your second and tenth houses, and you can take your time with decisions and ideas, but stick with them once you do, and this can help you make progress with your goals. You can dedicate your mind to your goals and long-term plans, and can be practical in applying changes and unconventional ideas.

For Virgo, Mercury trine Uranus targets you directly as Mercury is in your sign and first house, and you can have an active mind, come up with new ideas, and be more engaging. Uranus is in the ninth house, opening you up to big ideas and new experiences. This is a great time to push yourself to pursue a big idea, and you can be enthusiastic and energized about it. If you're a Virgo Sun, this can be strongest for you if you're born September 17th or later.

For Libra, Mercury trine Uranus lights up your twelfth and eighth houses, and you can come up with ideas on your own and do your best thinking without others getting in the way, and you can use this to work on a big transformation. This can help empower you and give you control, and you can make it stick for a long time.

For Scorpio, Mercury trine Uranus activates your eleventh and seventh houses, and you can bounce ideas off of friends or groups to get feedback, and can appreciate the people you have in your life for this. You may focus on making changes in a relationship, partnership, or friendship, and this can be for the best.

For Sagittarius, Mercury trine Uranus occurs in your tenth and sixth houses, and your mind can be disciplined and focused on your long-term plans and goals, and you can make changes in your daily life that help you make more progress. This can be a great time for achievement in some way.

For Capricorn, Mercury trine Uranus lights up your ninth and fifth houses, and you can come up with big ideas and big plans, and can be optimistic with your outlook. This can lead to inspiration and renewed creativity, and you can work on creative projects and ventures, and open up to new possibilities.

For Aquarius, Mercury trine Uranus activates your eighth and fourth houses, and your mind can be passionate and outlook serious with anything you approach, and this can help you research and find solutions. You can make changes with the foundation of something to empower yourself, and take care of emotional needs to strengthen yourself.

For Pisces, Mercury trine Uranus occurs in your seventh and third houses, and you can be more open, engaging, and want to share what's on your mind. You may have a lot to say, think unconventionally, and want to bounce ideas off of those in your life. You can also improve your listening ability in new ways.

Mercury Opposite Neptune:

On September 25th, Mercury in Virgo is opposite Neptune in Pisces at 7:07AM ET/4:07AM PT, with both at 28 degrees 23 minutes. With Mercury ruling the mind and Neptune being the foggy planet, this aspect likely makes us struggle with seeing things clearly. We're likely missing the details, and something is being unseen that might be right in front of us. It's important to ground ourselves to reality as much as we can, and try to use our intuition to help us navigate the uncertainty.

For Aries, Mercury opposite Neptune activates your sixth and twelfth houses, and focusing on the details can be especially difficult for you under this energy. Your imagination can take off, and it can be difficult to tether it or use it productively. If you can give your mind a break, you might need to do that.

For Taurus, Mercury opposite Neptune lights up your fifth and eleventh houses, and your creativity may soar, but you may have a hard time being objective about it and end up getting stuck not doing much with it at all. Giving yourself time off from the mundane and major changes might be helpful.

For Gemini, Mercury opposite Neptune occurs in your fourth and tenth houses, and your emotions might be clouding your focus, and getting in the way with making tangible progress with your goals or any home or family matters. Something might be weighing on you emotionally that's fogging up your path, so try to work on the core issue.

For Cancer, Mercury opposite Neptune activates your third and ninth houses, and your mental energy can be strong but scattered. Big ideas might fly off without much focus, and smaller projects and plans might feel like too much work. There might be something mentally that you're wrapped up in and need to detach from.

For Leo, Mercury opposite Neptune lights up your second and eighth houses, and your mind might be progressing slowly, and this keeps you from being able to uncover the issues at the core that might be causing the fog for you. Try grounding your mind and see if that helps.

For Virgo, Mercury opposite Neptune targets you directly with Mercury in your sign and first house, and Neptune in the seventh house. Mercury in your sign increases your mental energy and makes you more open with what's on your mind, so Neptune might be stealing your focus and directing it to others instead. Balance has likely been missing, and that has to be addressed. If you're a Virgo Sun, this can be strongest for you if you're born September 18th or later.

For Libra, Mercury opposite Neptune occurs in your twelfth and sixth houses, and your mental energy might be pretty low, and this makes it difficult for you to focus on any work, projects, tasks, or chores you need to deal with, and your focus can be lacking. Try taking care of yourself for now and giving yourself some rest.

For Scorpio, Mercury opposite Neptune activates your eleventh and fifth houses, and the unconventional ideas you have for now might struggle to get off of the ground as you may have a hard time finding creative ways to utilize them. Bouncing these ideas off of friends and acquaintances might help you see things differently.

For Sagittarius, Mercury opposite Neptune lights up your tenth and fourth houses, and you may want to make progress with one of your goals and have a disciplined mind, but personal matters, emotional issues, or home and family developments might be in the way. Give yourself time and strengthen the foundation of what you're working on.

For Capricorn, Mercury opposite Neptune occurs in your ninth and third houses, and there can be big ideas you'd like to work on, but uncertainty with the little picture and details and plans might get in the way. Try to find a different way of viewing things, and this might clear some of the fog.

For Aquarius, Mercury opposite Neptune activates your eighth and second houses, and you can be passionate about an idea or plan, but may feel stuck and aren't sure why or what's causing it. Try grounding your mind and all of that passionate energy to help you get a better handle on it.

For Pisces, Mercury opposite Neptune targets you specifically with Neptune in your sign and first house, and Mercury in the seventh house. Neptune in your sign has been the case for a while, and you're more compassionate, charismatic, creative, and intuitive. Mercury in the seventh house brings more communications with others, and this aspect might mean you're focusing more on others and less on yourself. You may want to be of help, but this might only be to avoid something, so make sure you're not doing that. If you're a Pisces Sun, this can be strongest for you if you're born March 15th or later.

Mercury Trine Pluto:

On September 26th, Mercury in Virgo is trine Pluto in Capricorn at 12:14AM ET/September 25th at 9:14PM PT, with both anaretic at 29 degrees 42 minutes. Since this aspect is anaretic, it's supercharged, and we can be extra focused on what we need to know more about, are super researching and want to solve problems, and can be extra passionate about our ideas, plans, and communications. Thankfully the trine is a beneficial, easy aspect, so we do have some control over this and it's not too much to deal with.

Mercury leaves Virgo and enters Libra less than 4 hours after this aspect, so we may feel a strong urge to get things done quickly before Mercury moves on.

For Aries, Mercury trine Pluto lights up your sixth and tenth houses, and you can tend to the details of the goals you're working to achieve, and you can be passionate about these goals now, and want to make quick strides. You can pay closer attention, and this helps you figure out the best next moves.

For Taurus, Mercury trine Pluto activates your fifth and ninth houses, and your creativity can be strong, and this can be put to good use to do something with the big ideas you're feeling extra passionate about. Your positive attitude can be of big help with anything in your life, and opens up more possibilities for you.

For Gemini, Mercury trine Pluto occurs in your fourth and eighth houses, and you can focus on the foundation of your ideas and plans, working from the ground up, and this helps you make strides with an important transformation. This can lead you to be more empowered and to take more control of the situation.

For Cancer, Mercury trine Pluto lights up your third and seventh houses, and your mental energy can be super strong, and you can act quickly with the ideas you have. You can bounce your ideas off of others, and they can provide helpful advice or information. This can be a good time for some good news too.

For Leo, Mercury trine Pluto activates your second and sixth houses, and your mind can be focused on whatever projects you're most interested in right now, and you can make some slow but steady progress to get things done. By staying focused and steady, you can find details that you need.

For Virgo, Mercury trine Pluto targets you directly since Mercury is in your sign and first house, and Pluto in the fifth house. Mercury in your sign makes you more open with what's on your mind, more expressive, and full of ideas, and Pluto in the fifth house increases your creativity and passion for it. This is a great time to utilize your ideas and plans for creative projects and ventures. If you're a Virgo Sun, this aspect can be strongest for you if you're born September 19th or later.

For Libra, Mercury trine Pluto occurs in your twelfth and fourth houses, and you can do your best thinking on your own, and may want to take time alone to finalize plans or finish something you started. This might be something at home or with family, or it might involve the foundation of something, and you can make sure it's secure.

For Scorpio, Mercury trine Pluto lights up your eleventh and third houses, and you can come up with unconventional ideas, and use this to make strides with your plans. You can be more passionate about the ideas you have, and can use them to pursue your dreams and work for change.

For Sagittarius, Mercury trine Pluto activates your tenth and second houses, and your mind and focus can be disciplined, and you can use this to improve stability and security in your life. You can come up with practical ways to get more control, or to transform something that sets you up for some time to come.

For Capricorn, Mercury trine Pluto targets you directly since Pluto is in your sign and first house, and Venus is in the ninth house. Pluto has been in your sign for a while, and it's nearing the end of its time in Capricorn, so you've already created a lot of transformations in your life, and taken control and empowered yourself. Mercury in the ninth house helps you think bigger, get optimistic about where you're going next, and focus on new possibilities. If you're a Capricorn Sun, this aspect can be strongest for you if you're born January 17th or later.

For Aquarius, Mercury trine Pluto occurs in your eighth and twelfth houses, and you can be passionate about your ideas and better able to investigate what you're interested in to find solutions, and this helps you to close the books on something, clear something, or get something done, freeing you up.

For Pisces, Mercury trine Pluto occurs in your seventh and eleventh houses, and working with others might help you make the changes you're searching for, and you can benefit from the connections you've made. Bounce ideas off of them, hit them up for information and advice, and see the benefits.

Mars Trine Saturn:

There are 2 aspects on September 30th, and the first is Mars in Cancer trine Saturn in Pisces at 12:06AM ET/September 29th at 9:06PM PT, with both at 14 degrees 24 minutes. Mars is energy and drive while Saturn is goals and discipline, so this aspect is fantastic for disciplined energy and enthusiasm for goals. We're ambitious and driven, can get work done, and can make things happen. We can focus on making progress, and we can take the initiative.

For Aries, Mars trine Saturn occurs in your fourth and twelfth houses, and you can work on a goal or project on your own, and make strides quietly and without interference. You may strengthen the foundation of something, or work on something from the ground up and feel you make great strides with it.

For Taurus, Mars trine Saturn lights up your third and eleventh houses, and your mental energy can be high, and you can use the ideas you have and plans you come up with to make strides with the changes you want to make or with your dreams for the future. You can come up with ways to make a dream reality, and feel good about it.

For Gemini, Mars trine Saturn activates your second and tenth houses, and you can take a steady and practical approach to whatever you do, and this can help you make progress with a goal. You can be confident in your actions and choices, and can keep things going when you reach the top instead of flaming out.

For Cancer, Mars trine Saturn targets you directly since Mars is in your sign and first house, and this increases your energy, drive, and enthusiasm. Saturn is in the ninth house, and you can use this energy and drive to pursue new opportunities, new experiences, and learn from what you embark on. If you're a Cancer Sun, this aspect can be strongest for you if you're born June 3rd - 8th.

For Leo, Mars trine Saturn occurs in your twelfth and eighth houses, and you may feel you have better energy when you're on your own and not getting much attention. You can use that time to work on a transformation for the better, or to solve a problem that's been vexing you for some time.

For Virgo, Mars trine Saturn lights up your eleventh and seventh houses, and you can be more open with your friends and those you're closest to, and you may do your best work with a helpful partner. This can be a time to experiment with improving connections, or with restoring better balance in your life.

For Libra, Mars trine Saturn activates your tenth and sixth houses, and you can feel extra ambitious and driven to succeed with your goals, and you can use this to get projects done. You can have a keen eye for the details now, and this can be used in your long-term plans to make your goals reality.

For Scorpio, Mars trine Saturn occurs in your ninth and fifth houses, and you can think big and have a good connection with the big picture, and this can help you work on creative projects and ventures. Your optimism can open up new possibilities for you, and you can focus on what will bring more joy into your life.

For Sagittarius, Mars trines Saturn lights up your eighth and fourth houses, and you can be passionate and intense with whatever you focus on, and this can help you work on something from the ground up, or strengthen the foundation of something in your life. You can feel in control emotionally and stable.

For Capricorn, Mars trines Saturn activates your seventh and third houses, and you may work well with others, and you can make tweaks to your ideas and plans with insights from those you trust most. You can be extra charming and compromising, and can find the right way to communicate and express yourself with others.

For Aquarius, Mars trine Saturn occurs in your sixth and second houses, and you can pay close attention to the details and feel extra productive and efficient with your time and energy, and this can help you create more stability and security. You can feel more confident, and can work on connecting with the moment.

For Pisces, Mars trine Saturn targets you directly since Saturn is in your sign and first house, and this has made you more disciplined, take on more responsibilities, and you've been setting yourself up for the next phase in your life. Mars in the fifth house amplifies your creativity, and you can be disciplined with creative projects and ventures, and want to enjoy what you're working on. If you're a Pisces Sun, this aspect can be strongest for you if you're born March 2nd - 6th.

Mercury Conjunct the Sun:

The second aspect for September 30th occurs at 5:09PM ET/2:09PM PT with Mercury conjunct the Sun at 8 degrees 11 minutes Libra. This is called the Superior Conjunction, and it's when the Sun and Mercury conjunct after Mercury is no longer retrograde. They conjunct while Mercury is retrograde, and this is the Inferior Conjunction. The Inferior Conjunction is seen as a positive time during Mercury retrograde for getting something started. Mercury was conjunct the Sun on August 18th at 26 degrees 35 minutes Leo,

With the Superior Conjunction, this is where what we began comes to a conclusion, comes to fruition, and we can experience progress. We're ready for the next phase and moving forward at a faster pace now that Mercury is no longer retrograde.

For Aries, the Sun conjunct Mercury activates your seventh house, and you can see developments with the help of others, and people in your life may bring success or progress to you. The Inferior Conjunction might've been the start of a creative venture, and the Superior Conjunction helps you build on that creativity. The two also might've brought more attention to your loved ones, and a relationship may prove important now.

For Taurus, the Sun conjunct Mercury occurs in your sixth house, this can bring developments with projects, and you can get a lot done thanks to a productive and detailed approach. The Inferior Conjunction may have focused on home and family matters or got you started with something from the ground up, and the Superior Conjunction helps can bring small wins.

For Gemini, the Sun conjunct Mercury lights up your fifth house, and this increases creativity and you may get some attention for what you've done. The inferior Conjunction might've triggered the pursuit of ideas and plans, and you've kept busy ever since. You can now use creativity to help you move forward, and this can inspire you in new ways.

For Cancer, the Sun conjunct Mercury activates your fourth house, and you can feel like you've created a strong foundation for something, or can see developments with home and family matters. The Inferior Conjunction might have prompted you to get grounded and work slowly, and this can lead you to feel more in control emotionally, and more secure.

For Leo, the Sun conjunct Mercury occurs in your third house, and this is focused on your ideas and plans. You can make quick work of what you focus on now, and you can come up with ways to make great progress. The Inferior Conjunction was in your sign, so it likely triggered you taking a second chance with something, and your ideas can help you make the most of this.

For Virgo, the Sun conjunct Mercury lights up your second house, and you can feel steady and like you're on the right track. The Inferior Conjunction might have kept you in the background, working quietly on your own, and you can see the progress you've made with this now. You can feel stable and secure, and able to keep going.

For Libra, the Sun conjunct Mercury targets you directly as it's in your sign and first house. The Inferior Conjunction likely made you focus on dreams for the future and changes you want to make, and you can now see the fruits of your labor. You can go for what you want with enthusiasm, and you can appreciate what you've done so far. If you're a Libra Sun, this aspect is strongest for you if you're born September 28th - October 3rd.

For Scorpio, the Sun conjunct Mercury activates your twelfth house, and you can make quiet progress and continue to set yourself up going forward. The Inferior Conjunction likely targeted your goals, and you might've picked back up an old one or took a different approach to an existing one. The changes made can help prepare you for the next phase, and you can be ready.

For Sagittarius, the Sun conjunct Mercury occurs in your eleventh house, and you can be open to unconventional approaches right now, and can make quick progress that almost feels out of nowhere. The Inferior Conjunction prompted you to take a big chance or to go big with something, and that can pay off now as you get closer to the future you dream of.

For Capricorn, the Sun conjunct Mercury lights up your tenth house, and you can hit your stride, hit new heights, and achieve in a big way. The Inferior Conjunction likely made you focus your passionate energy and work on an important transformation, and you can see the rewards for that hard work now. You can feel more in control of your destiny, and ready for success.

For Aquarius, the Sun conjunct Mercury activates your ninth house, and you can feel good about where you're going, and open to new opportunities and possibilities. The Inferior Conjunction might've been focused more on your connections with others, and improving those connections now leaves you the space to have a great adventure and new experiences.

For Pisces, the Sun conjunct Mercury occurs in your eighth house, and you can feel empowered and in control right now thanks to the work you started with the Inferior Conjunction. It likely made you more productive and focused on specific projects, and the work you've done pays off. You can feel strong and powerful, and can create what you want.